Lees,

I thought that chem. was a joke. Come to think about, math was also a joke. Oh well it was fun when you were there (most of the time). It will really be strange without the class of '81 here next year. You'll probably really feel the absense of "Spider," but we'll make him come and visit us. Cheers to the Class of 82.

Love
Steve.

P.S. You can call anytime you have any problems in Physics next year (it probably won't help you though).

Lisa,

So how was your junior year mind was alright isint totally great that were Seniors at last. Hey we have to some senior pranks this year. Well take it easy and give me a call once in while

See ya
Love
Charlie

Lisa,
I'm glad I got to know you a little better this year. Congratulations on getting the position next year! I'm sure you'll do a great job.
Love,
Teresa '82

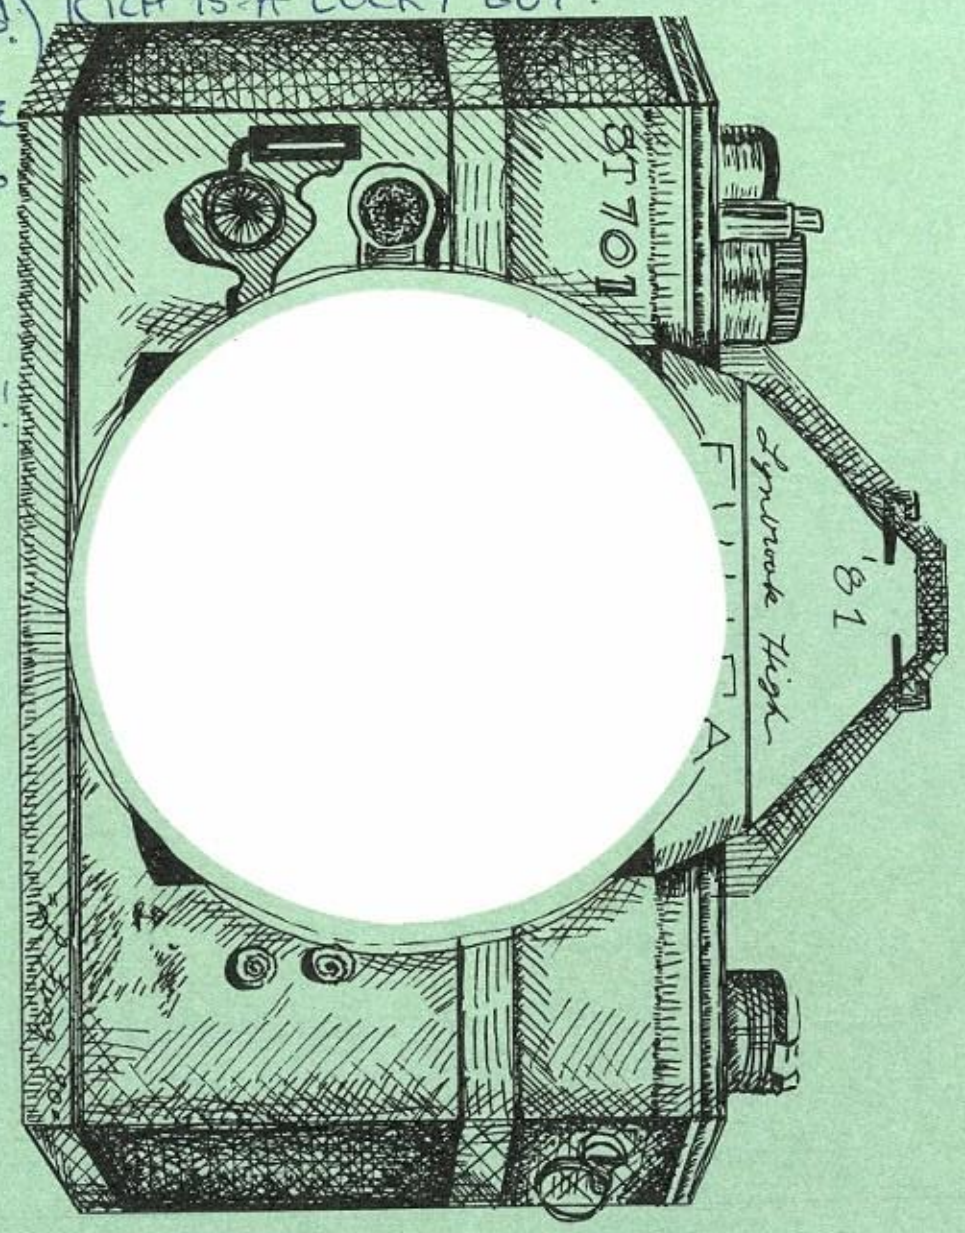
LISA,

YOU WOULDN'T KNOW HOW HAPPY I AM TO HAVE GOTTEN TO KNOW YOU THIS YEAR. IT WAS PROBABLY THE FIRST CLASSES WE'VE EVER HAD TOGETHER. WEREN'T COOLE'S AND TRICKY'S CLASSES A LOT OF FUN. MOST OF THE TIME ANYWAY. BUT IT WAS ALWAYS FUN TO BE AROUND YOU - YOU'RE REALLY A FINE PERSON (AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE FOR FUTURE LYNBROOK STUDENTS!) RICH IS A LUCKY GUY!

WELL, IT LOOKS LIKE WE'LL BE RUNNING THE SHOW AROUND THIS JOINT NEXT YEAR! SOUNDS LIKE A LOT OF FUN; HUH!

LOVE
MACK S.



LISA,
TOO BAD YOU WEREN'T IN ANY OF MY CLASSES THIS YEAR. I MISS BEING A READY TARGET FOR ALL THE HARASSMENT AND DIRT I USED TO GET INTO TROUBLE

SEE YOU AROUND

Lisa-
You are a young lady with a lot on the go. You have brains, looks, and a touch of class that adds everything up to make one great girl. I've known you for a long time and you have only gotten better over the years. Keep in touch so that we can party by something. (255-3728)

Love always.
John

Lisa,
What a great junior year. But if you think this was great just wait till our senior year. We haven't really talked that much this year but I still consider you a good friend.

Love always

Lisa,
Yeah, Spanish was a wonder being one of the 3 people (Pam being the 3rd) who cut the most. We managed to have fun (?) even though we learned absolutely nada! It was nice getting to know all of you people whom to me were so popular along with Stuck up etc until I got to know you all. I guess that's what happens when people don't know each other, they just assume. I hope

Lisa-
This year has been a great one with the class (82) becoming more and more unified as time progressed. I, for one, am looking forward to this summer and next year so that I, and everyone else, can do all that I (we) can. Our greatest ~~years~~ years of life are almost over—hell enough of this sad stuff, let's move forward. I must say that I haven't seen much of you until this year—since eighth grade—but now we are all together. All the more that I can say is let's (all) stay in touch this summer (257-8484). Well that's about enough said, so let's DO!

Love, Todd

→ You and Rick have a great summer and thanks for letting me cheat off your current events quizzes.

!#@$? Mill registration again? Which courses have been cancelled? School starts when? Practice for fall sports started two weeks ago? No football jamboree? School starts at eight o'clock? What should I wear? I wonder where my friends will be? Who's that? I've never heard of that teacher. Longer classes? Shorter lunches? Where in the world is this room? What time is brunch? Why are the bathrooms locked? The librarian's teaching what? You mean we have no Dean of Activities? What's this Hi-C stuff? What? No counselors? looking together

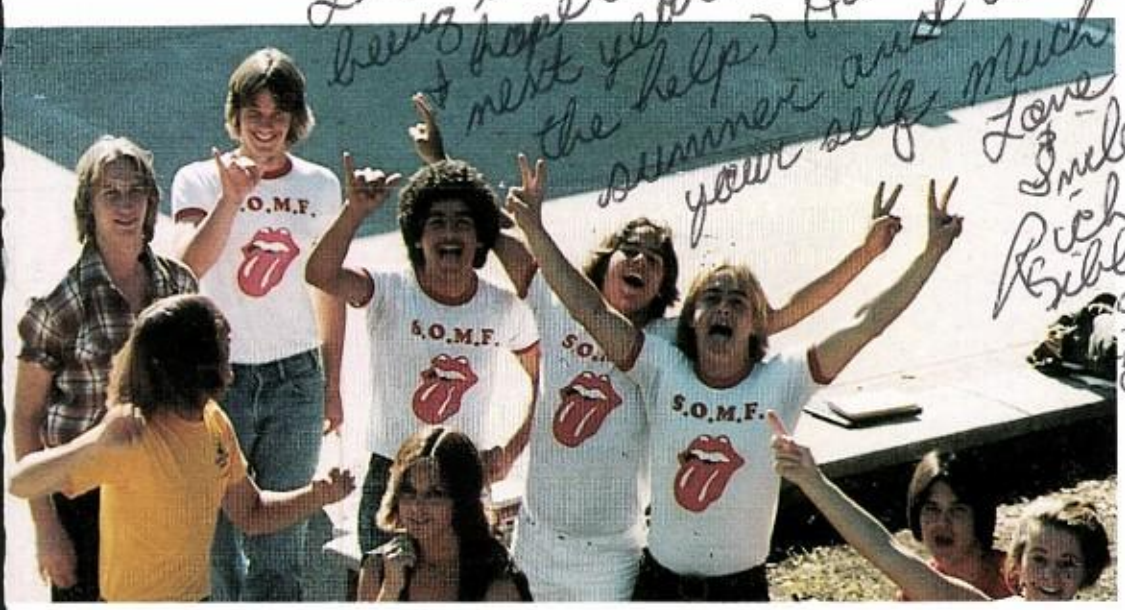
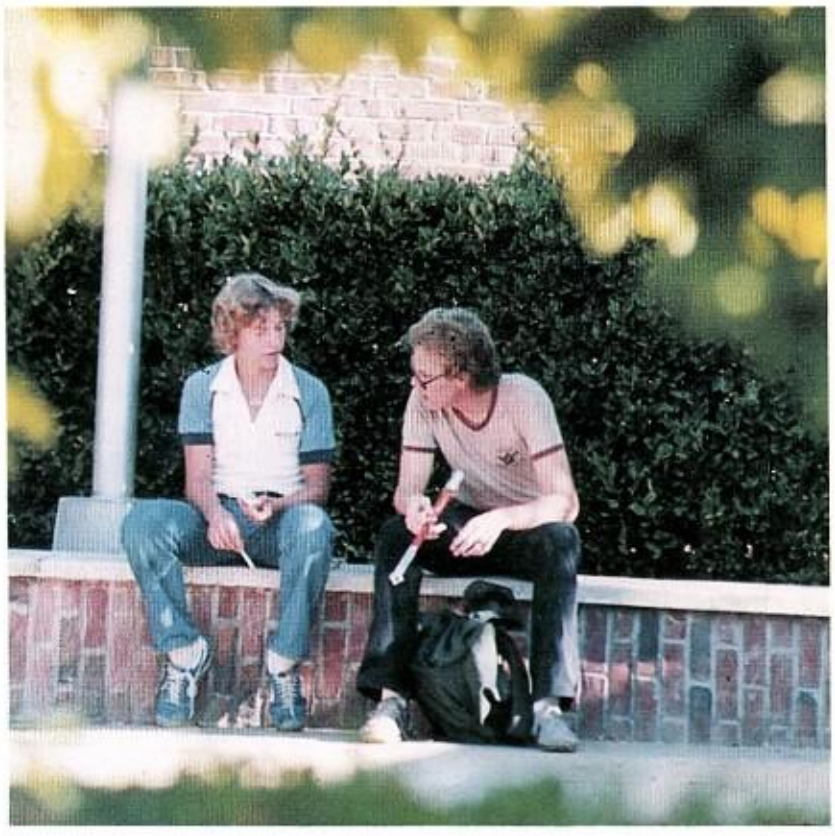
Dear Lisa - I guess everybody will always remember Truckee Class-Right? Right on! I wish that I had gotten to know you better. The years went fast. But there's always 82!!! Make an excellent writer & keep rockin'! See ya next year or summer (at least) maybe over the summer sometime. Luv, Ann Marie '82 ☺ Vintage



Lisa - It was fun being in Chem lab with you and I hope we have classes together next year (I could probably use the help). Have a SOMF summer and take care of yourself. Much Love & Smiles Rich Kibler Soph '81



Summer ended officially on September 4, 1980, and it was time to get used to holding a pencil, sitting in plastic chairs, and spending five days a week at the institute of higher education (alias Lynbrook). We began to settle into the routine of school and to look for various ways (pranks?) to break the monotony. Everyone soon realized that only by working together could the entire student body make the 1980-1981 school year something to smile about. After looking happy

we got organized, we began to have fun. The frowns that meant the beginning of the school year quickly disappeared, and people began to look and act happy. Even the weather was happy (sunshine in October?), and a new atmosphere was present at Lynbrook High. No longer did people complain about the lack of counselors, teachers, and administrators. Instead, we accepted our situation like responsible adults and began to looking serious

concentrate on our studies. Of course, the teachers did not hesitate to assign us homework (even the first day!). It was time to get serious and to occupy ourselves with all the different types of work: class work, team work, and the ever-present homework. Contrary to what we told our parents, school was not all work and no play. Hand in hand with all the school work came school spirit. There were spirit leaders (cheering at all athletic events in front of a huge crowd) and students with spirit (sitting in the crowd at all athletic events). At each and every rally, the individual classes screamed and yelled their absolute loudest (with either the class of '81 or the class of '83 usually emerging as the victor). During the week of October 12 - October 18 (known informally as Spirit Week), a strange virus invaded the Lynbrook campus causing students to dress in a very strange manner. The climax of Spirit Week came when we saw the crowning of Homecoming Queen, Patti Murray, and a close football game against Homestead.

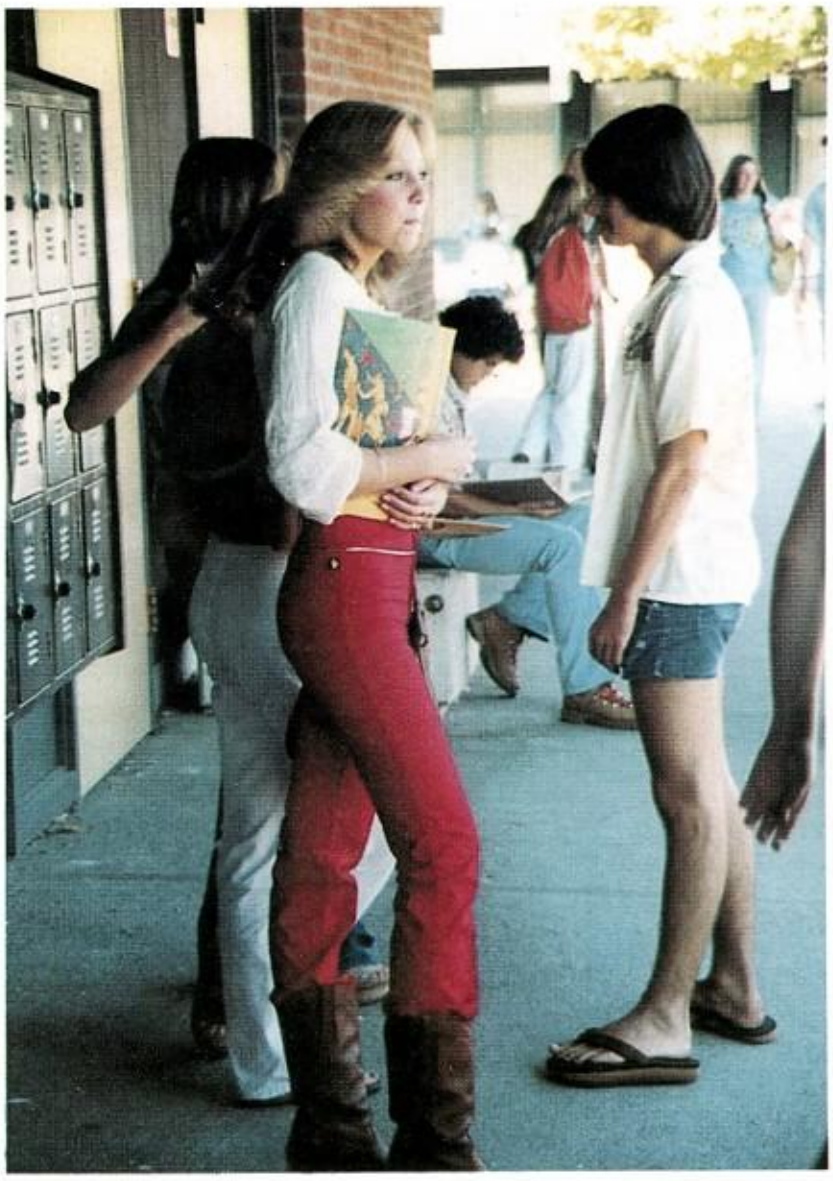
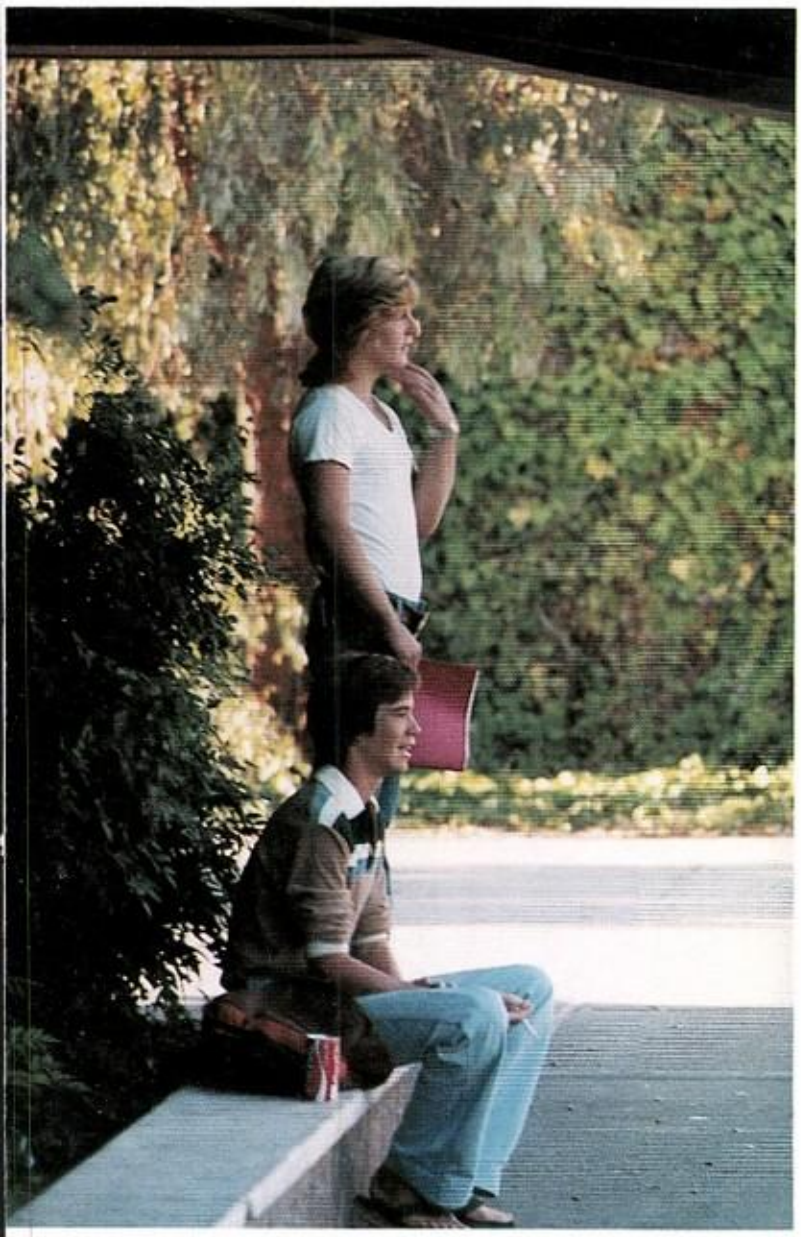
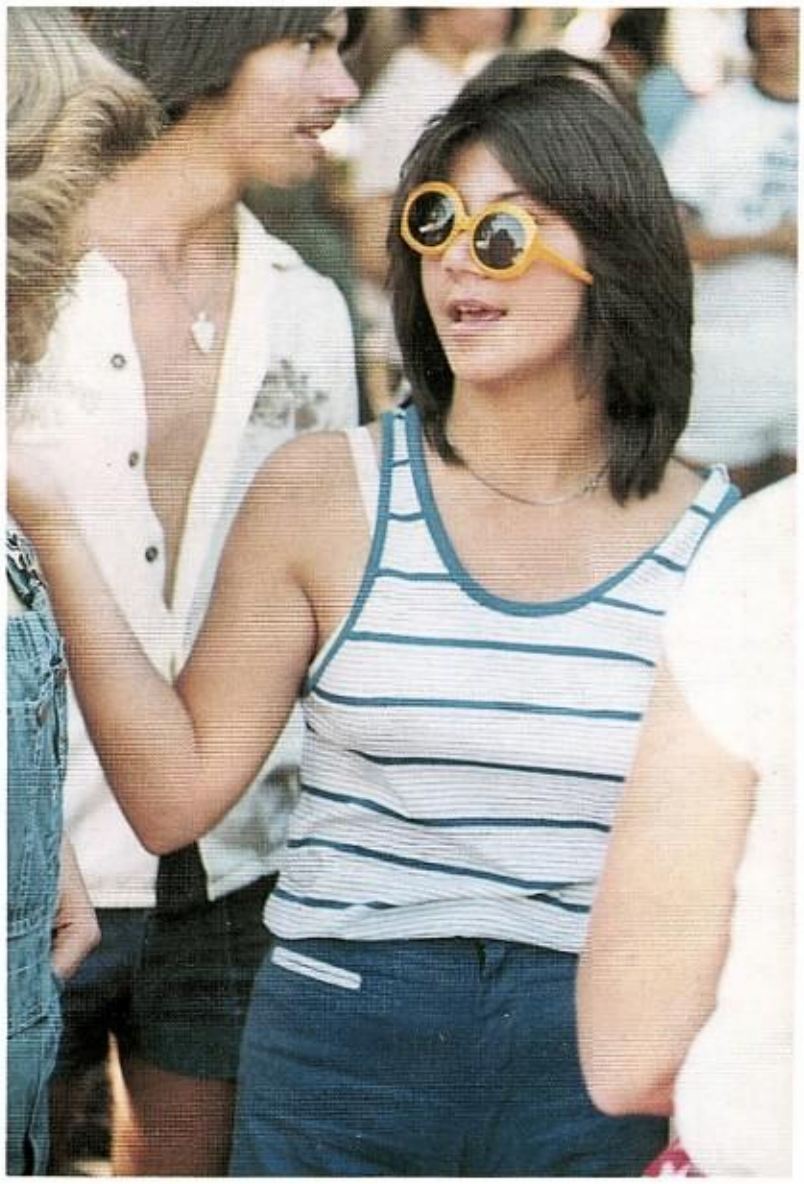
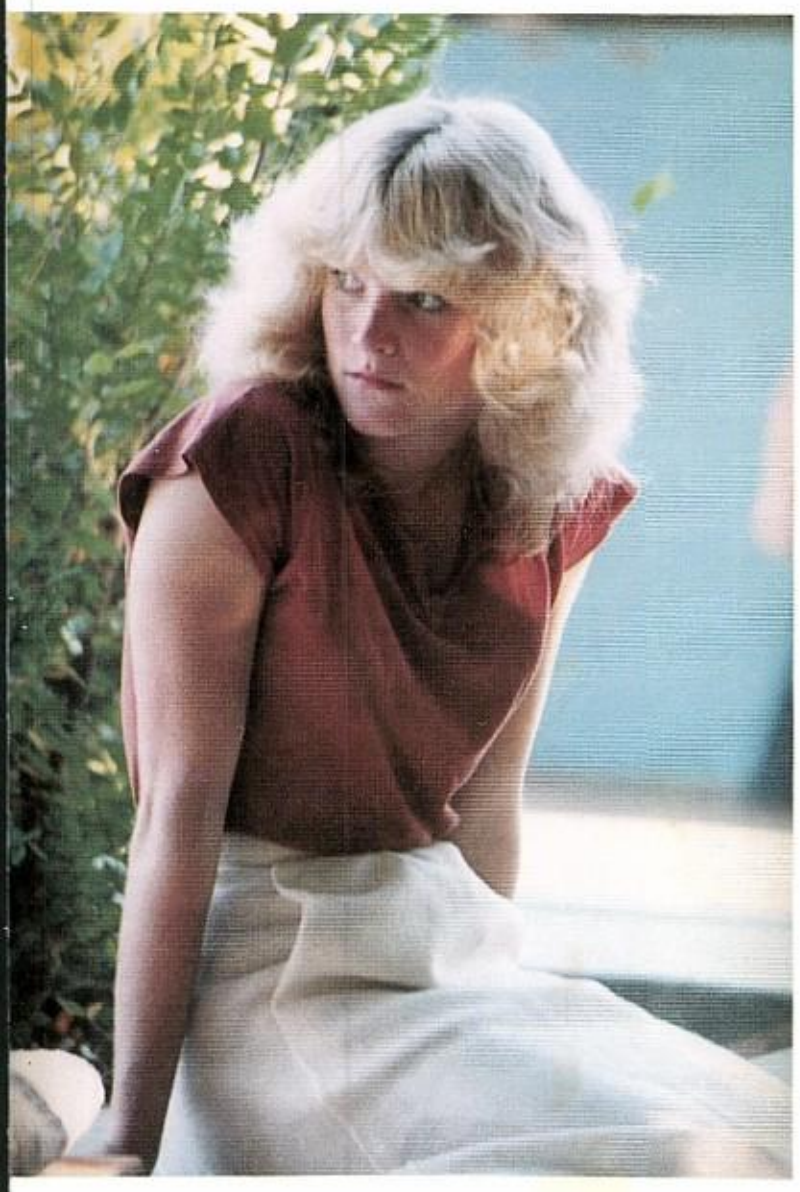
looking ahead









With the 1980 homecoming a thing of the past, we began to look forward to the rest of the school year. The freshmen were looking forward to being sophomores, the sophomores were looking forward to being upper classmen, and the juniors were looking forward to being big seniors. The seniors were looking ahead to graduation and remembering, rather than attending, Lynbrook High School.

Lisa,

I can't believe that we're going to be seniors already! It seems like yesterday when we were filing into that room for the first Key Club meeting. Now we're planning our senior pranks.

Well, thanks for being a friend to me through everything. (all the dances were fun) You're a really special friend and I feel lucky knowing you.

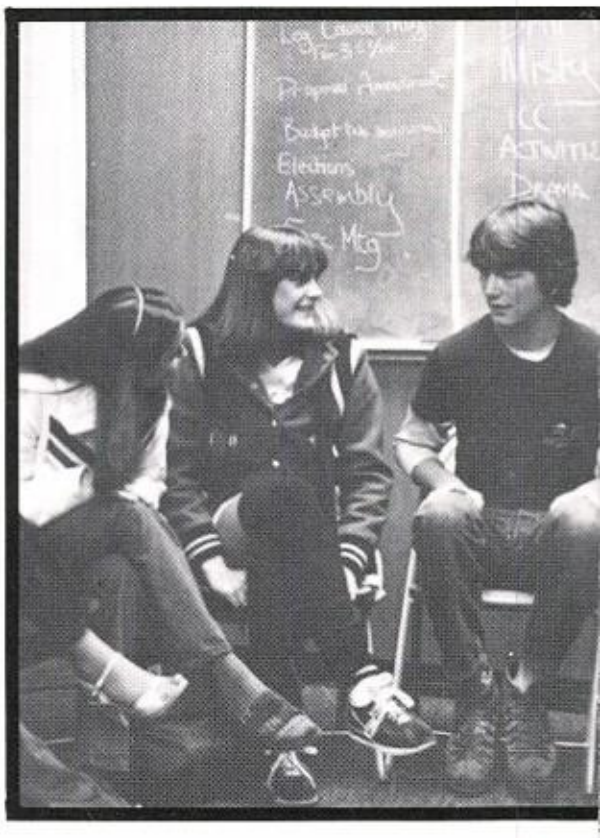
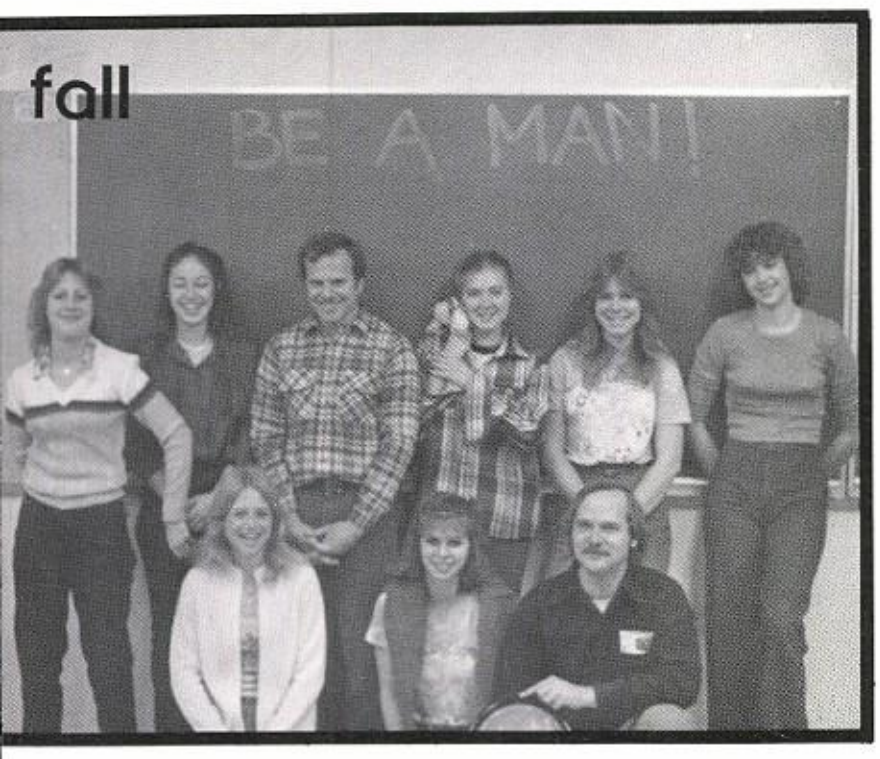
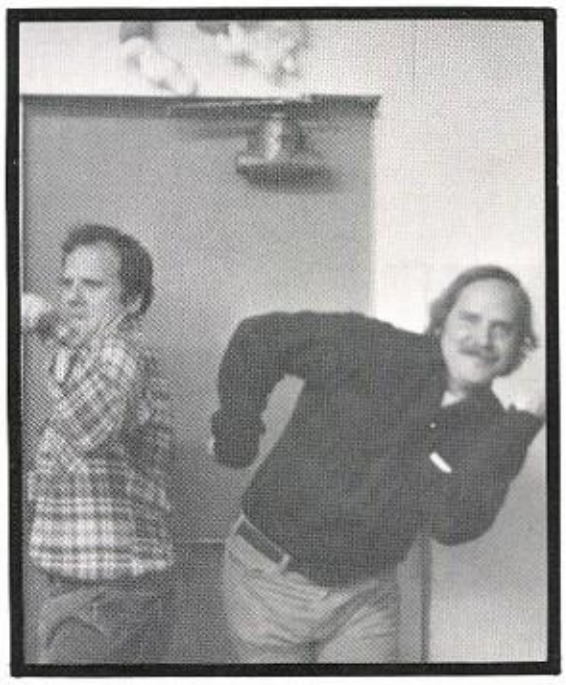
executive council

What does Tuesday morning mean to a member of Lynbrook's fall a.s.b.? It means waking up an hour earlier, so you could get to school by 7:15. Believe it or not, the Executive Council was always there, sorting out ideas, making decisions, and just simply having fun (having breakfast after the meetings, looking for Marty's chicken-feet, and keeping up with the latest concerning Mike S.). Yes, there was always something to joke about, but despite all the laughing, the seriousness of politics prevailed. The accomplishments benefitted all and created another successful year at LHS.







Can you believe a Lynbrook student can earn one semester's worth of credits without ever setting foot upon the Lynbrook campus? CEBAS allows the students to gain practical learning experiences in the community. The students involved have the freedom to choose his activities and projects.

The emphasis of the program is on the development of the student as an individual, including self-image, group interaction, acceptance of responsibility, and caring for one's self and others.

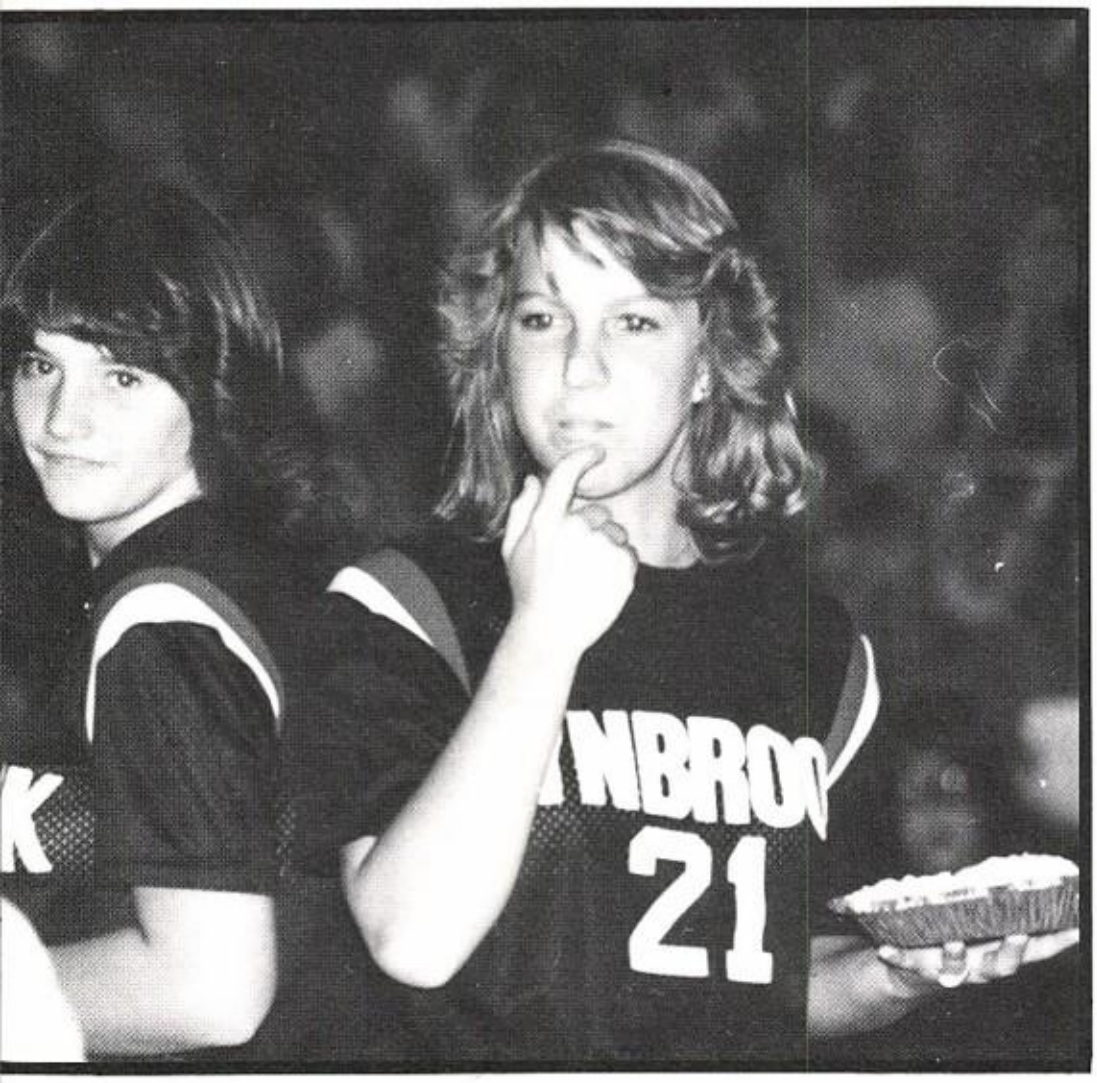
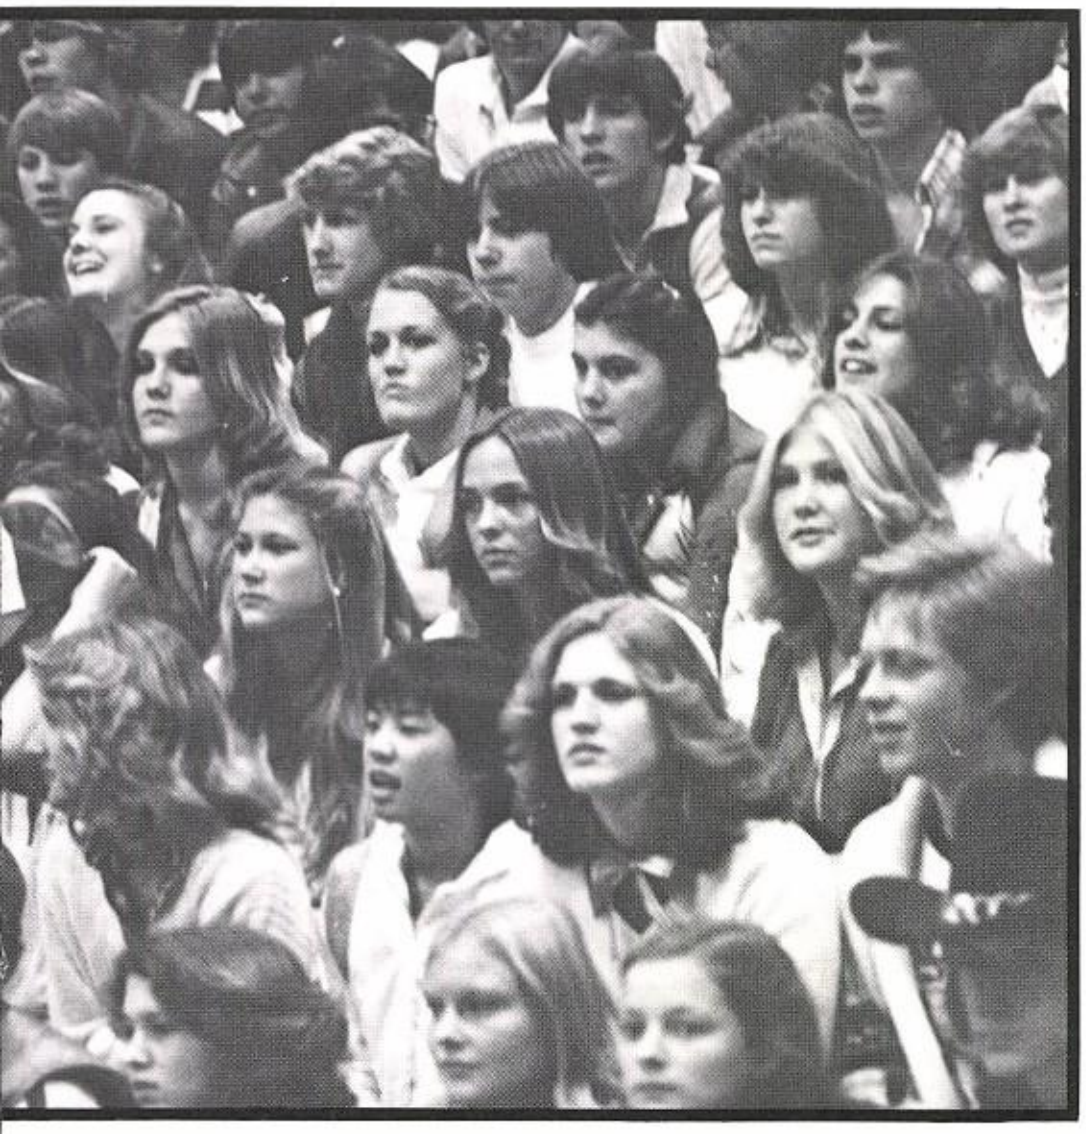
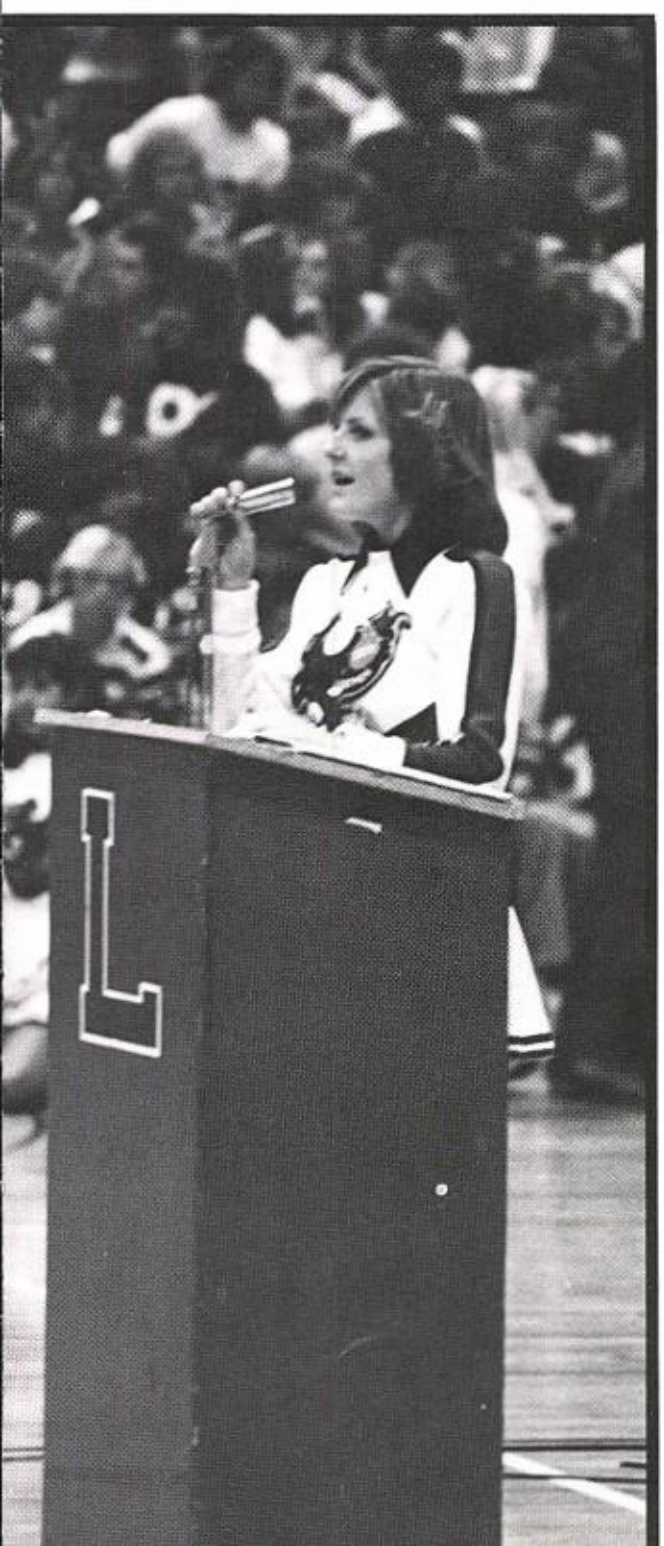
LHS SOPHOMORES





One thing at school that we were all able to look forward to (besides vacations) were the rallies. For one, it was Friday (TGIF!), and also it was a time for all to do weird things only imagineable off campus. Rallies generated spirit and encouragement to the players and spectators of all the sports. These bizarre events didn't come often, but when they did, they weren't missed by many. Although they all ended the same, with the Seniors winning the class competition (what makes a Senior have such a big mouth?) and the spirit leaders desperately pleading for us to stay for the alma mater, the rallies were a great way to just go crazy and show some true class and school spirit. Go Vikes!



The hills are alive with the sound of "coneheads"? This adjective could only apply to one drill team (you guessed it!), our very own valkyries, the defending national champions!!! We are the group of girls who perform throughout the year, but most memorably at halftime of the football games. Through rain, cold days, and even mud puddles on the fifty yard line, we kept our sunny smiles that the valkyries are so famous for.

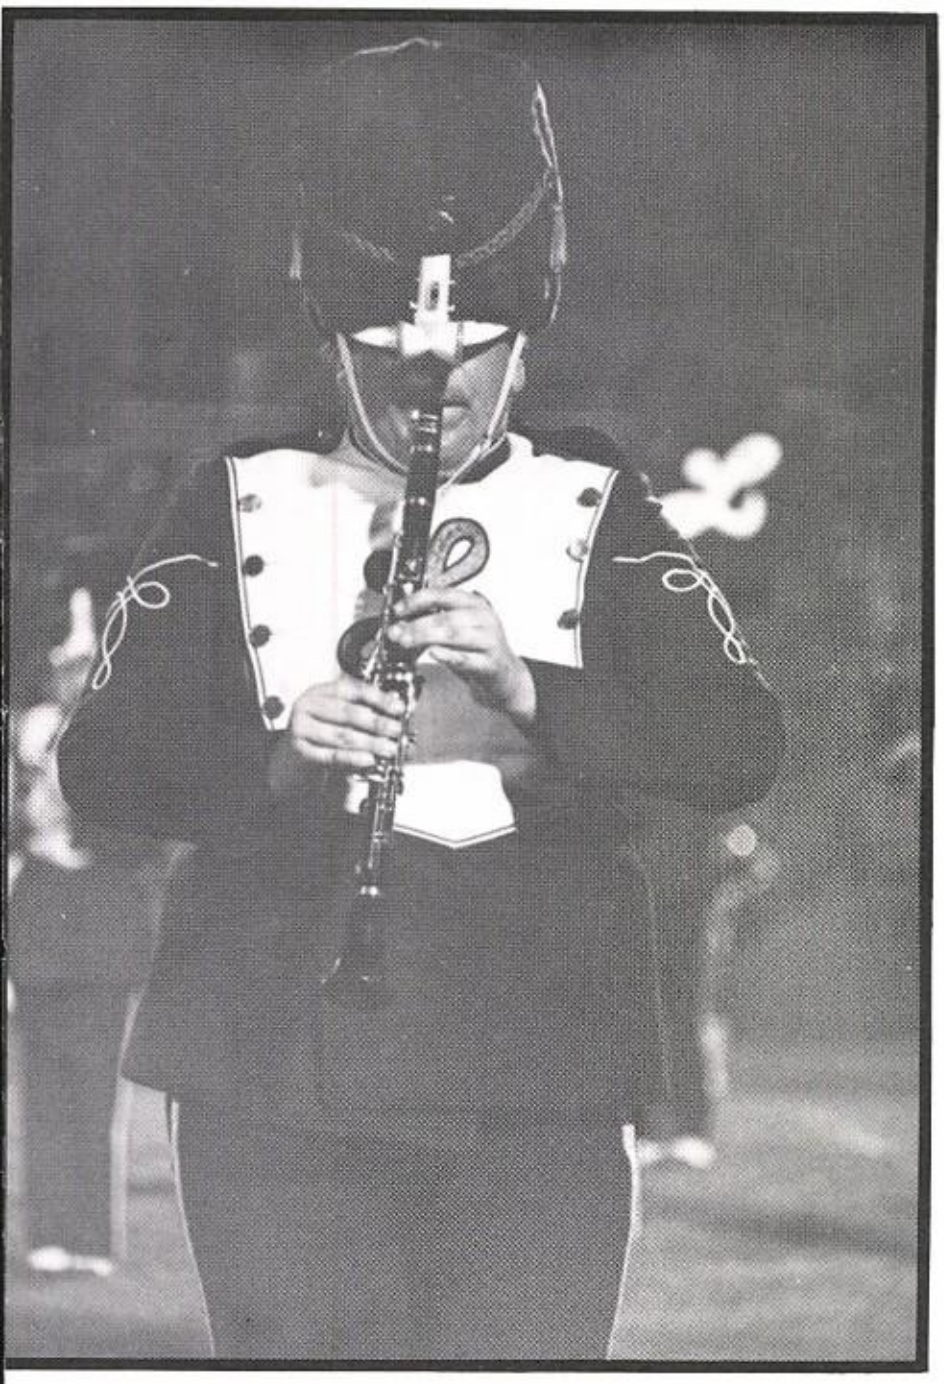
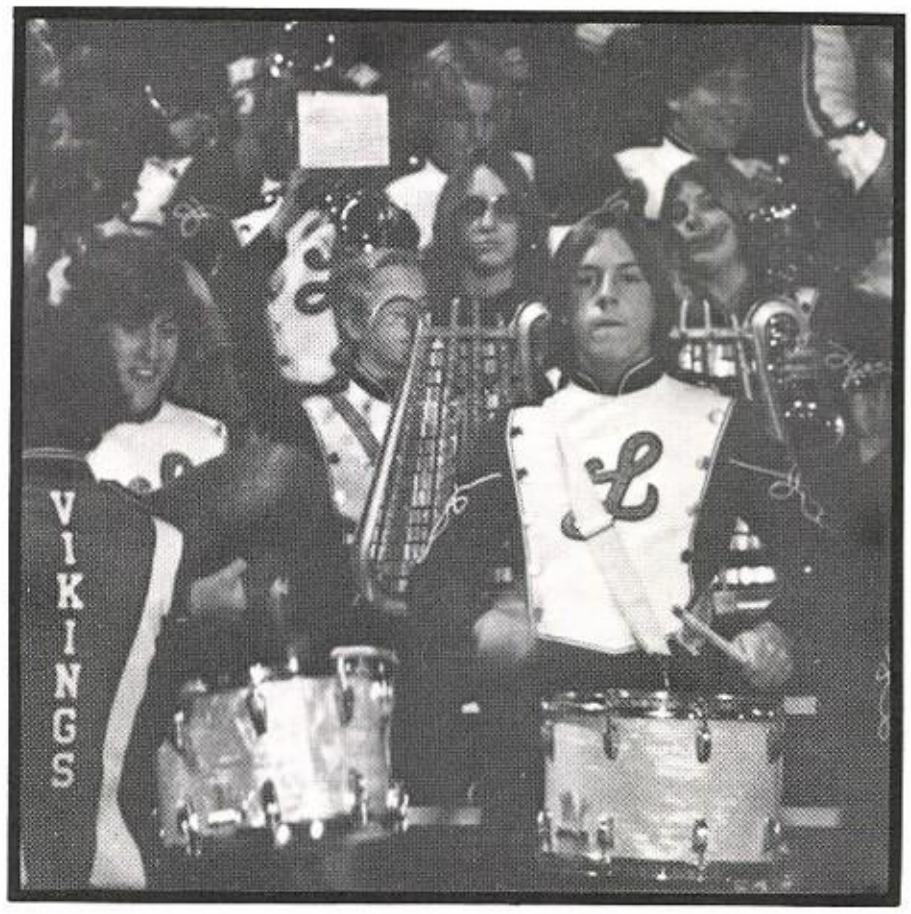
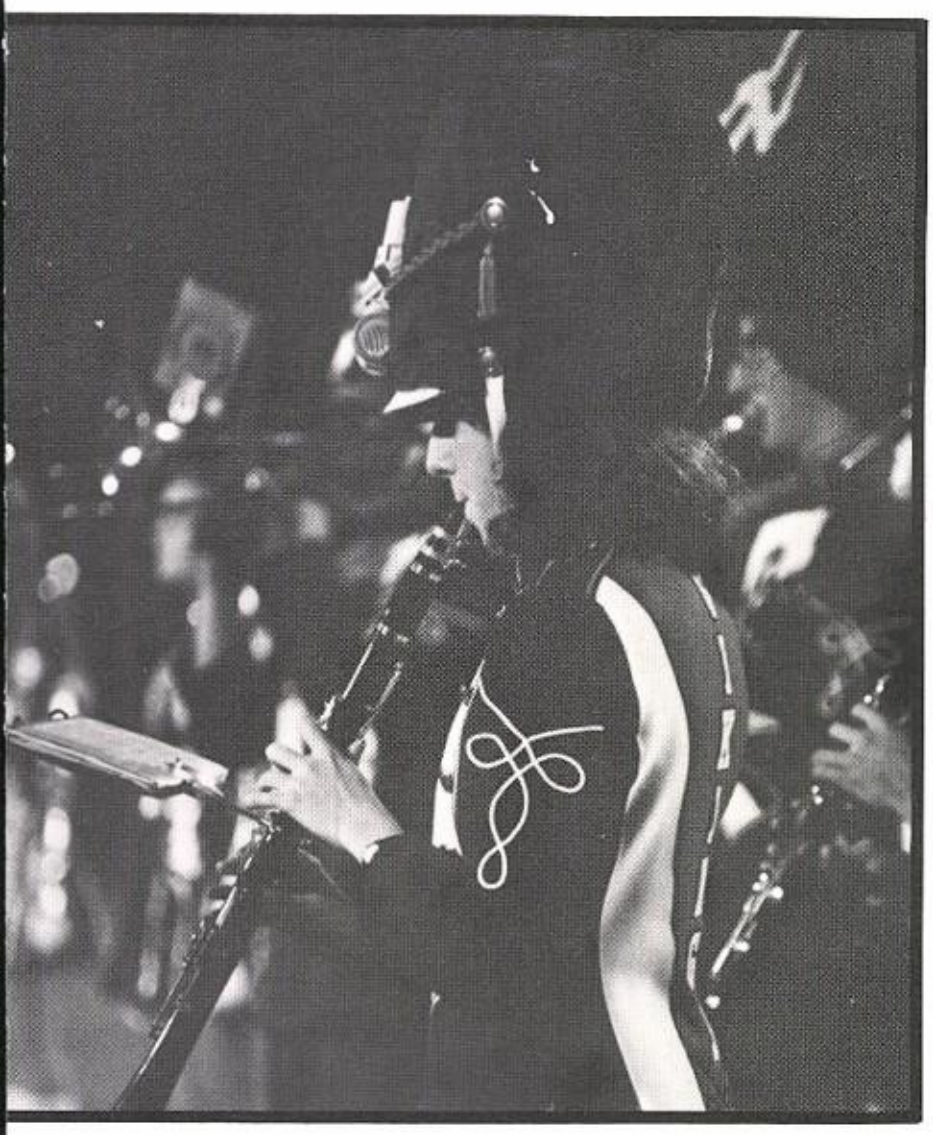
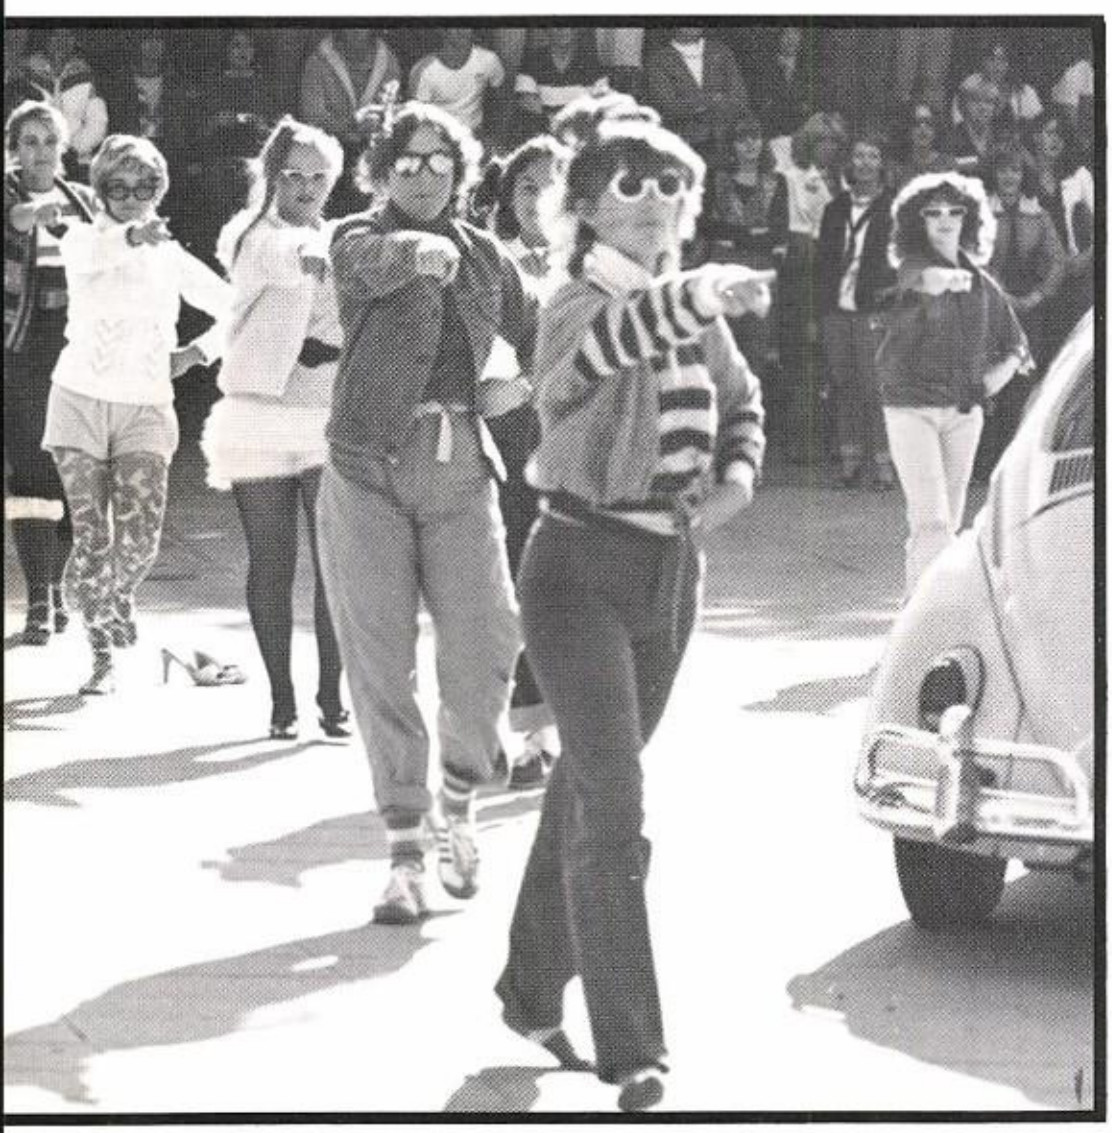
marching band

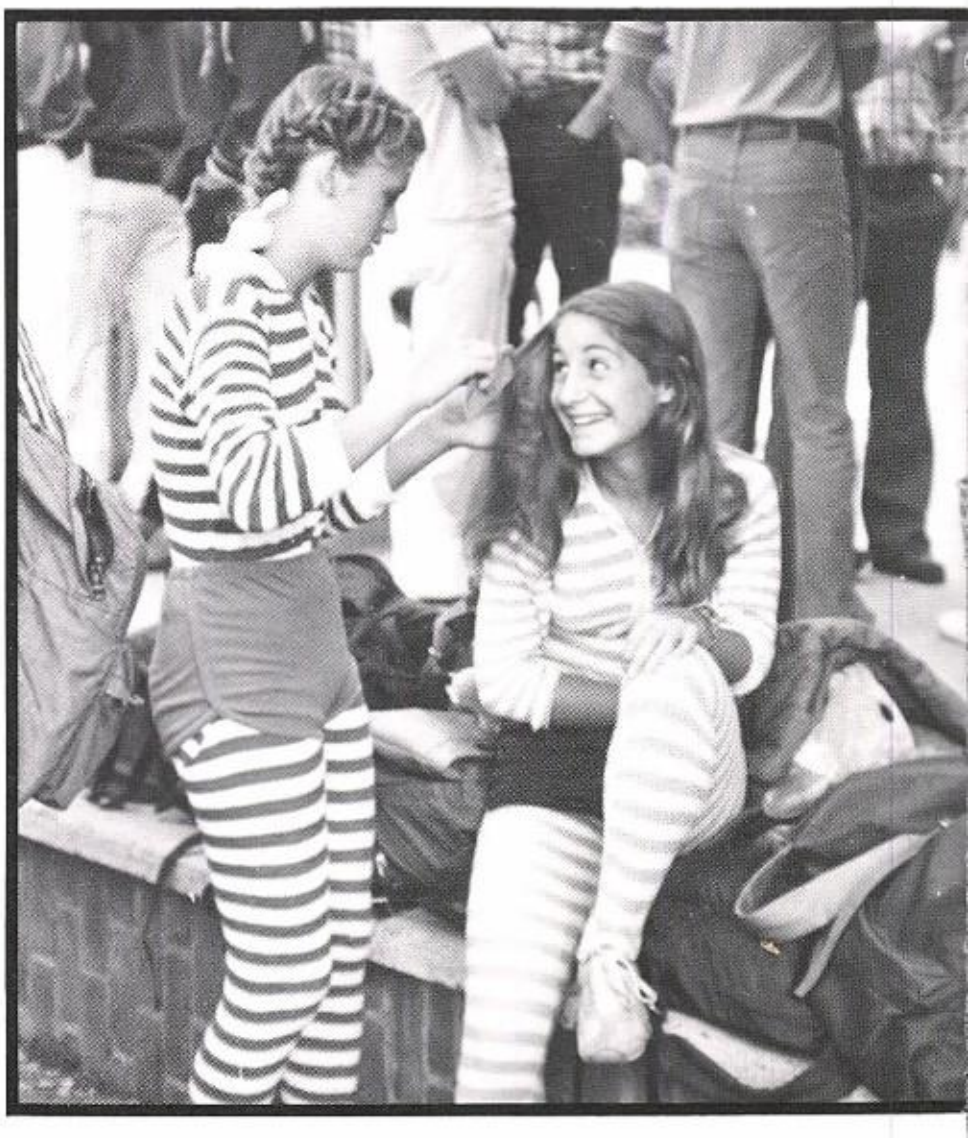


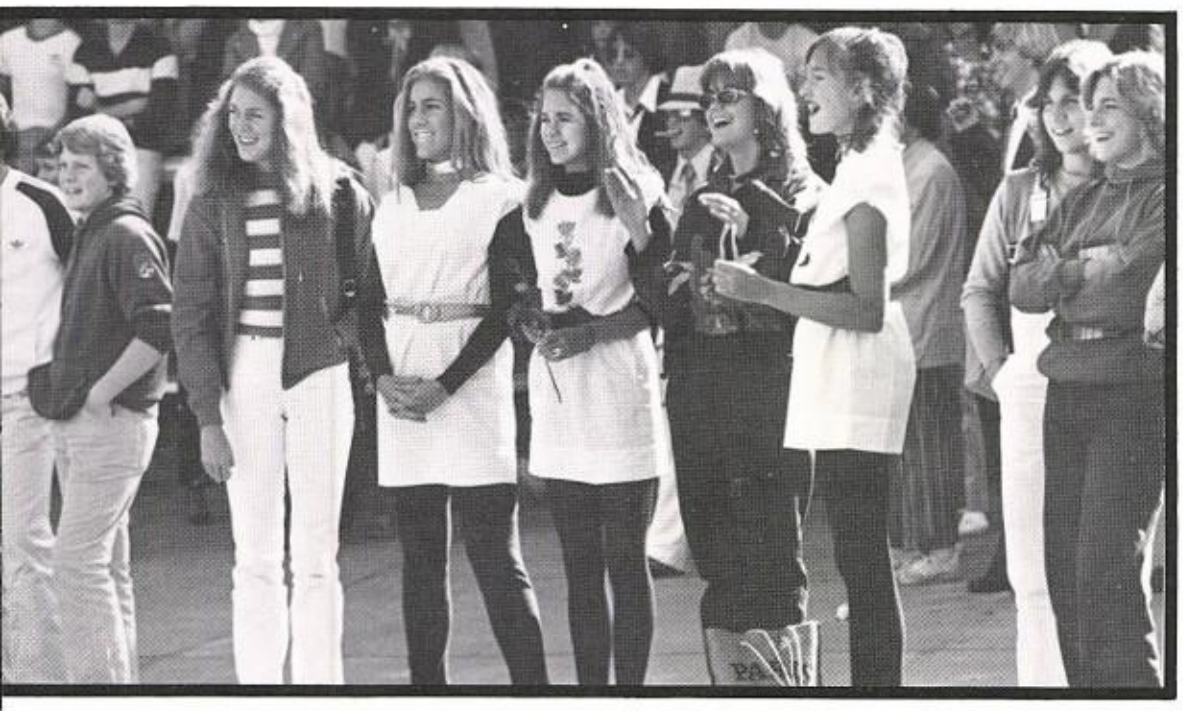




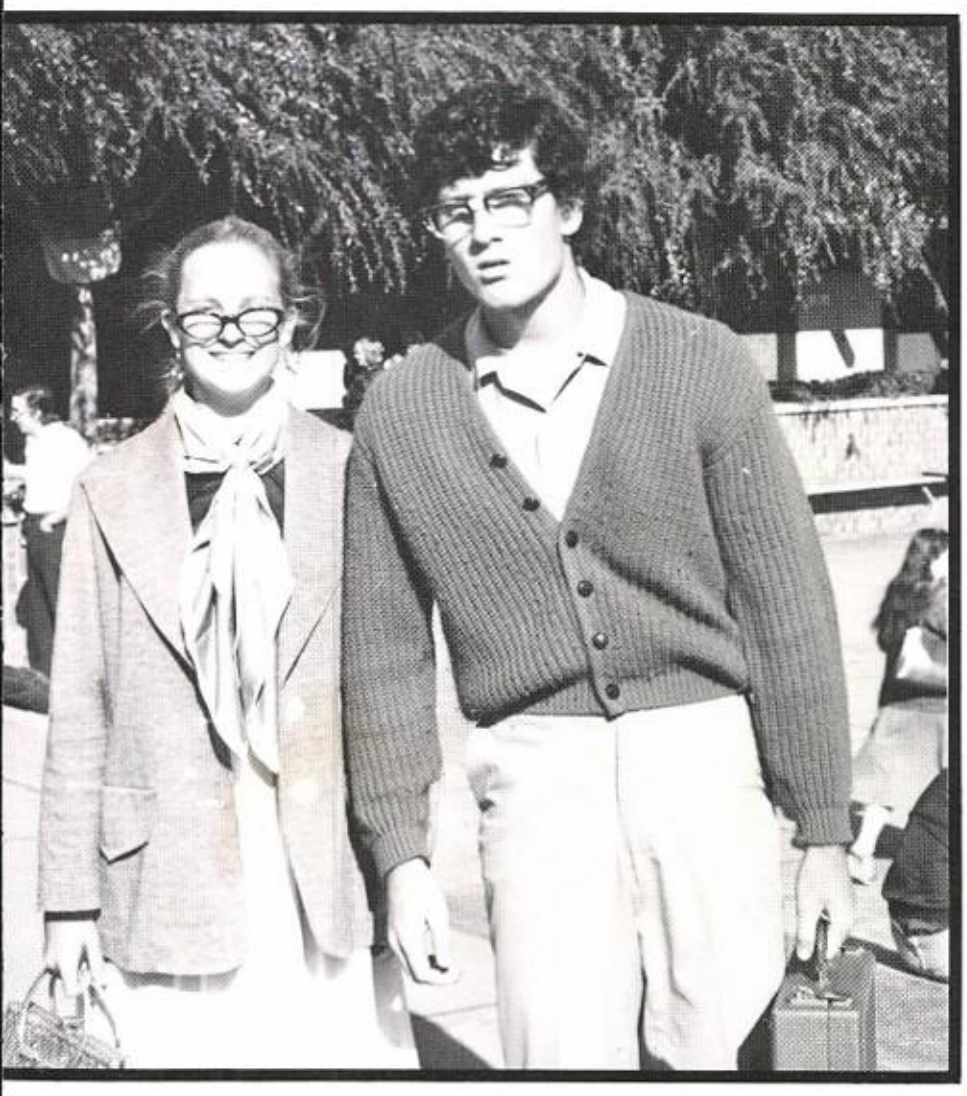
Under the fine direction of new band leader Joe Hinds off the field and Roy Harline as Drum Major, the Lynbrook marching band had another sweet-sounding season. Roy, Judy, and Leslie shone under the lights as the band was always in step (well almost always). Those Friday afternoon football games were just for fun, and the pizza sales helped boost the band's bank account (if not their appetites). The drummers were always the butt of many jokes around the band room, but the beat goes on. You can't tone down their enthusiasm as they look forward to another year marching to the beat of a different drum.

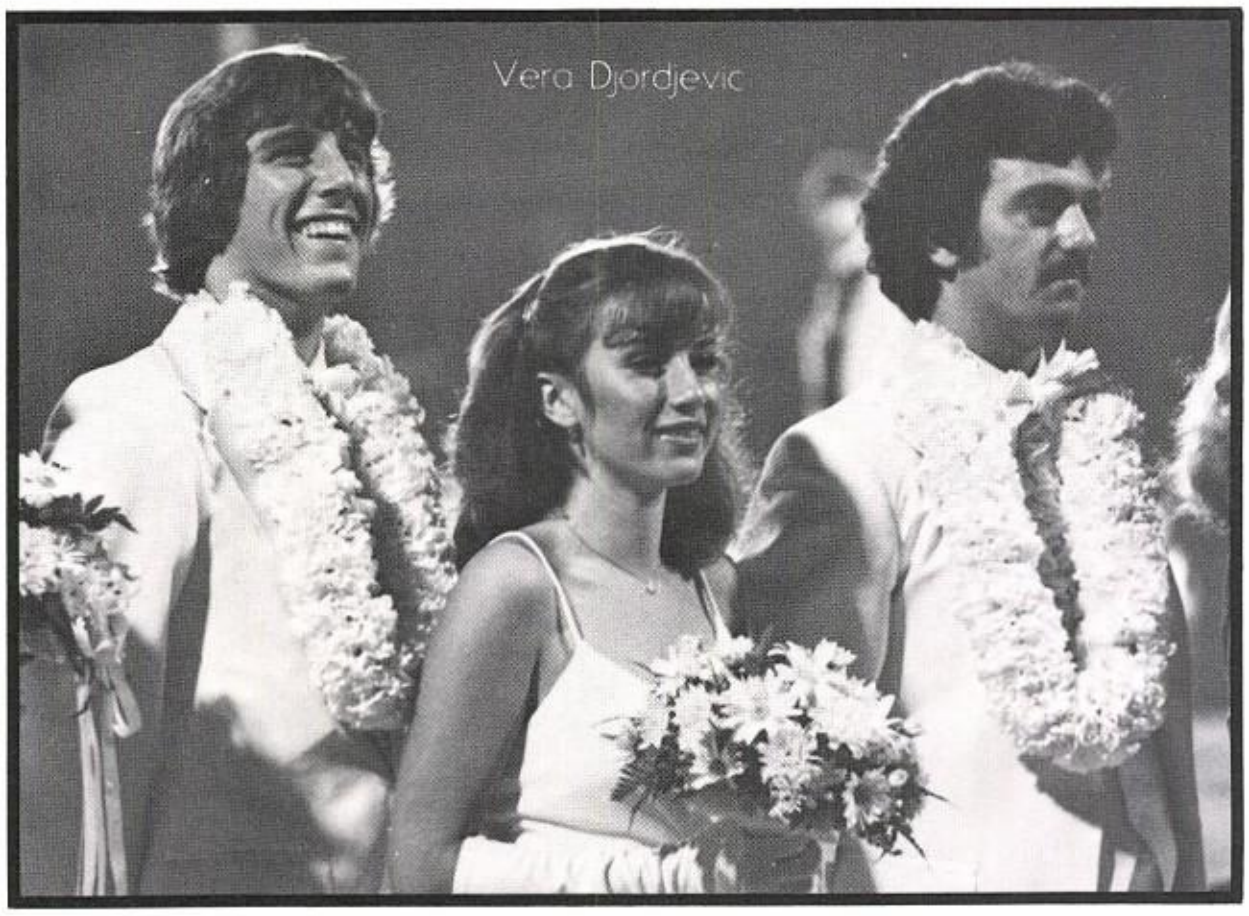






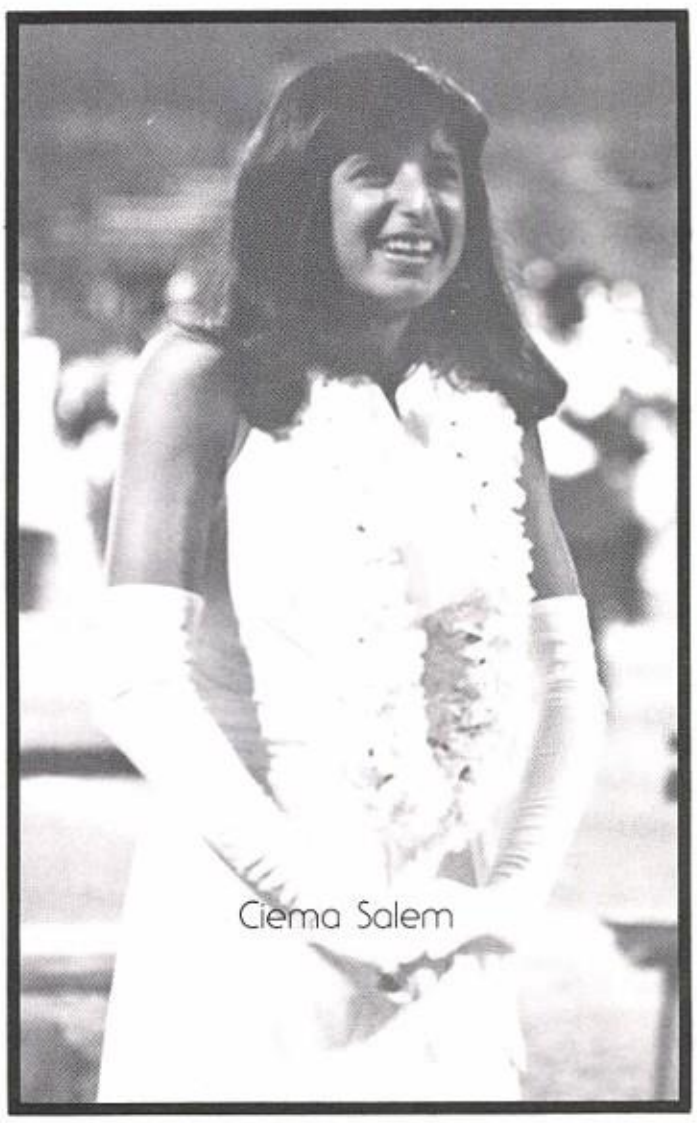
Question: When does all of Lynbrook (most Seniors) act like Freshmen? Answer: spirit week! The fun started as we woke up and came to school in our pajamas Monday morning to find a half-decorated rally court (don't worry Freshmen, every class does the same their first year). The Sophomores took over on Nerd Day (obviously) and did a decent job decorating and dressing up (they were dressed up, weren't they?). On New Wave Day, the Juniors lived their fantasies (in the rally court?), and the cheerleaders' dance gave us a taste of what Punk is all about. Devo, look out! The last of our decorating days was Masquerade Day where the Senior crew, aboard their Hobie Cat, sailed gallantly into the sun. Friday was Red, White, and Blue Day and our annual rally. The winner is . . . the Senior Class! (but, of course!)





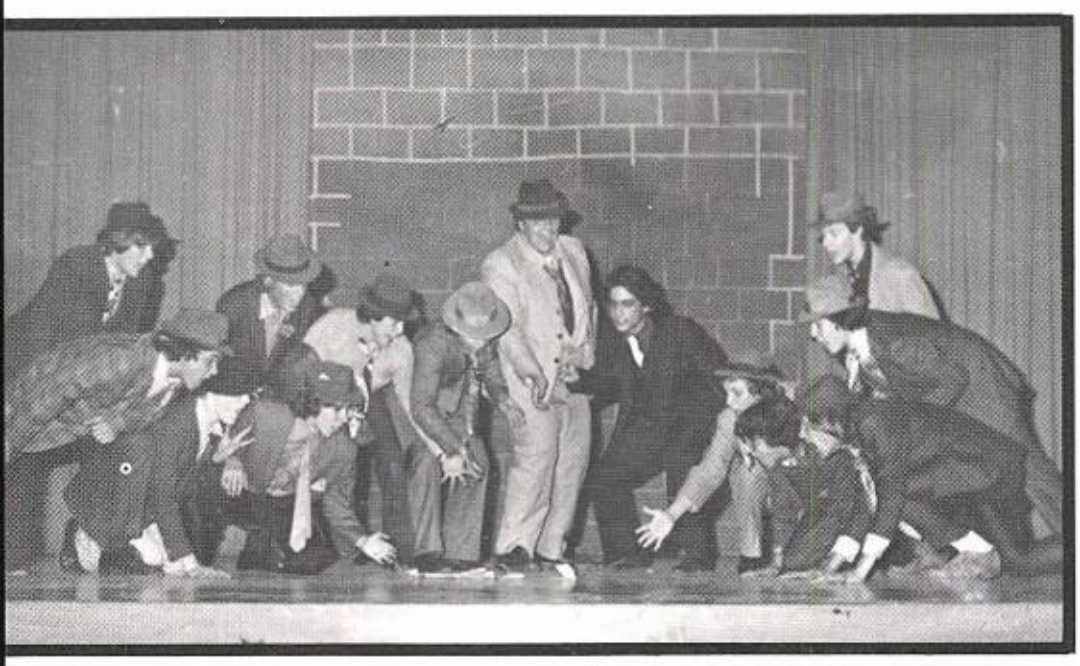
Vera Djordjevic

Queen: Patti Murra



Ciema Salem

A miracle happened at this year's homecoming. It didn't rain! The whole night, with the exception of the loss to Homestead (a small detail), was perfect. The princesses, all dressed beautifully in white dresses, were driven in Sunbeam Tigers. The first to arrive was Freshman Sandi Buckstad, followed by Sophomore Kari Smith, and Junior Kim Patterson. The Seniors were Vera Djordjevic, Patti Murray, and Ciema Salem. Something seemed to be missing, however, after the girls were all in place (oh yes, their escorts, of course). These handsomely dressed gentlemen were Jim Tegley, Jeff Corner, Toby Keller, Rob Barclay, Marty Gordon, and Bill Bloyd. They each greeted their dates with a bouquet of flowers and in return received a lei. Stage now set, it was time to announce the 1980-81 Homecoming Queen. The winner is . . . Patti Murray! After the crowning came the annual oohs and ahs show (the fireworks display). It was a memorable night in which we were able to see the returning Seniors together once again.



Well, after months of preparation, (Are you ready back there? From the top.) Lynbrook's Drama Community produced live, on stage in the Lynbrook Auditorium, Guys and Dolls. Work began the second weeks of school, but all work and no play (no pun intended) makes for a dull day. Gavin and Dan had two Beatle songs (Help and If I Fell) to seranade the crew with, while Joe and Jenny were practicing for the kissing scenes. They all decided to break a leg opening night, and later on, everyone got a real kick at the cast party. The old pros and fresh talent put on a show that was loved by one and all, and it seems their next stop is Broadway.

The stars shown brightly on November 22, but they weren't in the sky; they were in our cove. Yes, sadie went Hollywood, and our favorite stars appeared everywhere (even the kind with 5 points!). Famous names included Mickey and Minnie, Popeye and Olive Oyl, Peter Pan and Tinker Bell, and would you believe, Danny and Sandi of "Grease" made it to this gala event. A special guest appearance by Sonny and Cher was the hit of the evening. This year's Mr. Irrestibles were Freshman-Chris White, Sophomore-Steve Peterson, Junior-Darron Riley, Seniors-Jim Tegley, Marty Gordon, and Jeff Corner was crowned King. The whole evening provèd to be one of the most exciting and memorable events of the year despite the mishap after the dance. (Put it in the trunk next time, kids!)

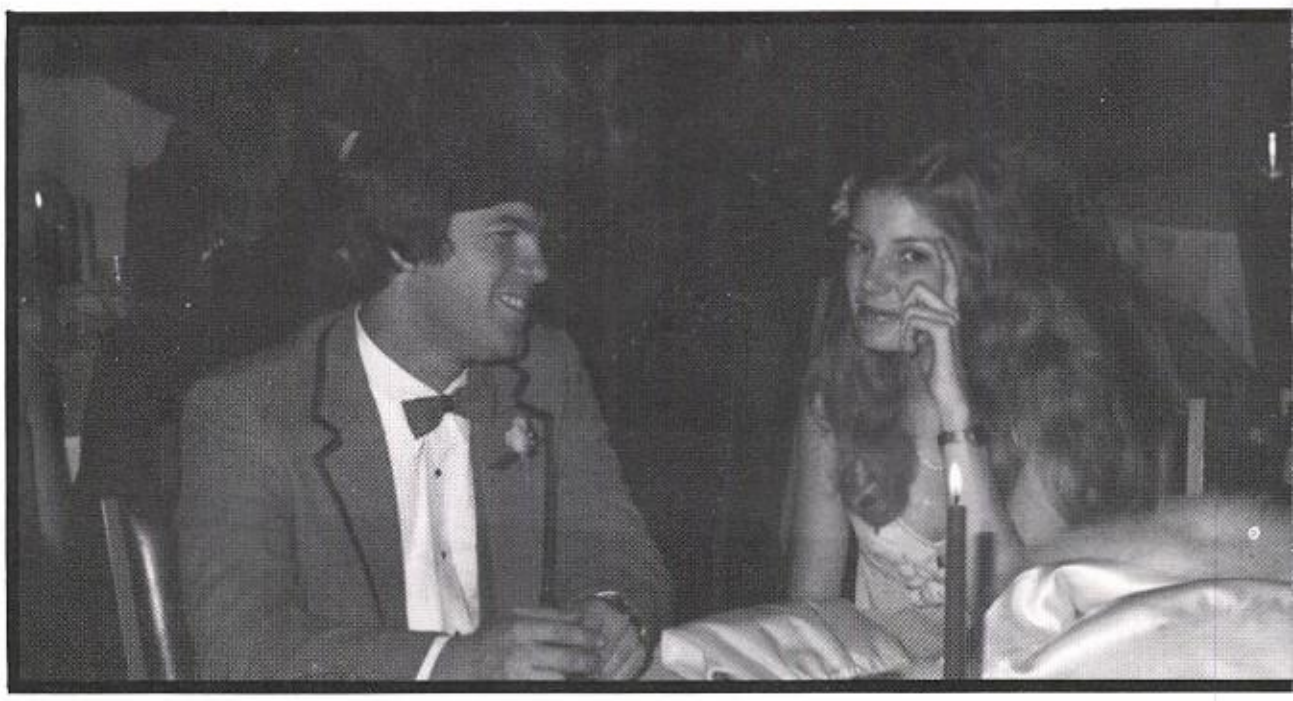
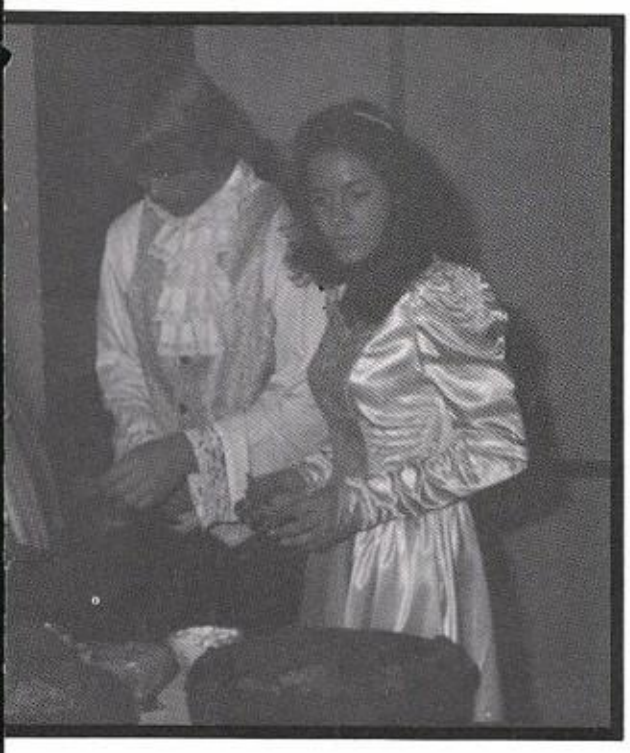
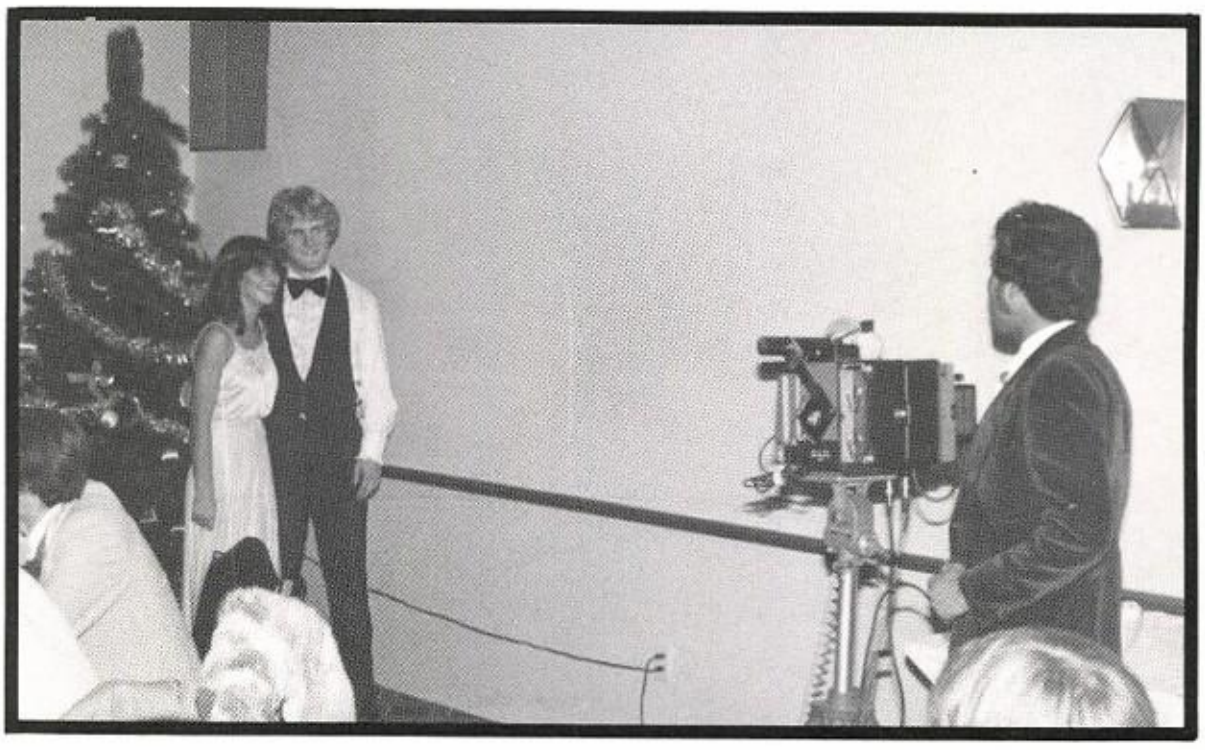
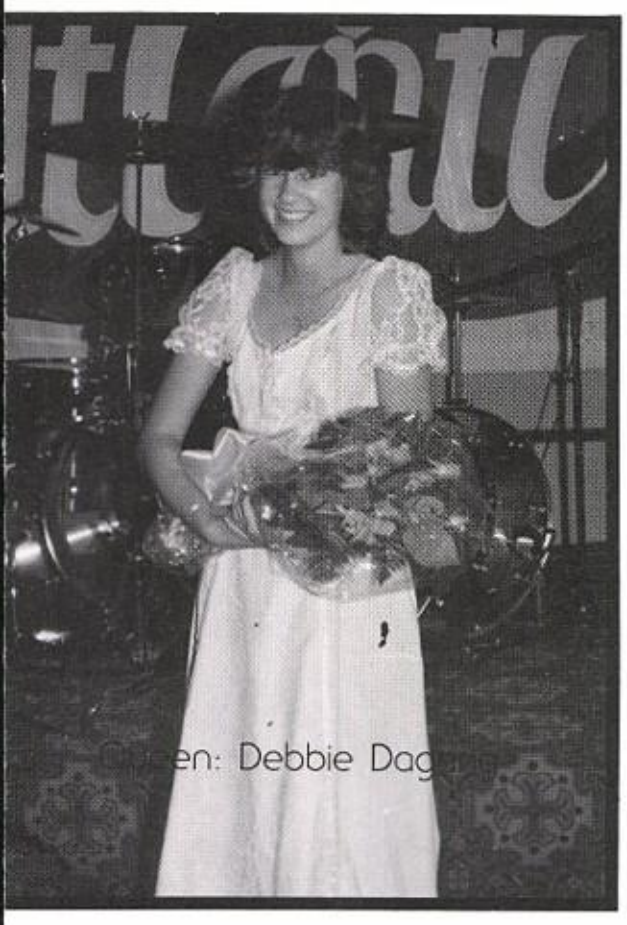
Sunfey's



If you went, you were lucky, and if you found the place, you were even luckier. Fog literally blanketed Highway 280 and Dunfeys Hotel, the location of this year's christmas ball. Once inside, however, it was a fantasy come true. The ladies' and gentlemens' attire were lit splendidly by a Christmas glow. The entire evening was exciting, starting with the usual pictures (whoopee!) and dinner, and then on to the dance. Let us not forget the "skiing" some of us did beforehand (what!?). By the end of the night, the tuxes were reduced to shirts and pants only, and the formals had some extra color (I swear Mom, it's only Kool-Aid!). Despite the fog, we all made it home safely. Well, almost all of us (right, Patti and Ken?).







Princesses: Lori McElveny, Sherry Register, Debbie Dagang, Debbie Christiansen, Ciema Salem.

Tuesday morning came early for those on the executive council. Meetings began promptly at 7:15 a.m., with or without the president, (Late again, Steve?) Libby kept everyone on their toes with her point system and Marty continued her crusade for the mysterious chicken feet. Spring A.S.B. wasn't all jokes though. The whole council worked diligently to get things done and all enjoyed it.

The spring play, Arsenic and Old Lace, got off to an unusual start with Mark's rendition of an audition. (blowing the bulge, Mark?) After all the parts were cast, the rehearsals began. Long hours were spent memorizing lines and practicing chaste kisses (on the lips, of course). Let us not forget practice offstage as well. (Practicing during second period is a no-no, Kerri.) Of course, the show was a smashing success, and every performance topped the one before. No cast member can forget the great cast parties commemorating another Lynbrook hit.

The 1980-1981 Epic staff was composed of ten weirdos, (Tac, Messiah, Blondie, Pinky, Chief Yosh, Weesa, Baa Baa Boo, Bill Overstreet, Maggie, and Lizard Lips), two normals, (Brenda and Elise) and one advisor, "Big G." Although we disliked deadlines, we loved staying at the school until 11 p.m., or until we got kicked out. We had two jokers on the staff- Julie, who told filthy jokes, and David, who got embarrassed by his own jokes! They even had one couple, Debbie and Allen. While Ben ran around in his mommy's yellow plug-in slippers tickling people, Allen and Debbie were having a rendezvous in the type setting room! "Big G" kept everyone's mouth pure and always rescued us with doughnuts and munchies after our all night sessions! Even though we had our problems, (Where's Jim? He's never here when you need him!) we managed to overcome them and produce, once again, the best school newspaper in the world!

WANTED!

Valhalla gang

For crimes committed throughout the 1980-1981 school year:

Jerry Rowland: for allowing her sidekick "Bandit" to !@#* on the physics room's floor while innocent staff members were eating dinner.
Mary Bostic: for writing obscenities on her advisor's chalkboard-in pencil!
Kristy Campbell: for indecent exposure.
Mary Beth Huey: for desertion between the months of January through March.
Sherry Saba: for showing her designer underwear to the world!
Kenny Luck: for supplying minors with M & M's.
Mary Popylisen: for cropping team pictures like a madwoman!
Marty Connell: for extreme indecent exposure.
Peter Young: for torturing innocent youths with joke after joke after joke . . .
Kelly Gomes: for littering the physics room with Tab cans.
Kathy Darroch: for embezzling yearbook funds for white out.
Chris Sennewald: for two timing the Valhalla Staff with Epic.
Mike Walters (alias Mike Edwards): for the seduction of Sakae.
Sakae Ishikawa: for lusting after Tommy Shaw.
Cheri Dickard: for screwing up page numbers-again!
Rani Hublou: for lusting after men in speedo's.
Lance Fung: for missing the yearbook picture. (I am really sorry Lance! M.B.)

It brings back such memories when one attends the annual Miller vs. Lynbrook faculty basketball game. Memories of A-days and B-days, 6-inches-apart dances, and interesting teachers come back to us each March. The game was exciting and our gym was filled with cheers for our favorite administrators and teachers. The cheerleaders were in fashion with their punk rock uniforms and cheers. The yells provided incentive to the Lynbrook faculty as they put down the Mustangs in overtime (hope the Millerites didn't get home too late). The night proved to be fun as always and gave us an early peek at next year's freshmen.

This year the choir gathered on a happy note and continued this melody throughout the year. The Christmas Concert, Pops Concert, and Spring Concerts were all outstanding shows and a lot of fun (how did we ever get that many people in the auditorium?). There were so many concerts, so much music (how did we ever learn it all?), and so many laughs. It was, as always, a great year in choir.

The band never played a sour note all year. They executed Beethoven beautifully, and Mozart melancholicly. The group was very high strung. They visited Losa Angeles to play at Disneyland. The Pops Concert was performed perfectly, and the Spring Concert was moving.

Well what can I say - it's finally here. We've been waiting for this for so long. I'm glad we've become close because next year is a year that close friends are really great to have around. I wish it didn't take us 4 yrs. to become good friends, oh well I'm just happy we did.

We've had some good times & there are a lot more to come, we are going to have a fantastic summer - I hope we can go a lot of places — turn to Page (137)

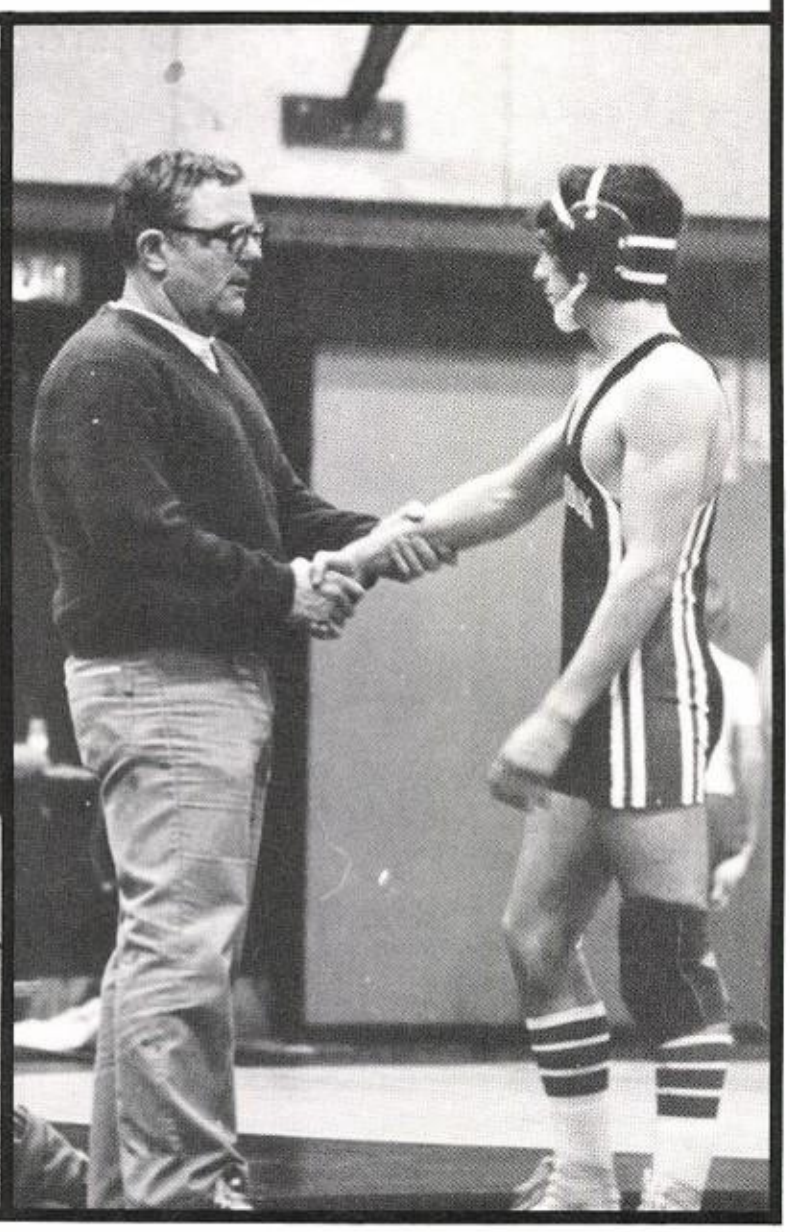
SPORTS

Moreover, I am glad you and Nick are so close, because you make quite a pair. Good luck and I'll see you Saturday!

Love
Jeff Plunkett

P.S. You are Totally Incorrect.

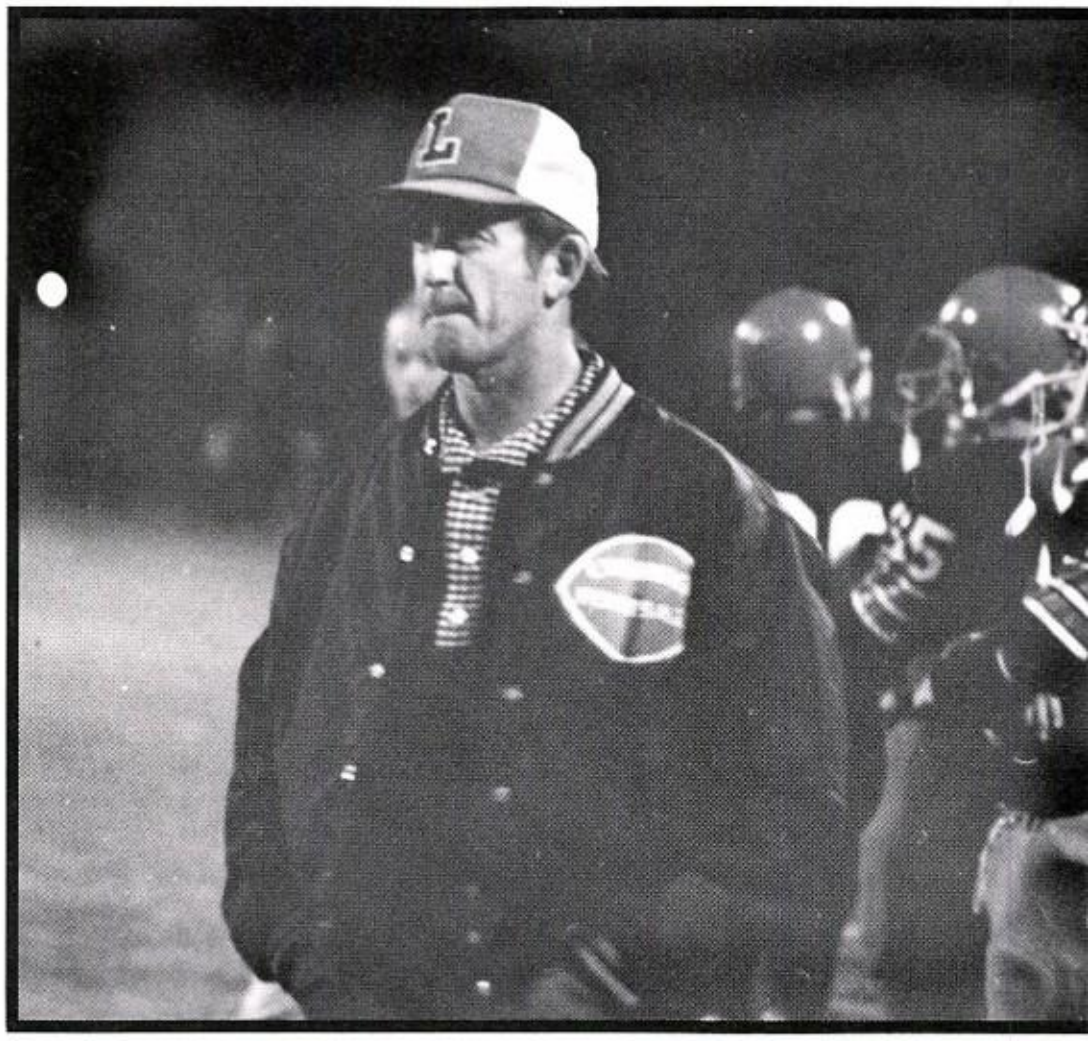
Jim, I do not seriously hate you because you are THE EDITOR, I just don't like you anymore. But really, I know you'll do a great job. I promise to help you out in any area next year, as long as I get top billing.

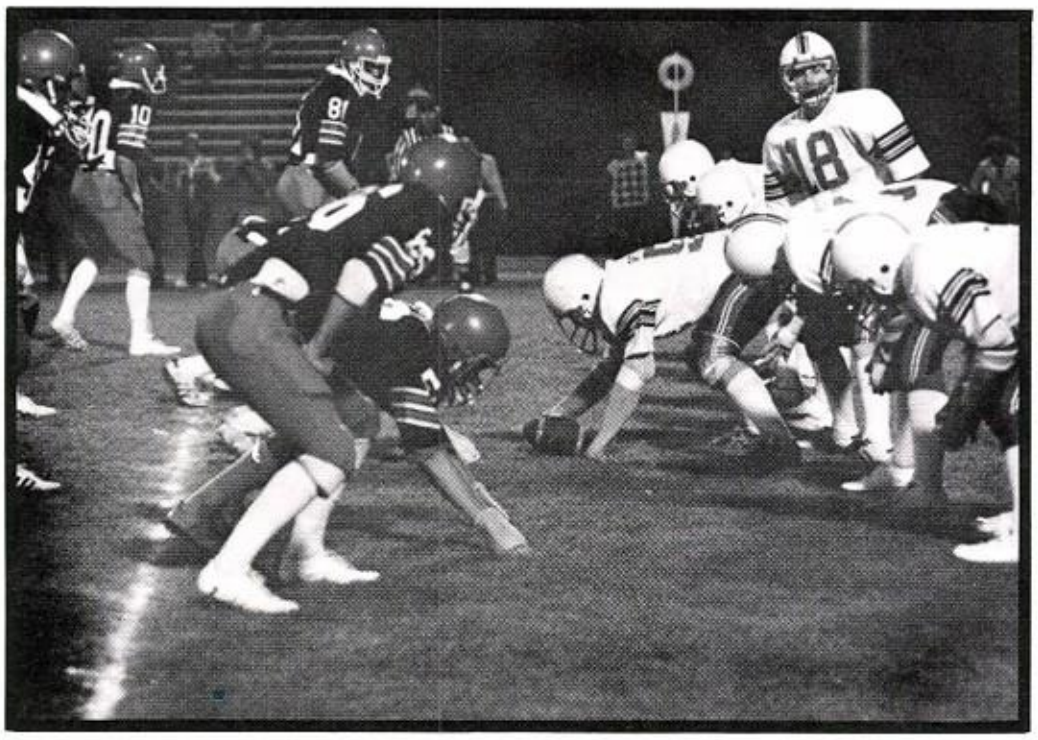


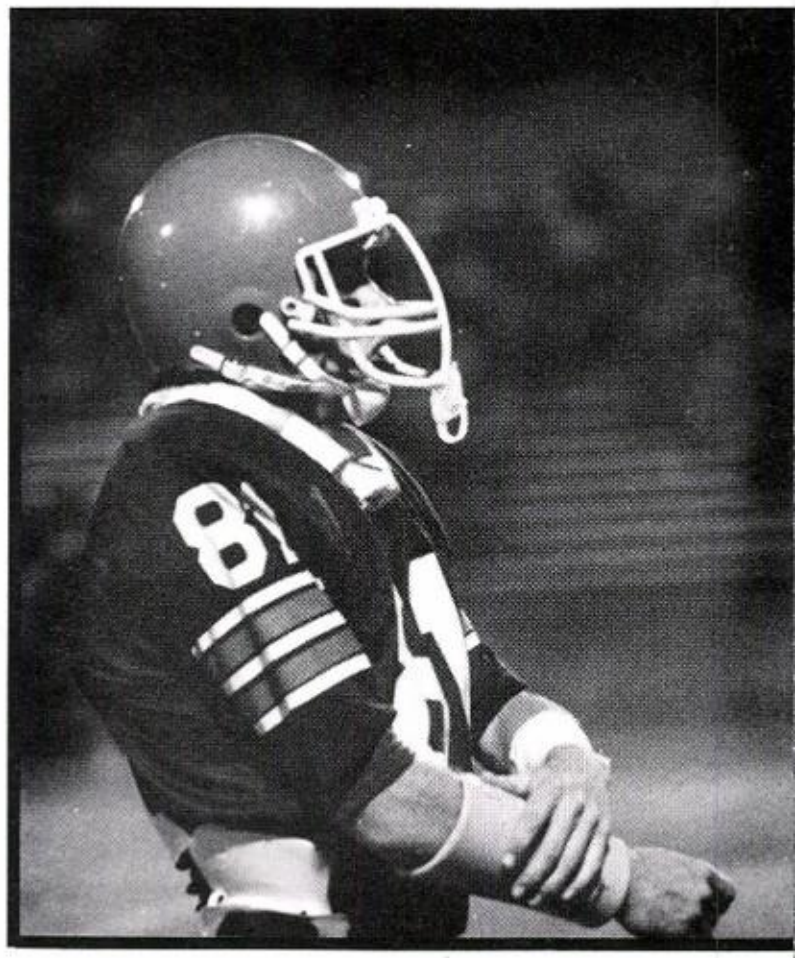
outlook:

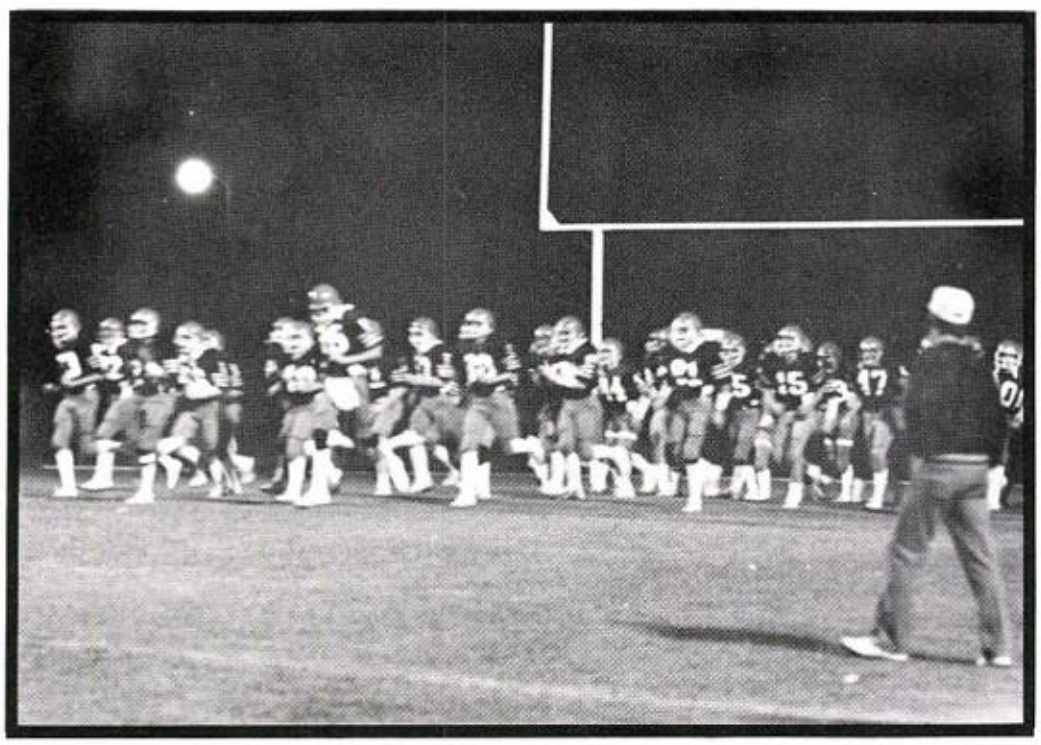
"If I can instill in the players that being thankful for the chance to play and doing the very best you can under every circumstance and realizing the relationships established and not the win/loss record, I will consider myself as a successful coach."

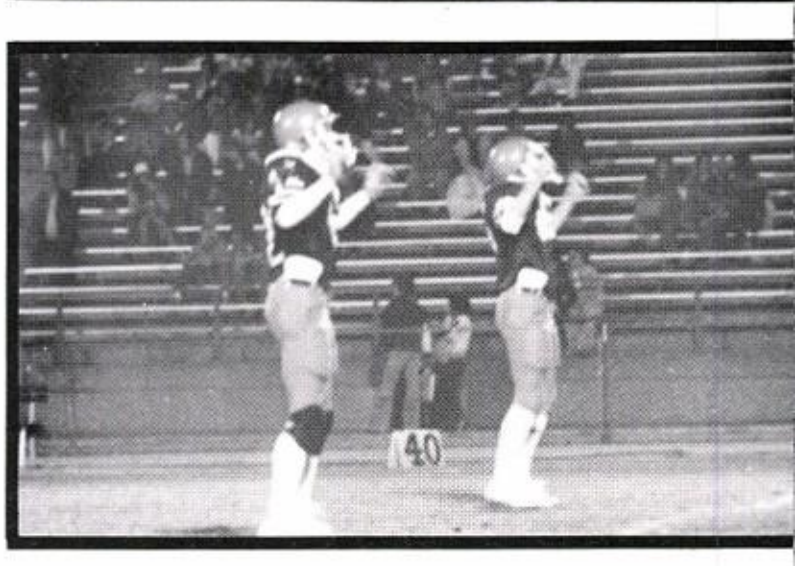
Jerry Hitchman

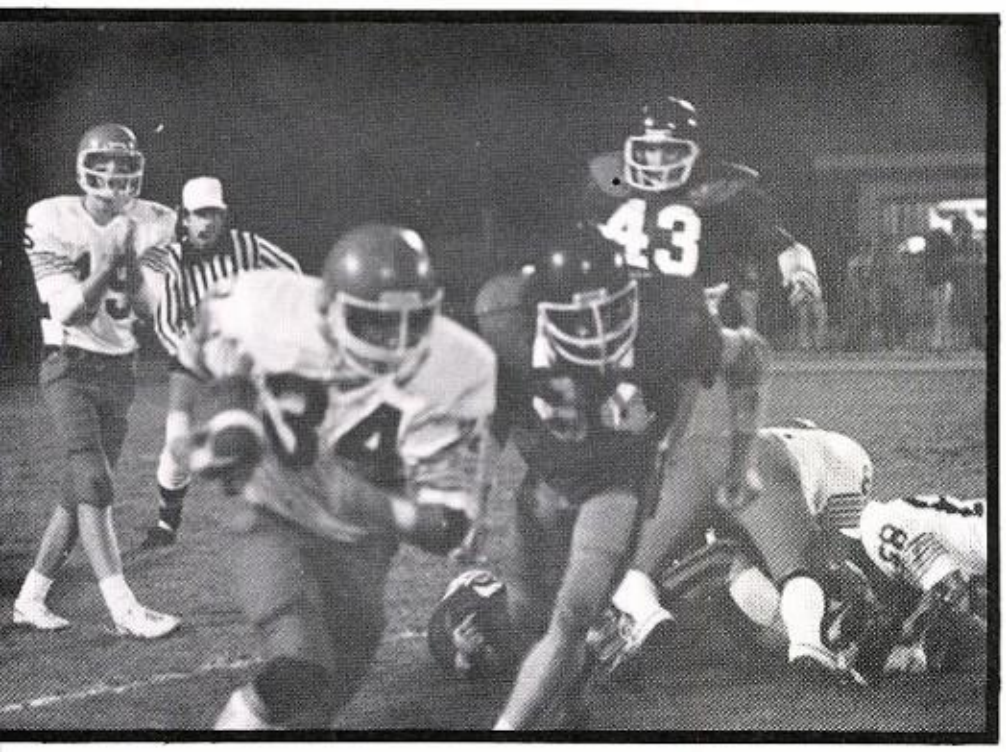












Under the direction of a new coach, and with the help of returning players, the Lynbrook varsity football team started off the season right. We succeeded in lowering the rank of a tough, quick Independence team, and in destroying a rough Westmont team also. Lynbrook's passing attack consisted of Rob Suess connecting with Bambi (Sexton), and the backfield consisted of an impressive trio known informally as Marty Connell, Mr. J.D.T. and Lynbrook's leading scorer Bryan Calder. Lynbrook's aggressive defense was led by Mike Nicholas, and junior Todd Pinther stunned many of the D.A.L.'s best offensive teams. Injuries plagued our best players, putting some out for the season, but despite this drawback, we managed a win/loss record of four wins and five losses. Win or lose, our Lynbrook football team is always number one.

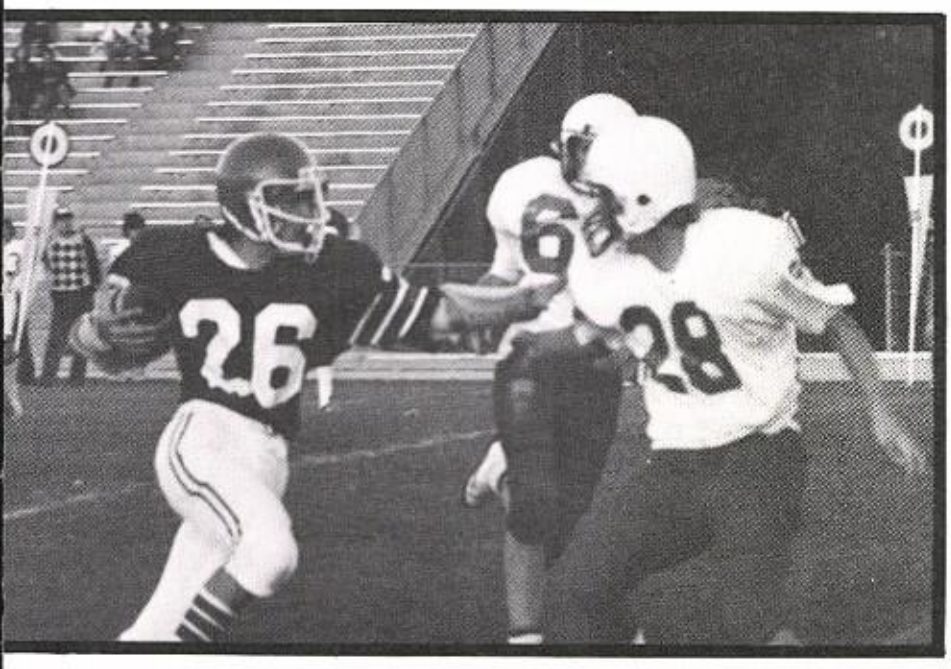
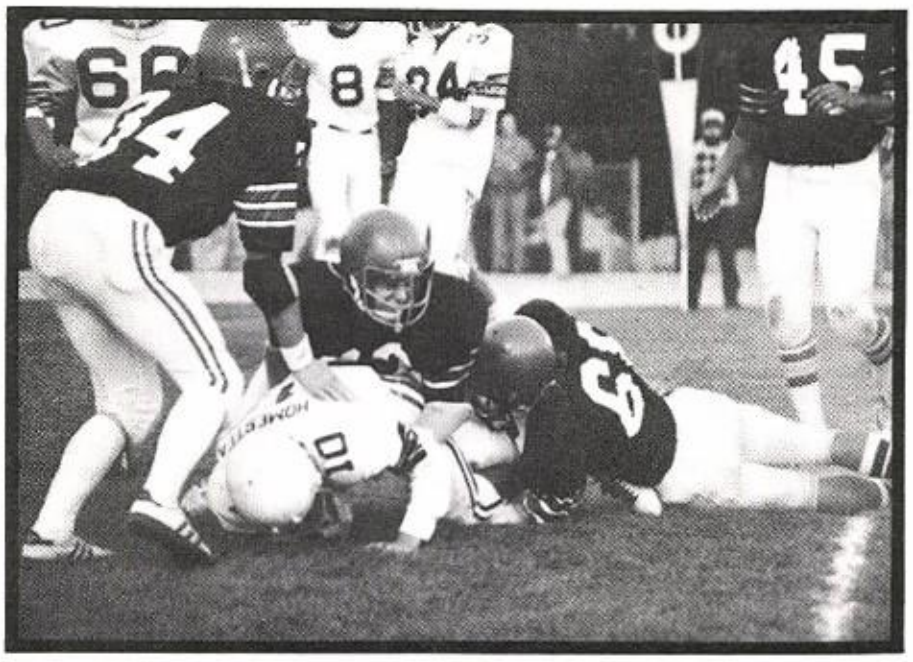
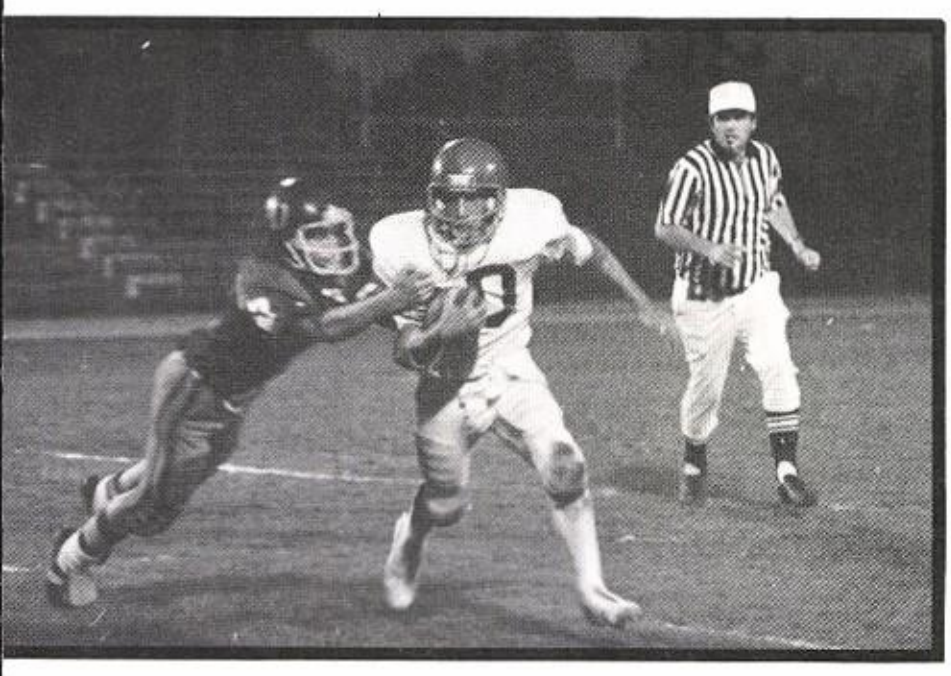
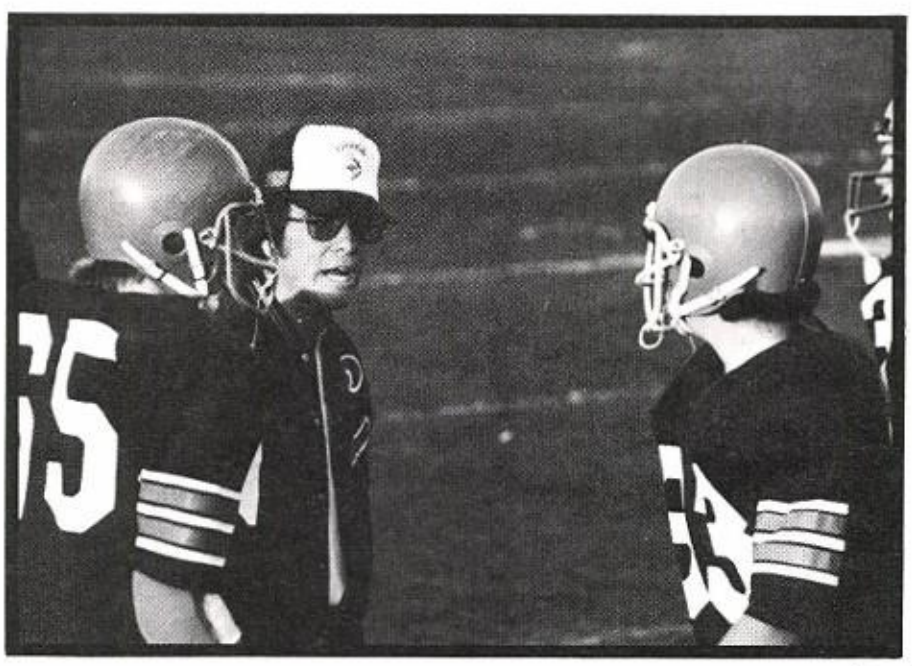
The 1980 Lynbrook High School frosh/soph football team had reason to be proud. We overcame our age (this is supposed to be a frosh/soph team, not just a freshmen team!) and inexperience (have these guys ever held a football before?) problems early in the season and defeated some pretty tough teams. We remained undefeated through five straight league games and ended our season with a league record of 5-1. Our only loss came in our last game of the season against a tough Fremont team (which has remained undefeated through seventeen straight games!). We finished second in D.A.L., and plan to finish first next year. Beware Indians, the Vikes are on the warpath!







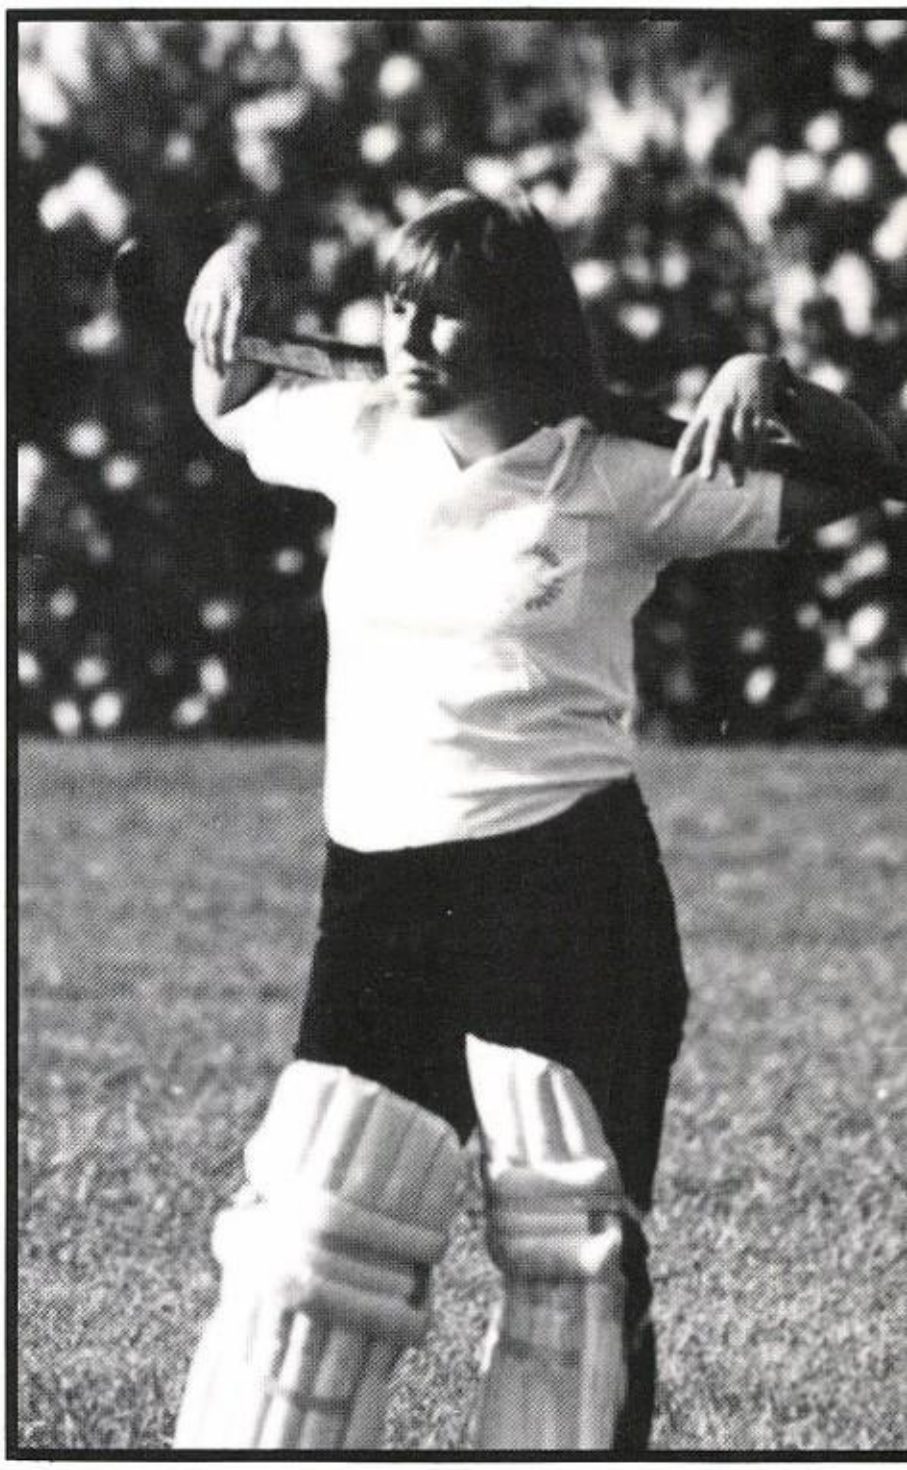


outlook:

"I expect our Varsity and JV hockey teams will be 'at the very least' in the top two (in D.A.L.) . . . and make it past the first game in the C.C.S. tournament."

Sandi Strober

The season started off for the girls' field hockey as great as it was going to end. The J.V. team, coached by Linda (beer?) Nichols, had an outstanding season, winning all but one game. The Varsity season began with the Willow Glen tournament where, while averaging four goals per game, we managed to remain unscored upon. The next feat we accomplished was the Davis tourney. Once again, we conquered all and walked off with a victory amidst many exciting happenings: the massacre against V.B. (eggs and balloons), the charades on the highway, bowling in an empty alley, and most shocking of all, the BA's (even Kristy!). When the trip was over, it was time once again, to line up on the end line for our favorite wind sprints and Strober's off-the-wall drills ("but Strobe, who do I cover if no one has the ball?"). Through our easiest games, where practically the whole team scored ('Tino), to our toughest games (LMCMV), we managed to tie for first in the D.A.L. and were headed for "bigger and better things" in the C.C.S. playoffs. We not only fulfilled Strober's outlook, winning the first game by a score of 8-0, but surpassed it and became the 1980-81 C.C.S. Field Hockey Champions! Take it to 'em, Vikes (one, two, three) RAH!



water polo

outlook:

"This year's team is lacking in game experience, but with hard work we could end up one of the top three teams in the D.A.L."

Steve Barnett

Again this year the Lynbrook water polo team had a late start, but that didn't stop the Vikes. Coach Barnett, new to Lynbrook, and Miksos, a veteran to Lynbrook, both did an excellent job of getting their teams together so they would be ready for the tough competition ahead of them. Returning seniors Steve Duffy, Kent Mitchell, Dave Williams, and goalie Herb Eichenser kept up the H2O tradition of being the most awesome team in the water.

outlook:

"Experience and desire will be our strengths. We have a tough league, but we plan to meet the challenge."

What does August mean to all Lynbrook volleyball players? It means laps and bleachers, laps and bleachers . . . to get rid of the extra bodies out for volleyball. The J.V.'s got into bashing the mural with balls, and acting numb (right Stacey?). We took third in the D.A.L. Tourney, but we still can't believe they did what in whose car?! Varsity got rolling along, (up to Davis that is), with our friendly BA's and BB's (but Lynn, what the heck is a BC?). Then came our massive egg and water balloon fight (How's your knee, Row?). We came back to earth (and San Jose) only to find that we were in the D.A.L. Tourney! Lizard Lips, with her great smile, always lifted our spirits, and so did Killer's dances! But all in all, we hung together and were very proud of our season!

swimming

outlook:

"We expect to take twelve swimmers to CCS this season, hoping to place in the top four."

L. Nicolao

The girls swimteam, led by Mugs, Scovi, and Omar, proved this year that we were number one. Directed by Coach Nicoloa and Coach Spohn, we had a lot of fun swimming and diving to the top; but not all of the fun was in the pool. There were many pizza celebrations (such as the one when Schlegal Bagal dumped pizza in Scovi's lap and all over Omar's life support system). It took some serious swimming, however, to beat St. Francis and to become the D.A.L. champs. There were also the super difficult meets like the Sunnyvale one (don't make me laugh) All in all, we showed that in the pool and at the pizza parlor, "Lynbrook Fishies are Mega-choice!"

outlook:

"Most of our players are experienced and we hope to finish first or second."

Jan Samo

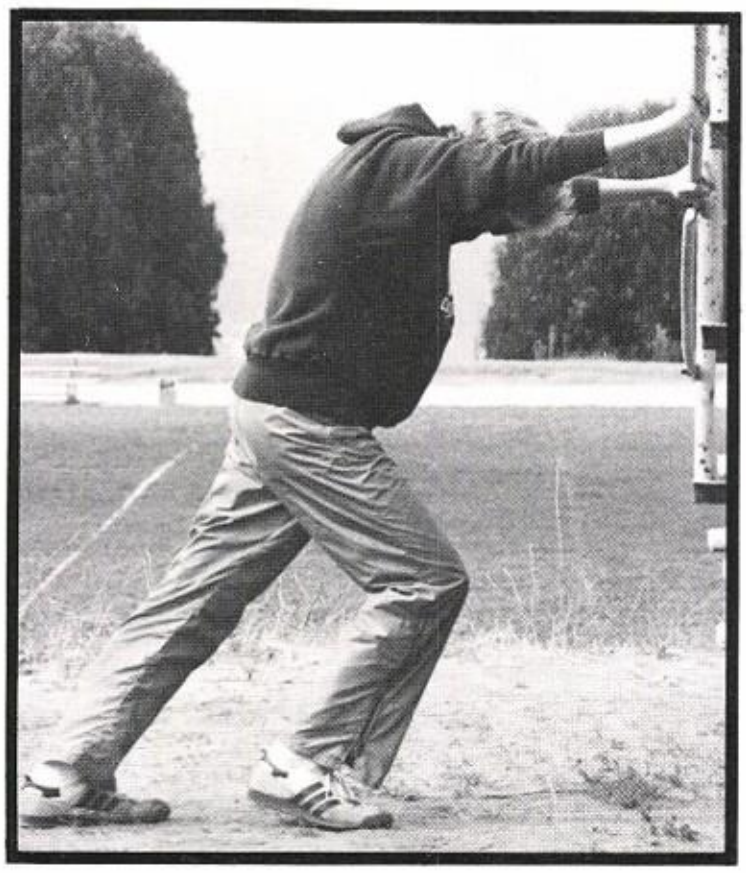
The girls varsity tennis team is made up of 10 dedicated girls; four singles and three doubles. Whether playing superior Saratoga or "no show" Sunnyvale, we are eager to show our outstanding skills in our two matches each week. We work hard (but manage to have some fun) and are noted for our fine playing and commendable sportsmanship. Look out Wimbeldon—here comes LHS tennis!

X-COUNTRY

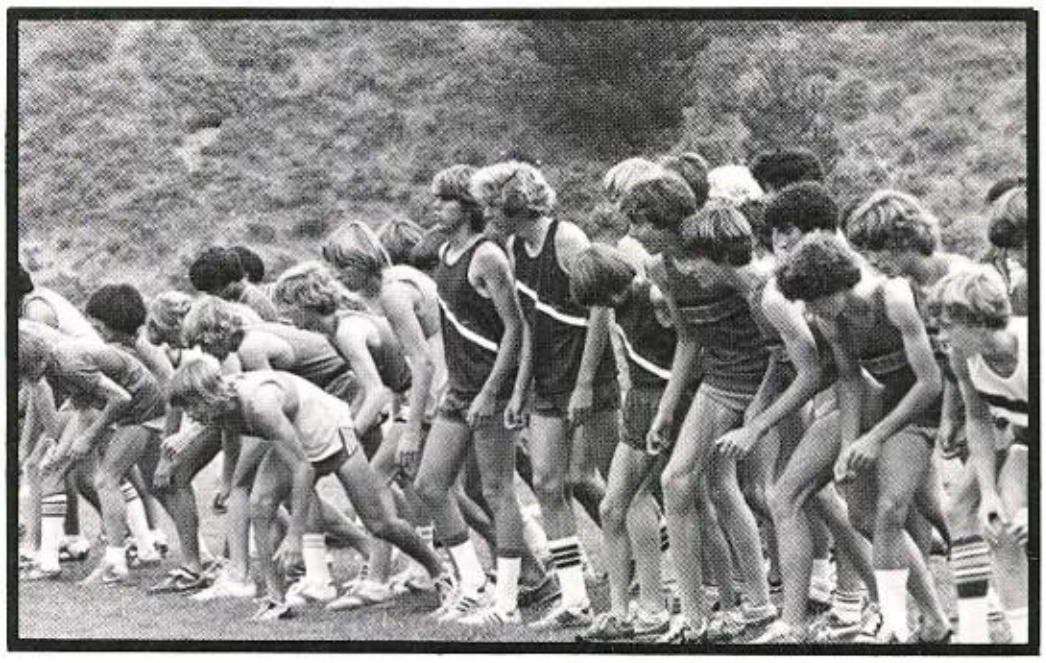
outlook:

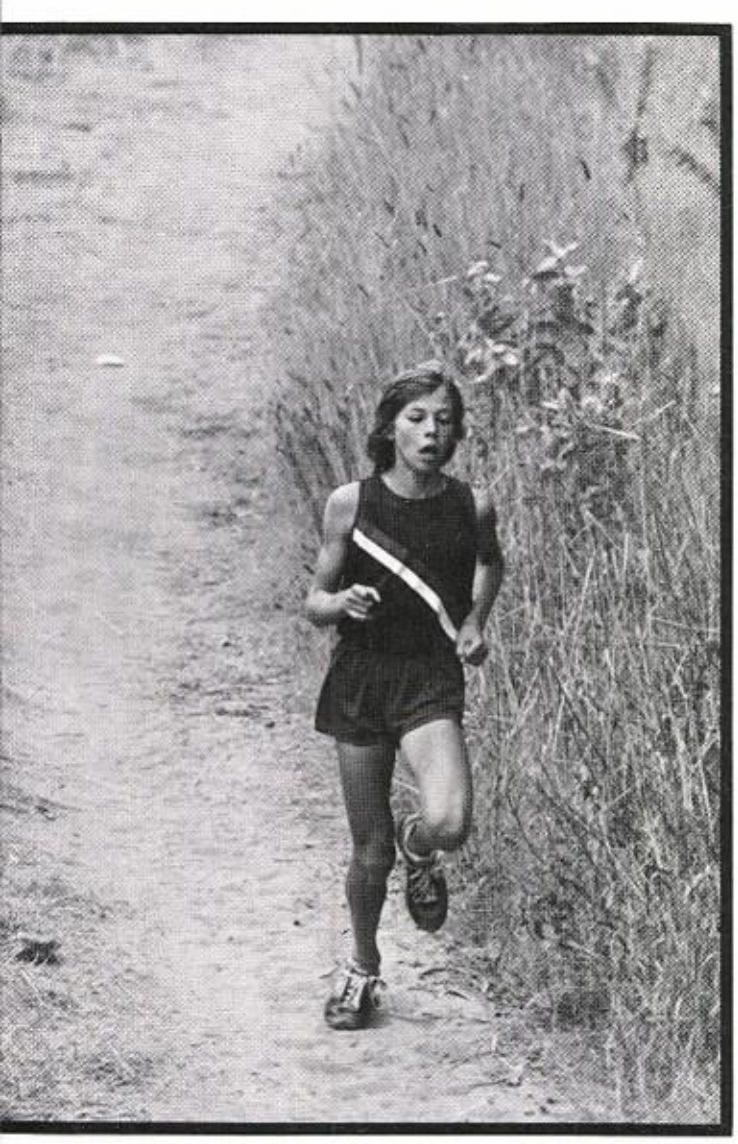
"Although both boys' and girls' X-Country teams are young and inexperienced, we plan to improve as the season develops."

Verne Thornberg



X-Country, under the direction of Verne Thornburg and Bill Johnson, had a very successful season this year. The meets were fun, but we enjoyed practices more!? A typical practice consisted of the following comments: "Okay, get going. Run those greenfields. Fitchen, stop your talking. Deagen, even though you are muy bueno, that doesn't mean you don't have to work out! The same goes for you girls-I'm not being hard on you. Everybody shut up and start running! (please)"





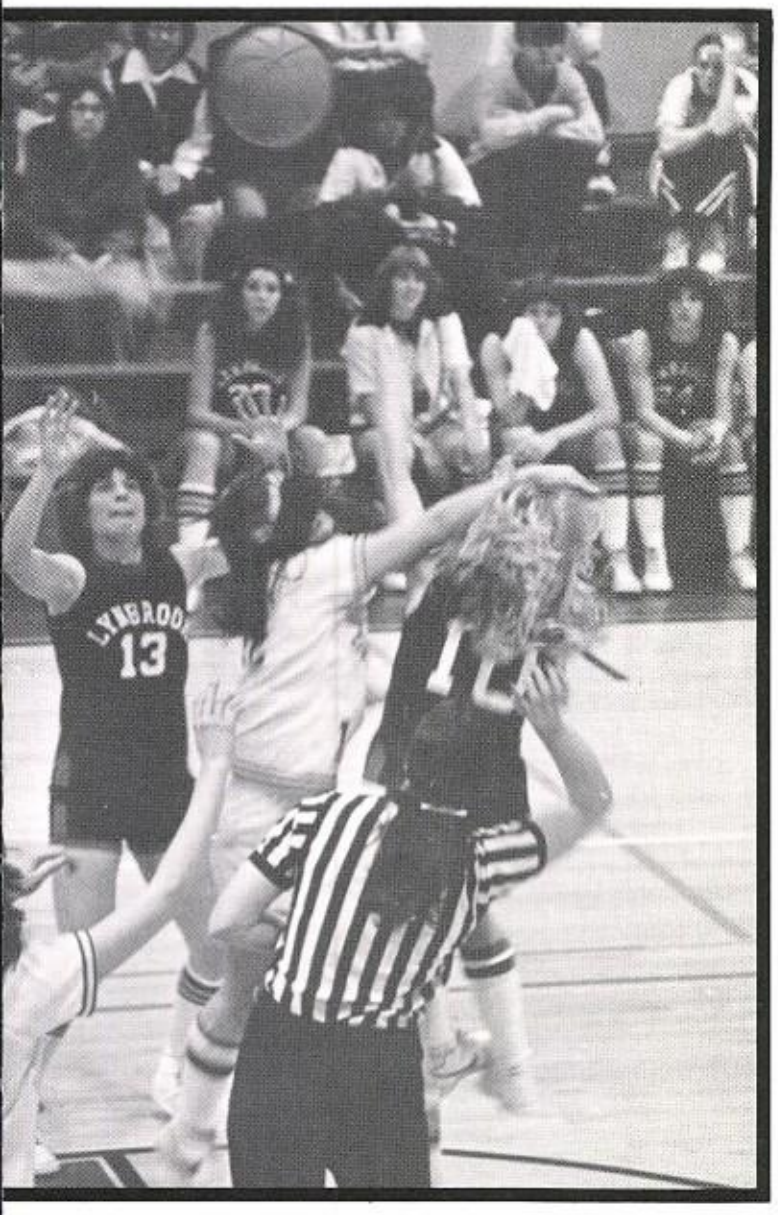
basketball

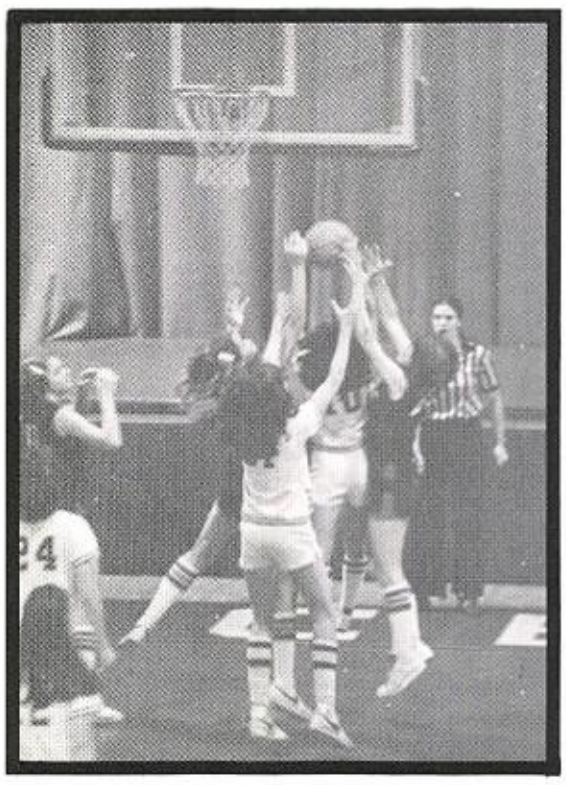
outlook:

"The Varsity girls' basketball team is looking forward to a very successful season. We hope to finish at the top of the DAL and compete in the CCS play-offs once again."

Linda Nichols

The girls' basketball teams displayed a new look this year, attacking the courts with their usual aggression in brand new uniforms and sweats. Our young J.V. team managed to take consolation at the Gilroy Tournament and ended the season near the top of the league. For the Varsity, being ranked #1 in CCS left little room for improvement, but with a tough league we had to give it our all. The encouragement from the crowds helped us roll over the easier teams with little trouble (sharpen your elbows) and squeak past the tougher teams such as Monta Vista (watch those T's Linda and Lisa). We had great fun sandwiching other teams (Another One Bites the Dust), and win or lose, came out on top and proved to all we are #1. Take it to 'em Vikes!



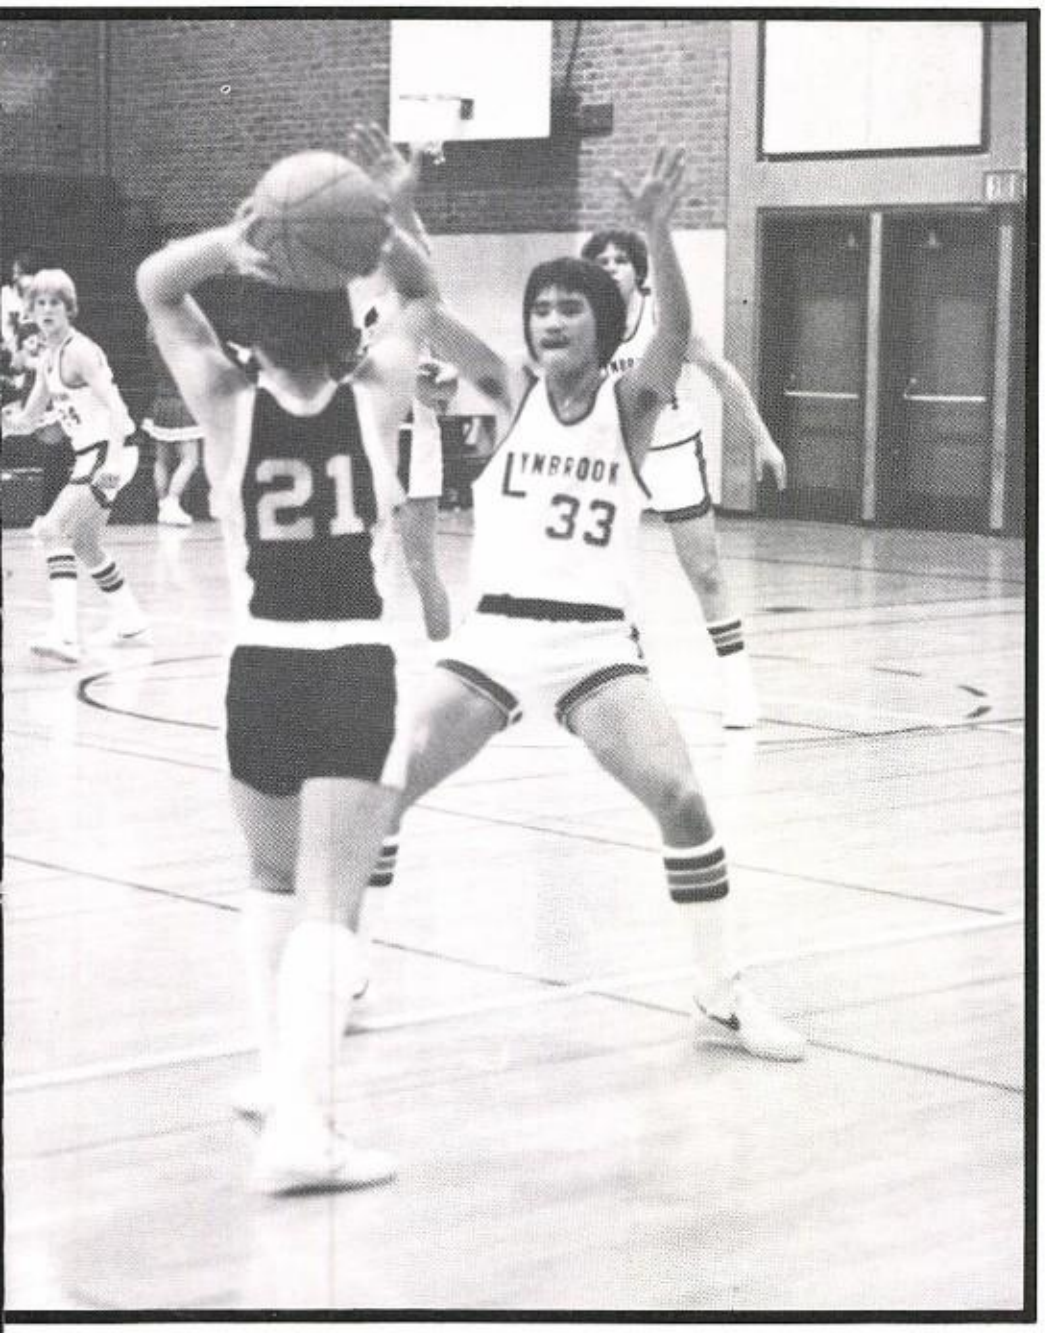


outlook:

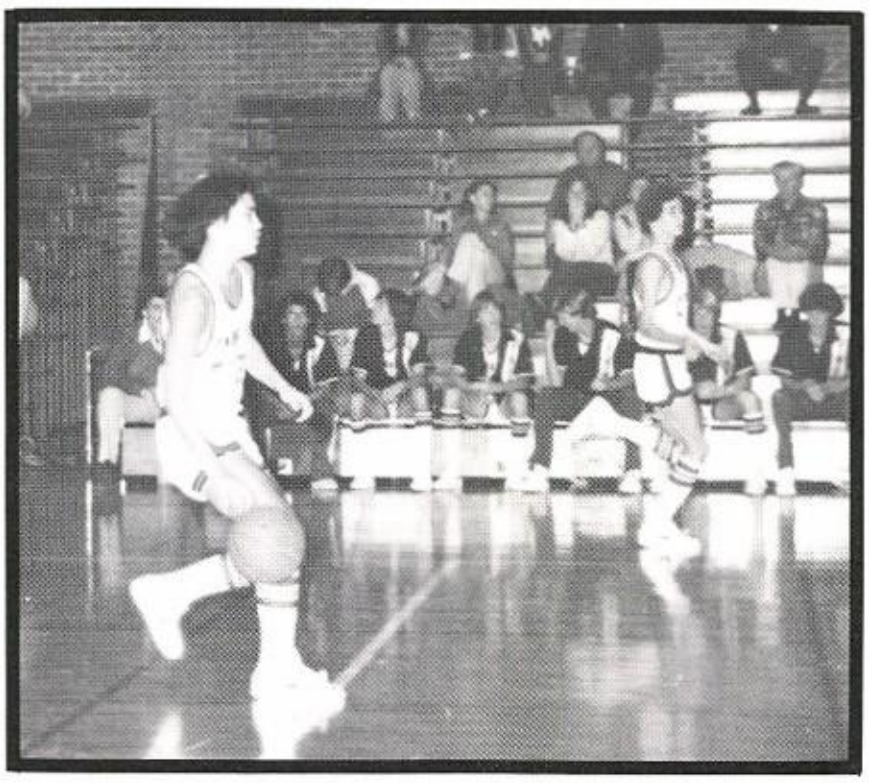
The Boys Varsity is quicker and incorporates a running style of play. Indications are that this could be a good year.

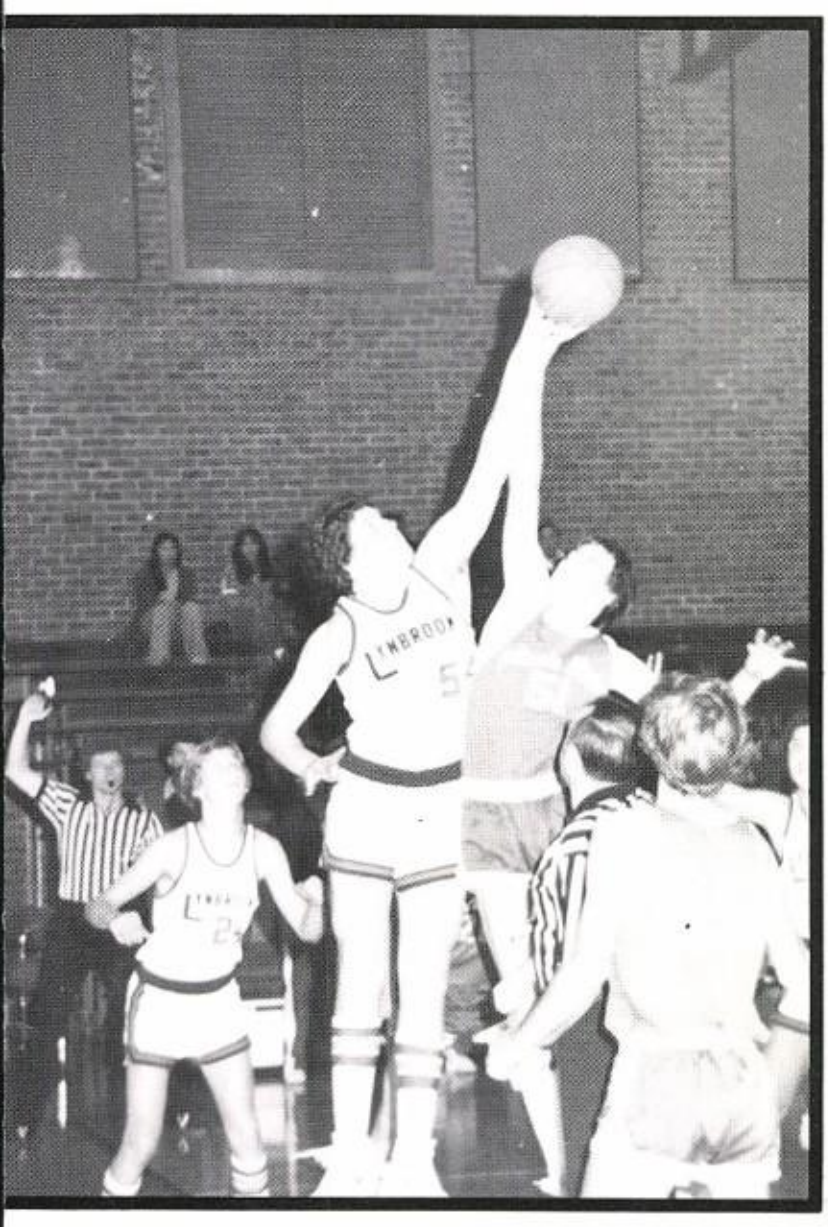
Jack Holtorf

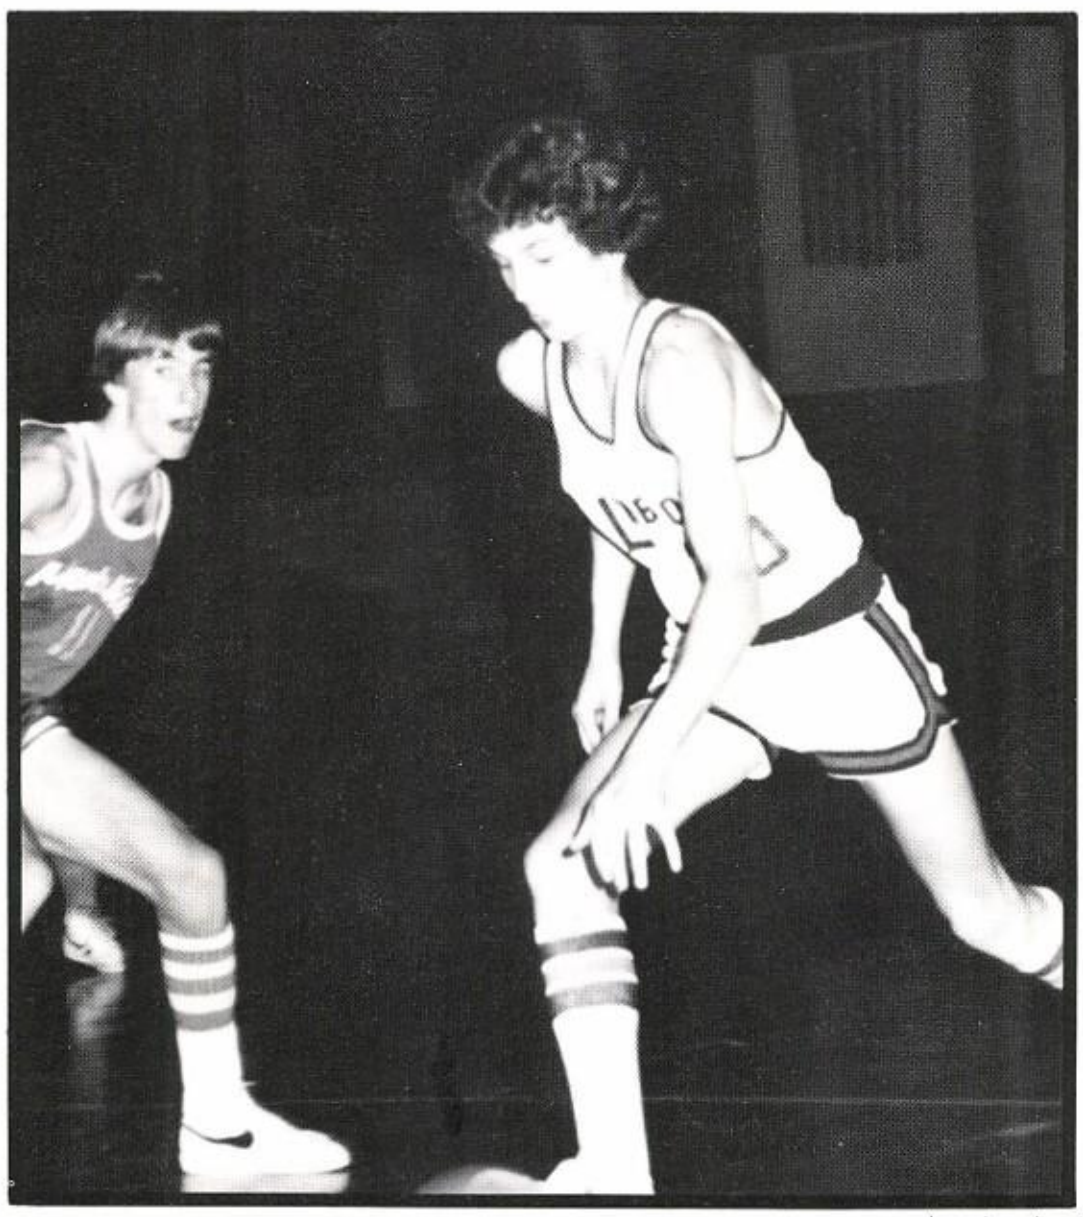
Lynbrook basketball is not known for its overpowering line ups but rather for its intensity. Holtorf was once again the coach, and he did an outstanding job keeping the team together, win or lose. Even though Tegley never knew when practice was, everyone else did, and it was always filled with enthusiasm. The team did a great job, and Lynbrook basketball was a pleasure to watch.



There is no doubt that the Lynbrook's J.V. basketball worked hard and gave more than a hundred percent at all times. They huffed and puffed in practice, running liners and doing other tough drills. Plagued by injuries, they stuck out the season with good performances by some veterans of last years' freshman team and by some inspiring freshman.







boys soccer

Outlook:

"With a very experienced team, we have great expectations to place high in league standing."

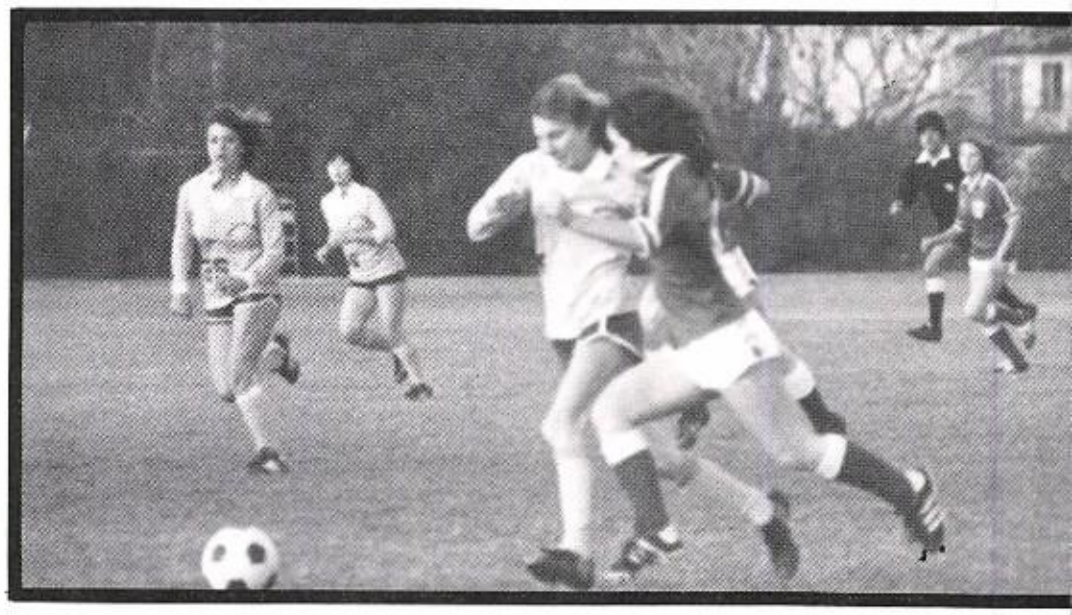
Everett Gantley

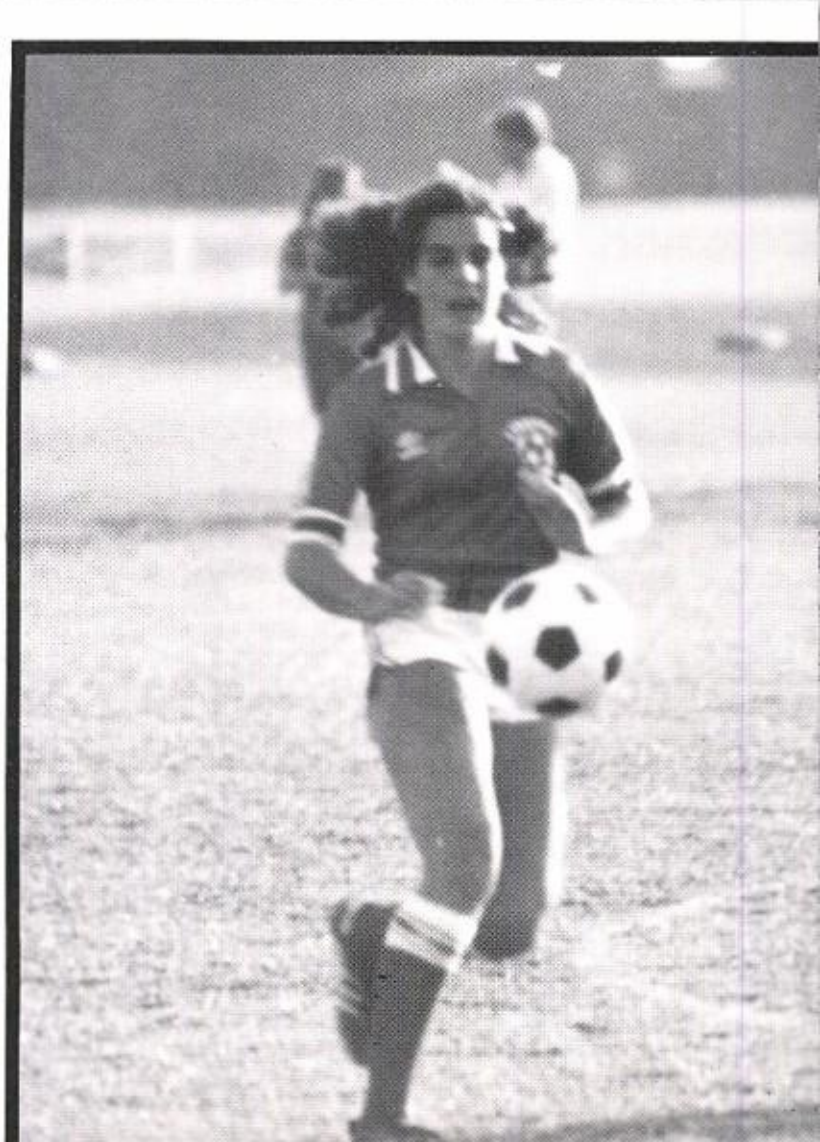
Boys Varsity Soccer kicked off the season successfully and played quite well throughout the season. With returning coaches Gantley, Pugh and newcomer assistant McClimax, the team did very well. They made it to the first round of DAL's. The team was led by seniors Jock, the Vodka Kid, Orbit, Aunt Jamima, and various other talented players. The year was fun on and off the field. The dinners at Coach Gantley's house psyched up the team, and everyone enjoyed the soccer parties. If next year is even a taste of this year, it should prove to be quite fun.

outlook:

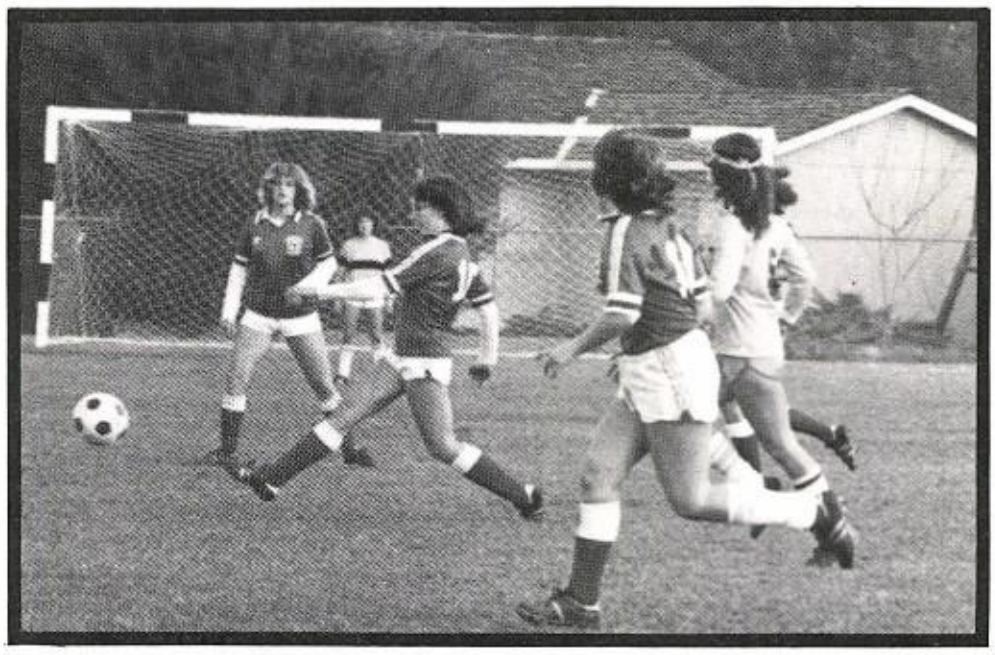
"The girls' Varsity soccer team appears to be stronger than the league's winning team of last year and has a shot at winning C.C.S."

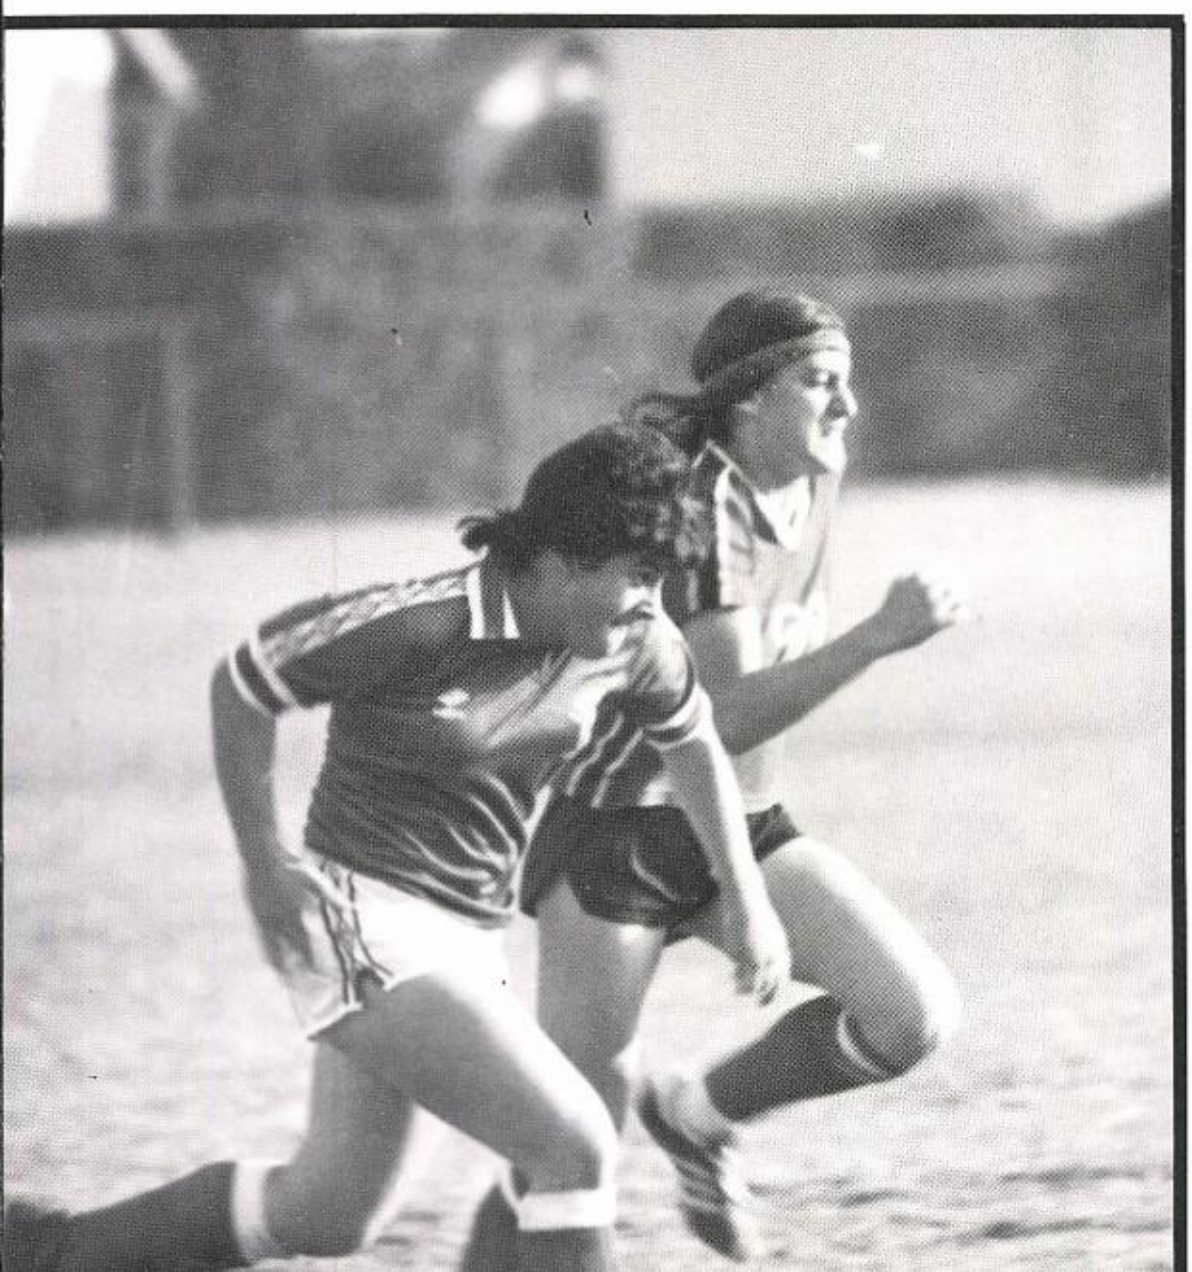
Lee Leonard

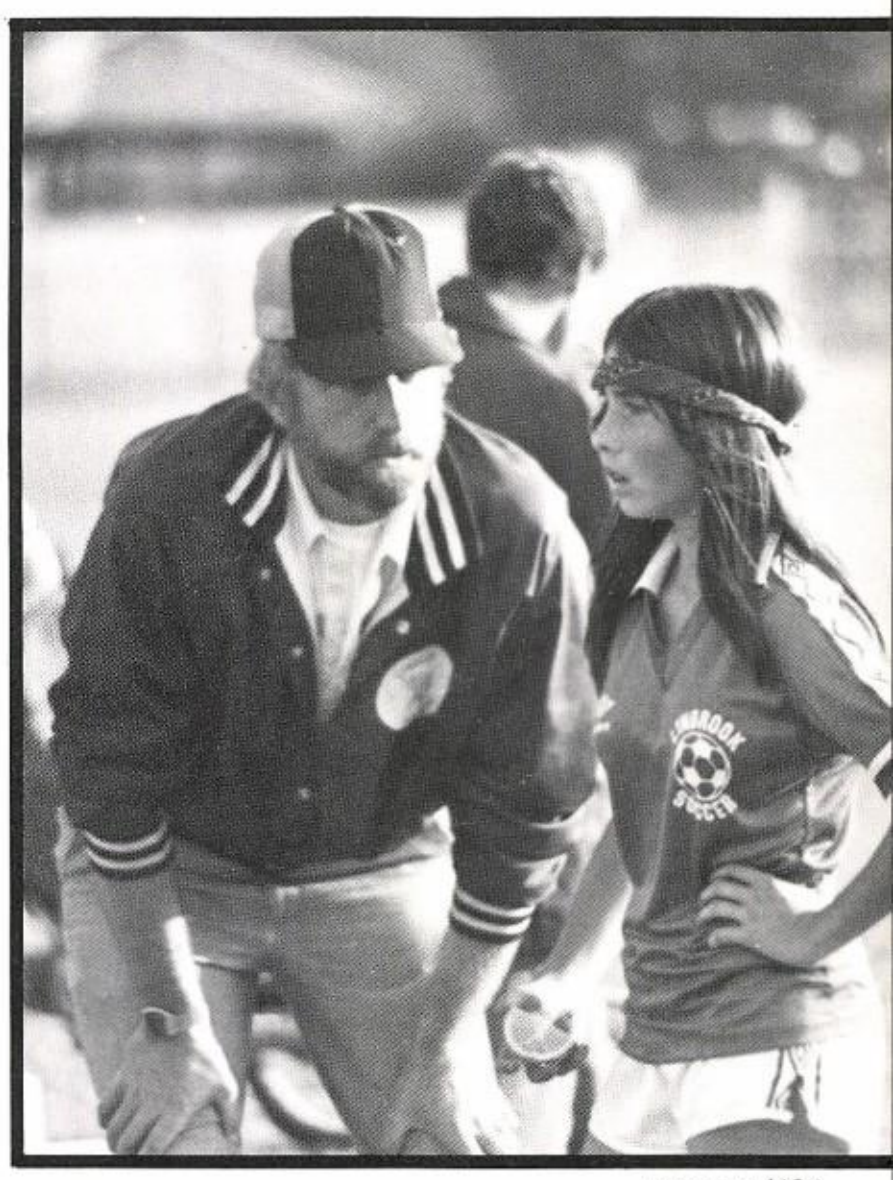




Many were called but few were chosen . . . is a good description of Lynbrook girls' soccer try-outs. The few that were chosen did an outstanding job, upsetting top teams such as Palo Alto (undefeated for two seasons) and many others. Our Varsity team, led by coach Lee "let's chat" Leonard went on to achieve an impressive D.A.L. record. The J.V.'s season, led by coach Randy Fox, was equally impressive, especially after snorting the lines of powder on the field. It was probably our killer practices (cough-cough), sharp sweatshirts, and dedicated Moms that made up this successful season.







outlook:

"This year's team is a well balanced team with only a few outstanding wrestlers."

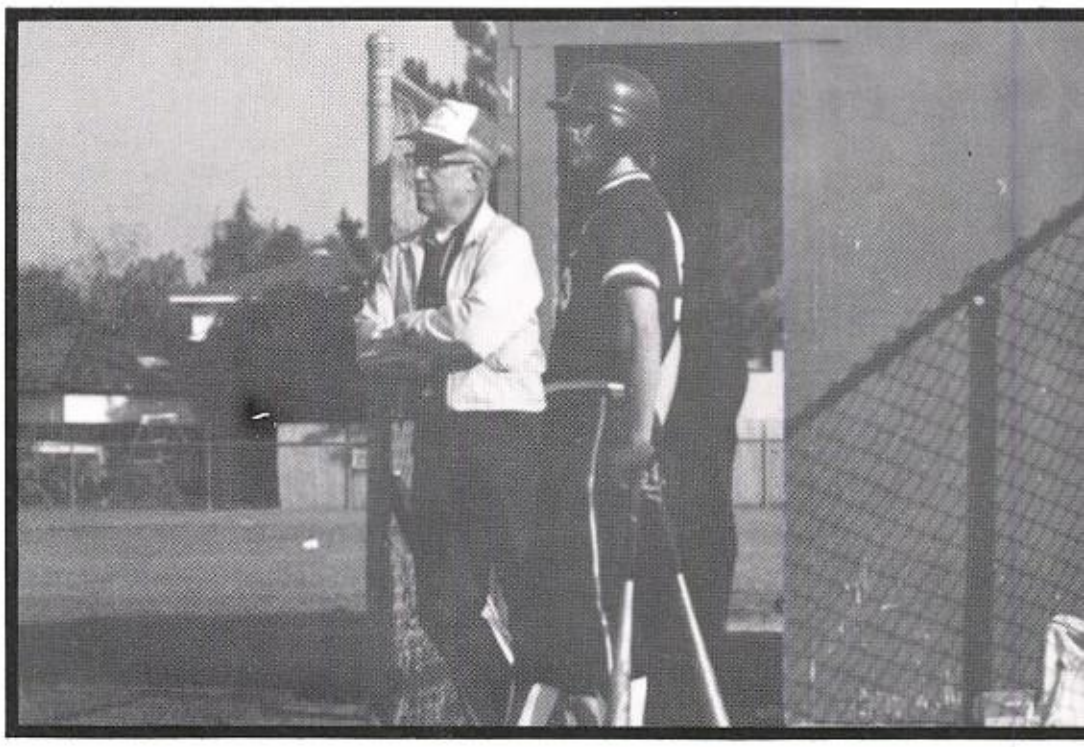
Gus Talbot

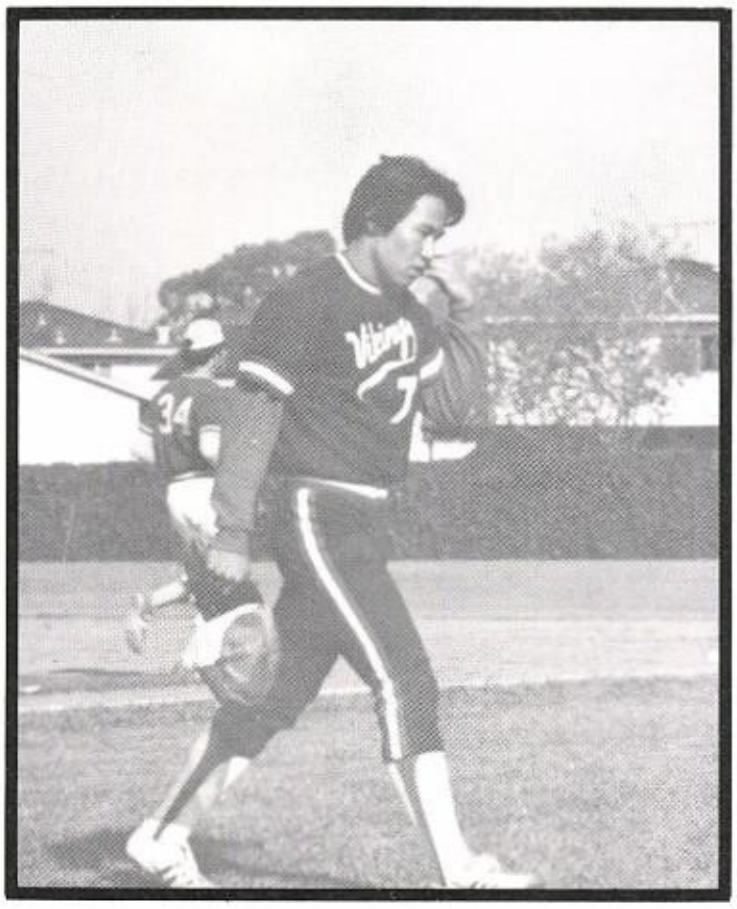
Lynbrook wrestling has never been recognized for its pleasant odor. And this year, once again, it succeeded in having its own special smell. But that didn't seem to bother Coach Talbot, he had the heat turned up to make it smell much stronger. The guys didn't complain, however; they worked hard on winning and even losing (pounds, that is). The guys wrestled solo (no T.V. big time tag team wrestling here), but stuck together in spirit and did a nice job in finishing up the season with a proud record.

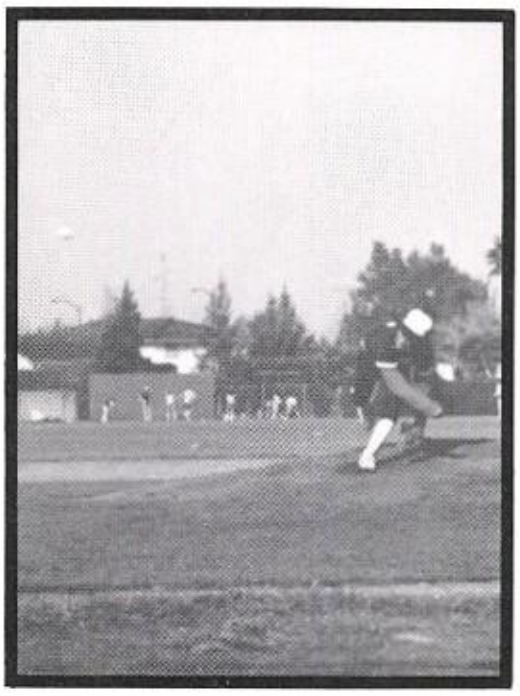
outlook:

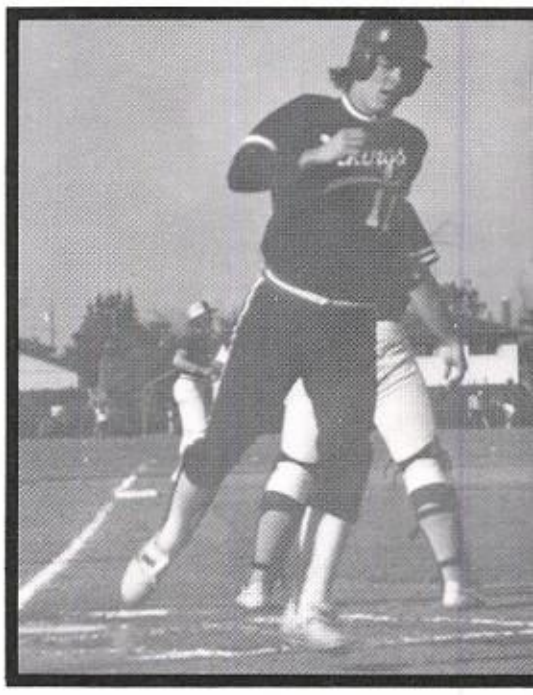
The Varsity team will be in the fight for the championship in the D.A.L. A strong pitching staff of four seniors and one junior made the Viking staff the deepest in the league. Infielders and outfielders provided both fine defense and good hitting to make the year exceptionally balanced and hoped to upset the experts.

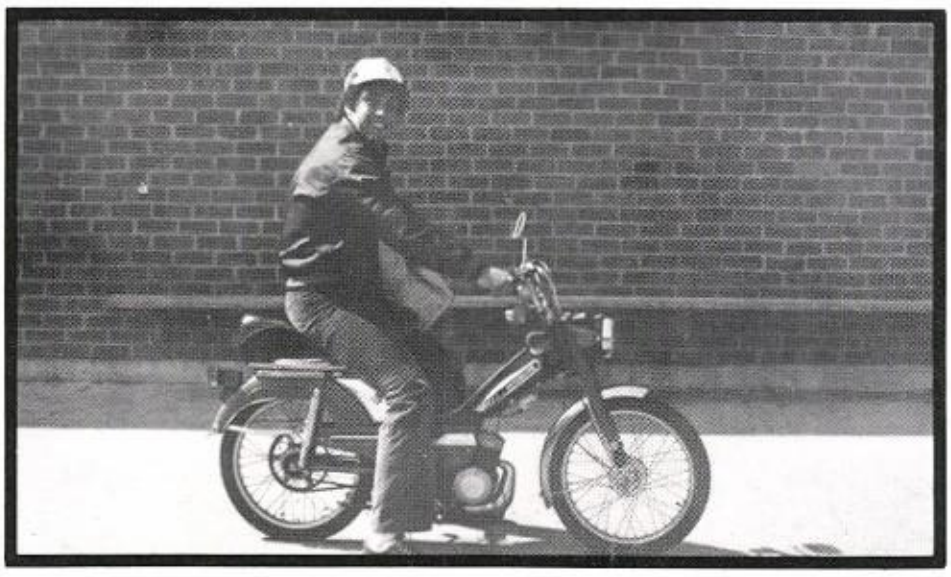
William Mansfield

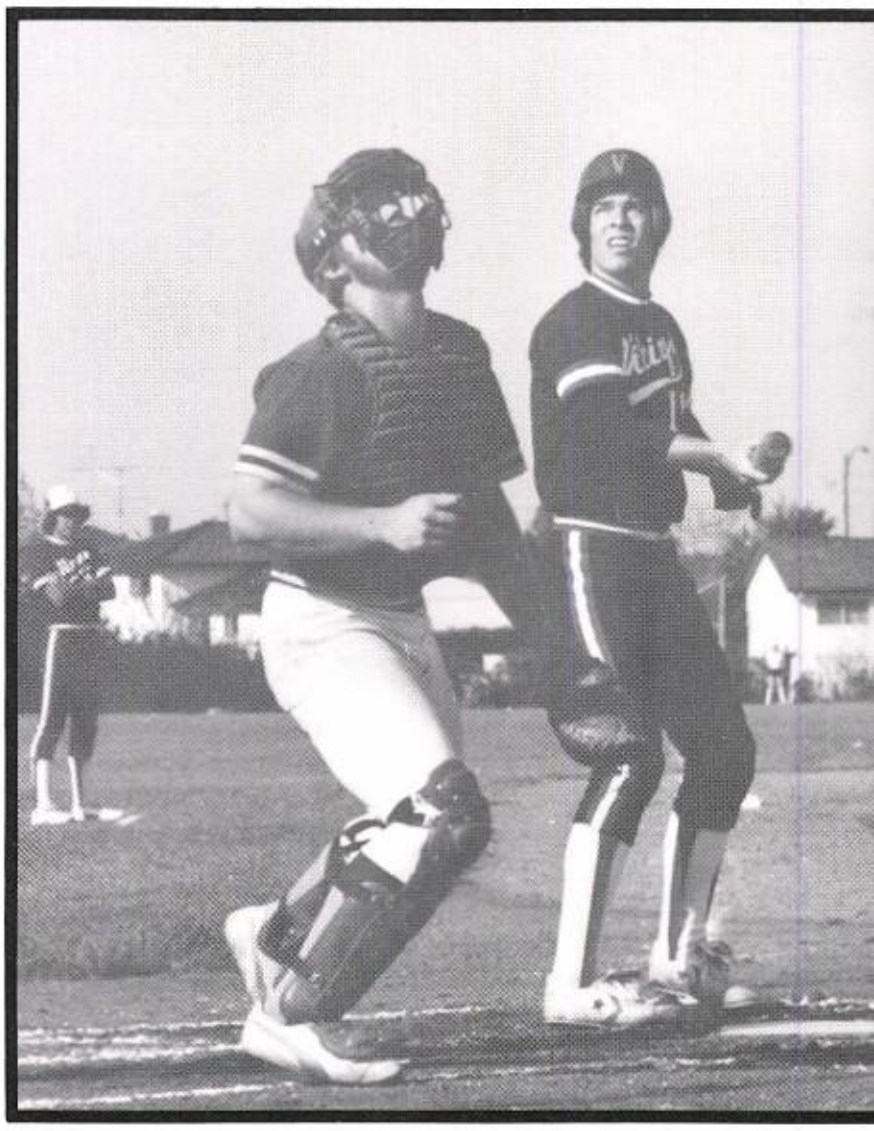


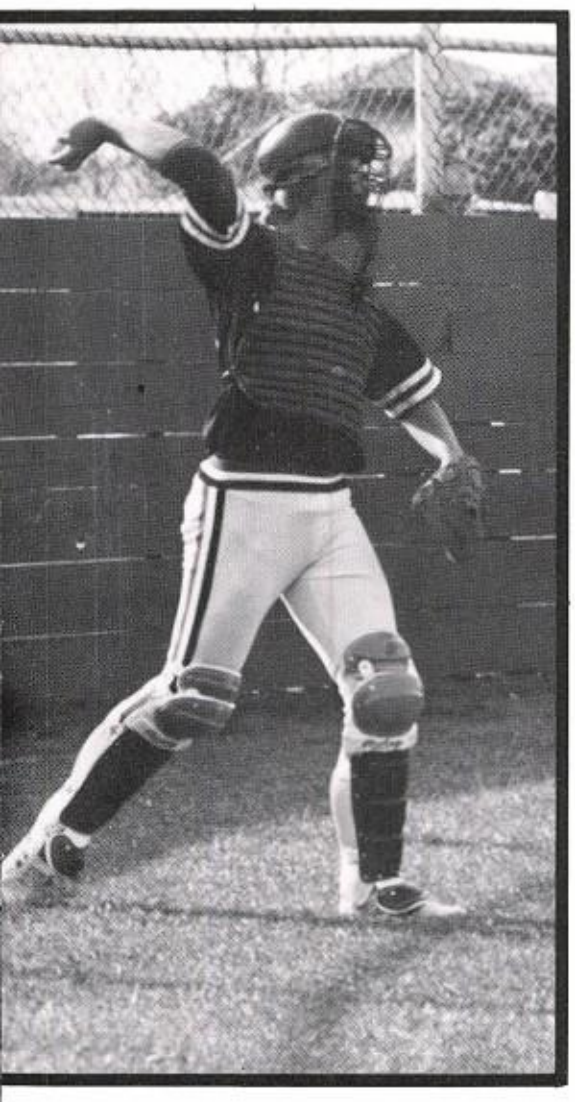




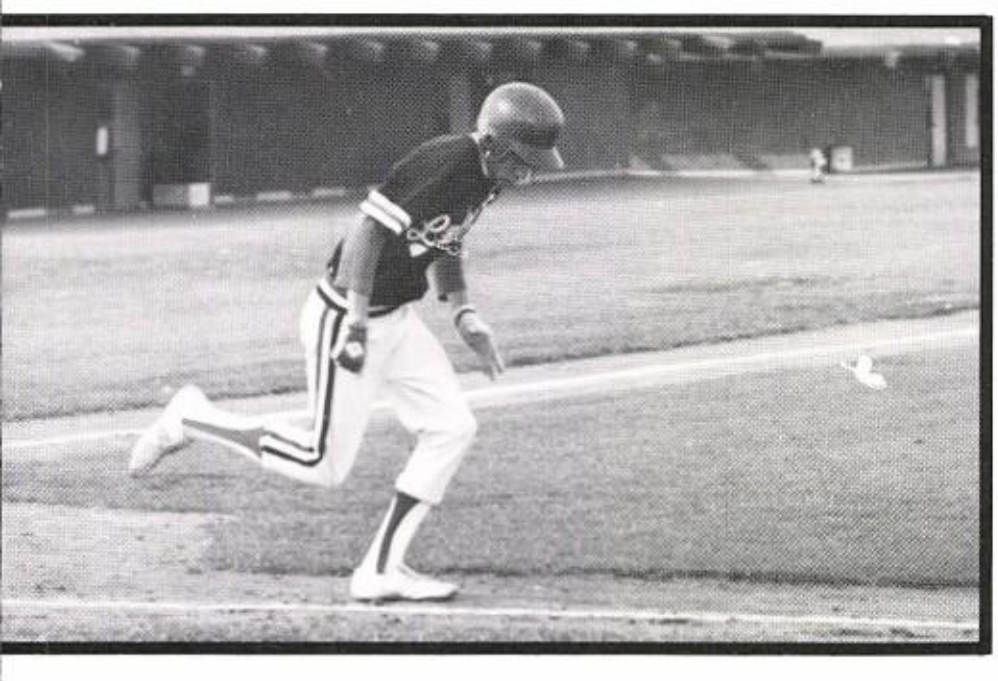


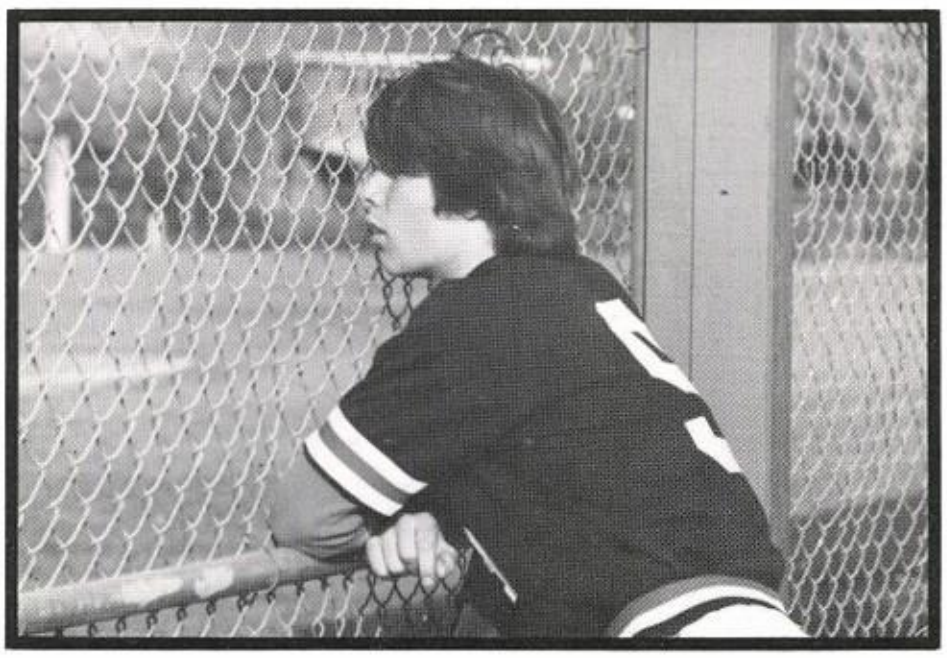


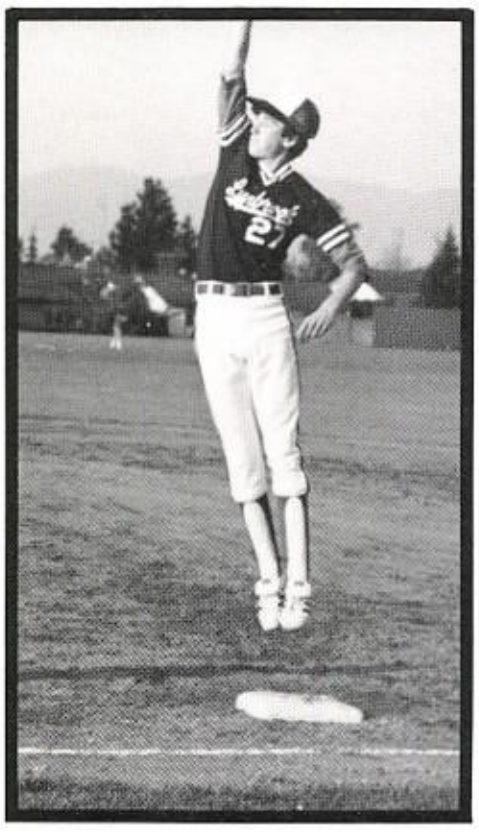


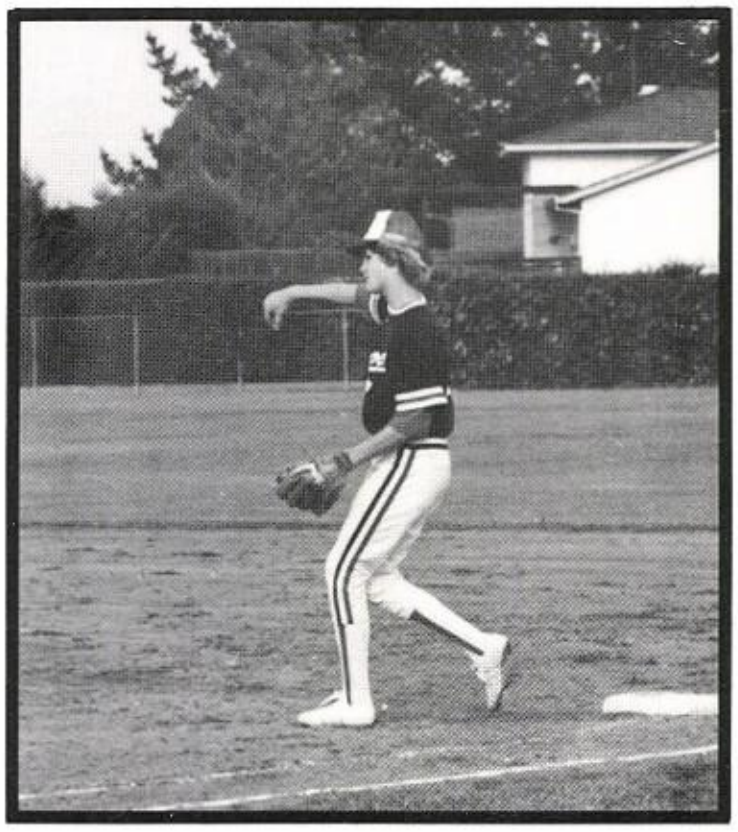


Boys' Varsity Baseball started it's season with two new teams and two new coaches too. Mr. Mansfield (better known as Wild Bill) took charge of the varsity team and instilled discipline as well as fun into practices. The team worked at all the technical aspects of the game, even at what angle a math window should be broken (thanks Lozano). Games were equally as fun, the team would be packing down the Jumbos while the coach would be yelling "That a boy, way to work," even though Sealey would still miss the sign. A fine pitching staff and good hitters made this years team a sight to see. The J.V.'s also had a new coach in Ron Roberts and he managed a team of fine players who were very coachable as well as talented. Practices were fun and consisted of hitting in the cages (which finally got mowed) and Mr. Roberts famous sliding practice. At the games that well known voice would say "Come on now" and the Lynbrook J.V.'s would start to take it to the leagues best teams.





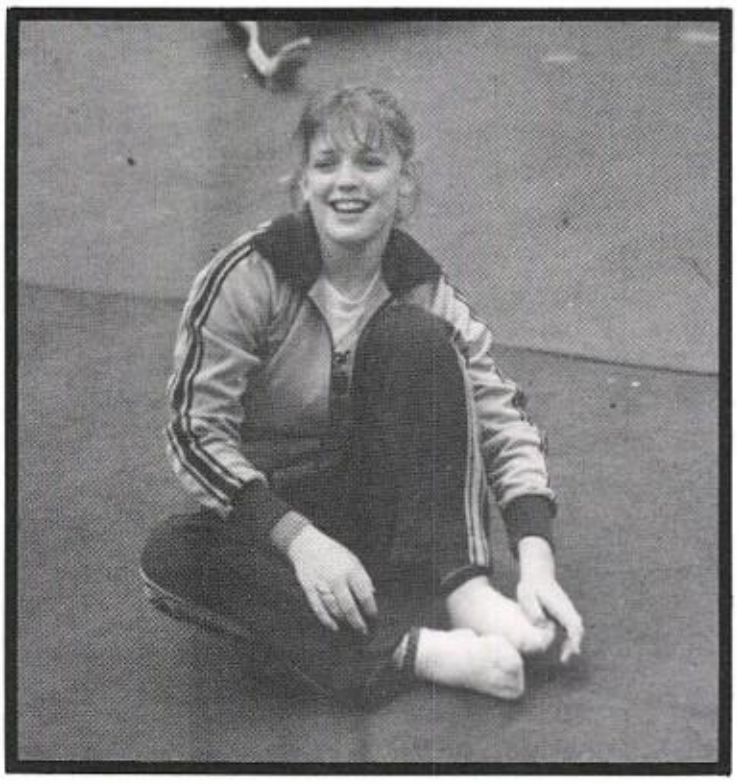


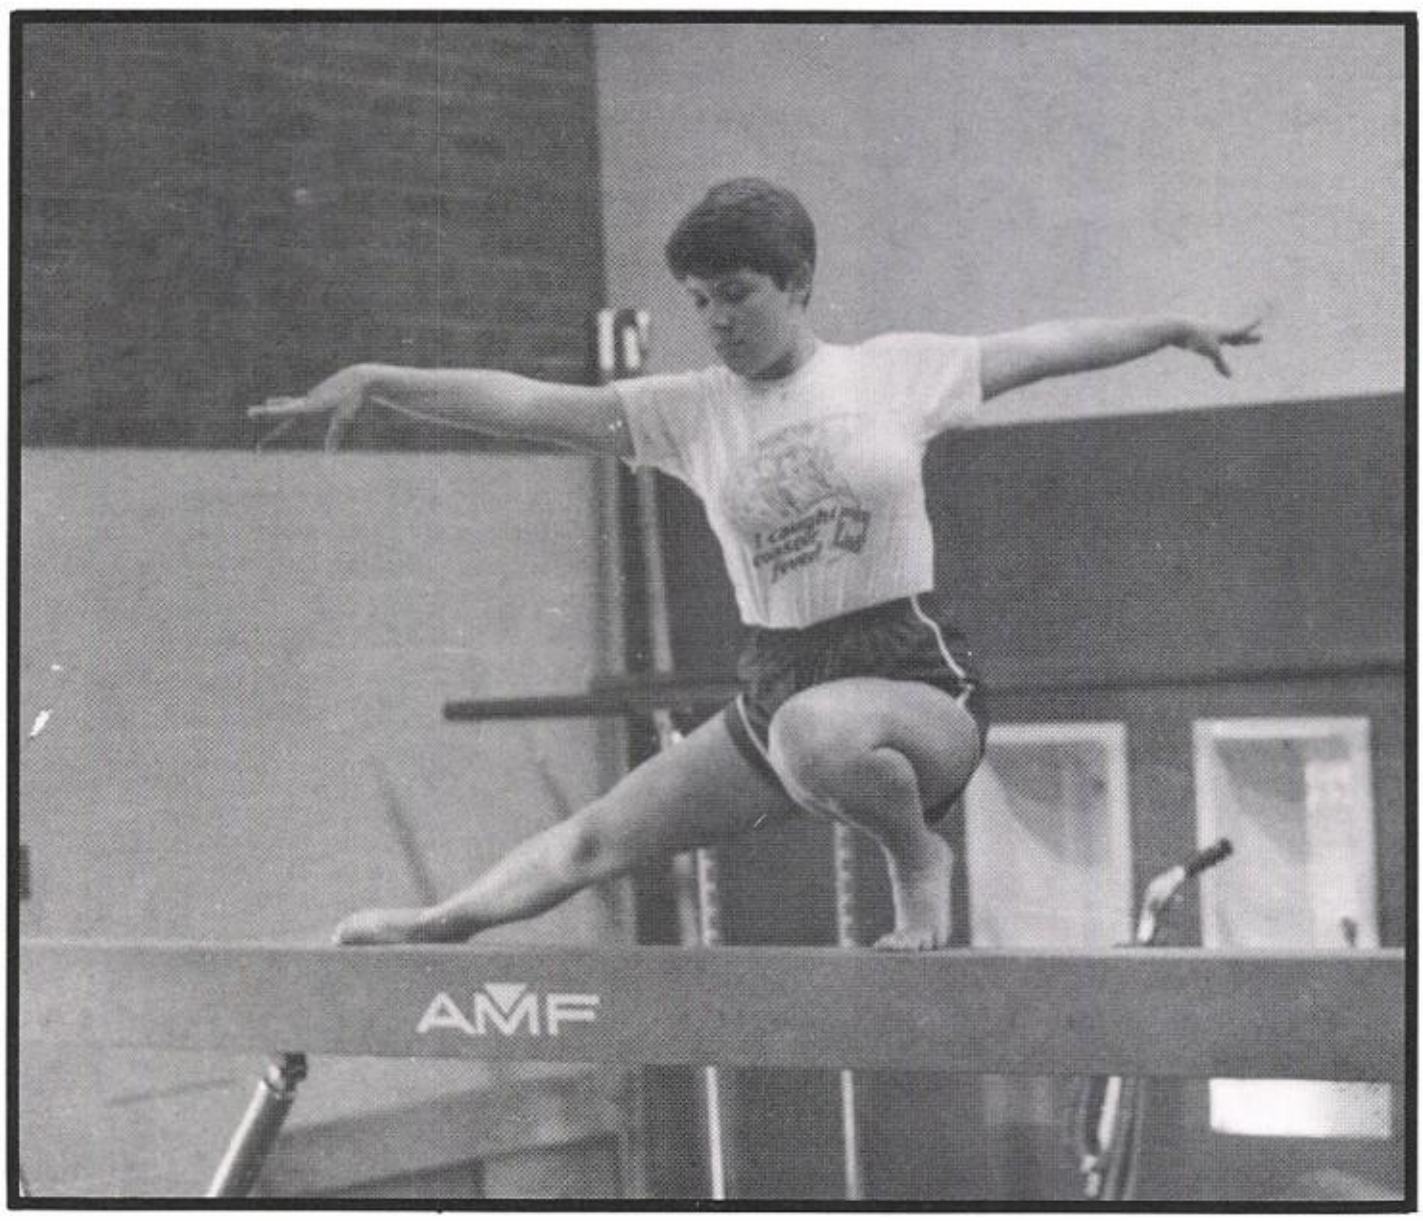


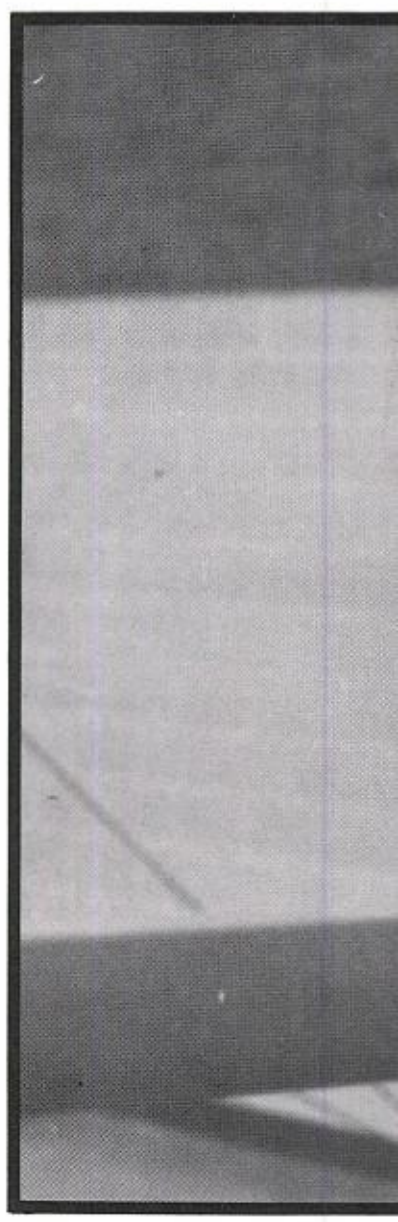
outlook:

"We have a small team, but lots of enthusiasm."

Kim Barbour







(cont.) Speaking of places - you've got and always will have a special place in my heart. Lisa - I've waited so long for this friendship - I always knew it could be, and I knew it would happen one day. Thankyou for all the times you've lent me your shoulder, or shared laughter with me.

There will be many more tears + laughter in the years to come.

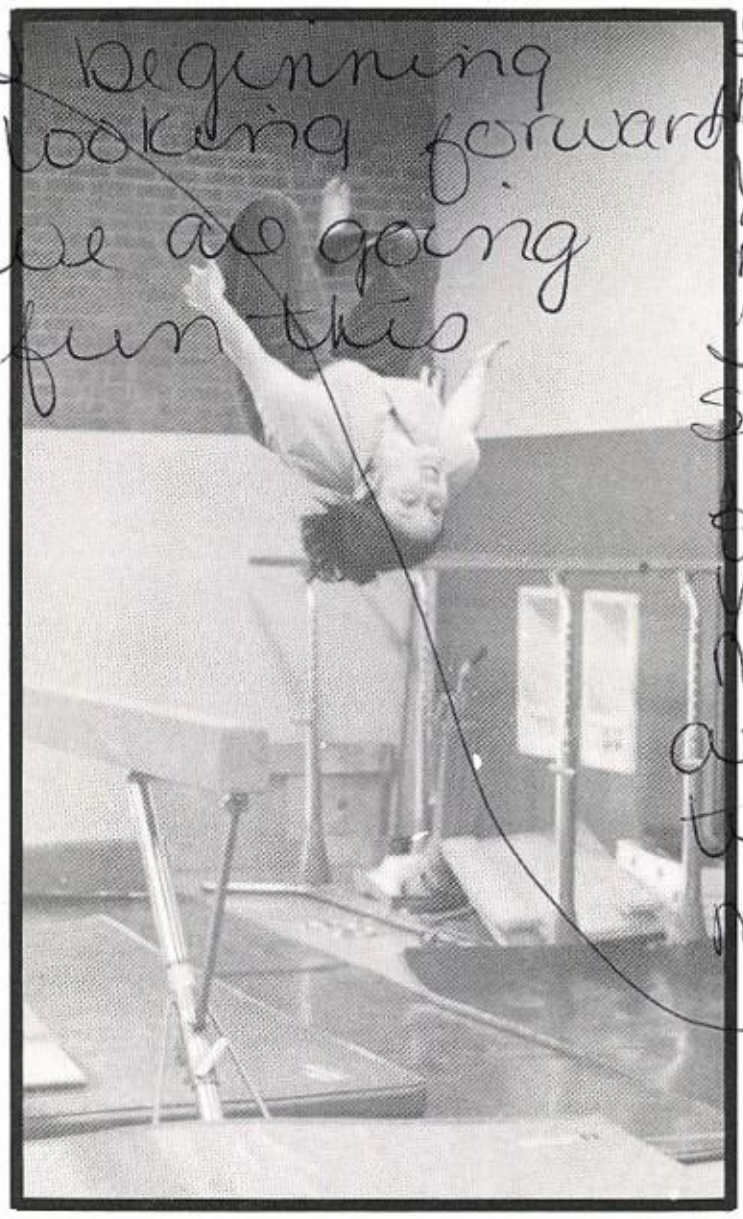
I think this is going to be a beautiful friendship. I'll always be here if you need me - always. Thankyou so much for you. You've been my crutch at the right times of my life.

Lynbrook gymnastics can't seem to keep the same coach from year to year, but they have kept their consistent form. With only three girls on the varsity team they proved that good things (teams) come in small packages. This trio managed to dazzle the judges and crowds with their excellent routines of jumps, twists, flips and twirls. Placing first or second was not unusual for the J.V.'s. Success and lots of fun characterize the overall gymnastics season.

Well - this is a new beginning for both of us. I'm looking forward to our "double dates", we are going to have so much fun this Summer.

Love ya -
Lisa

P.S. Best of wishes to you + Mark.

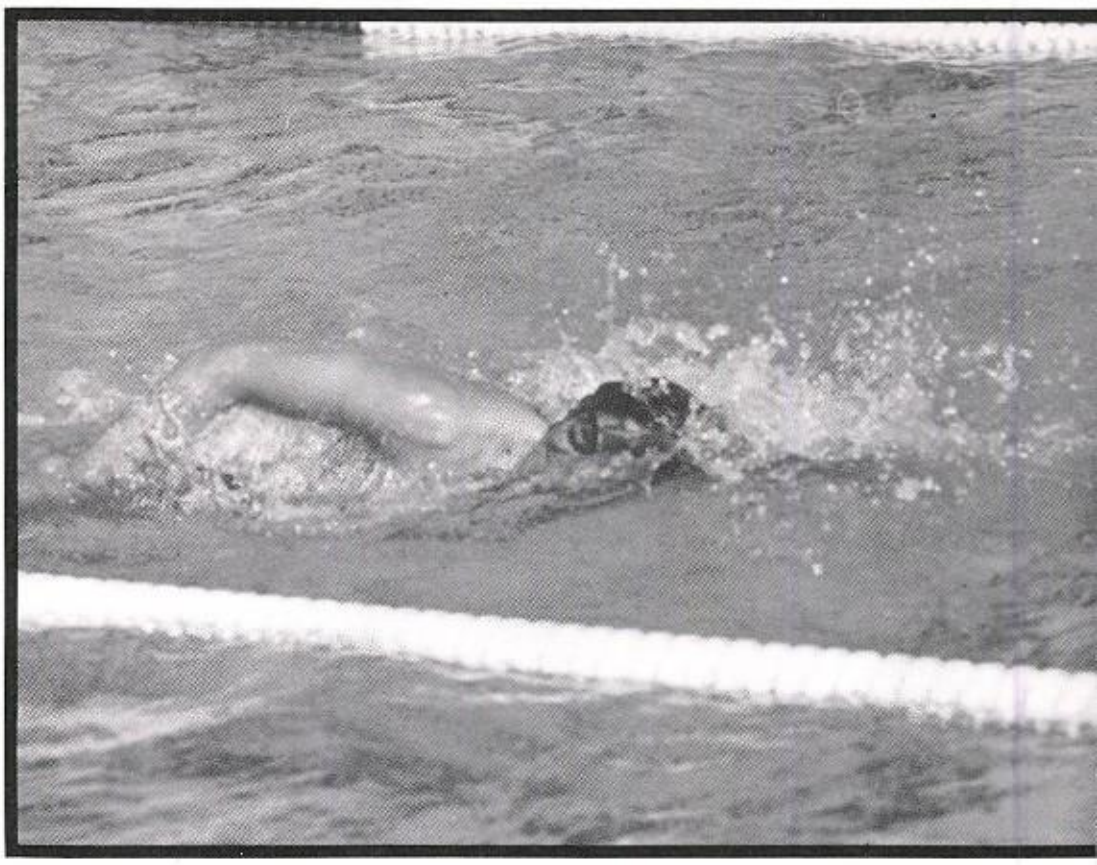


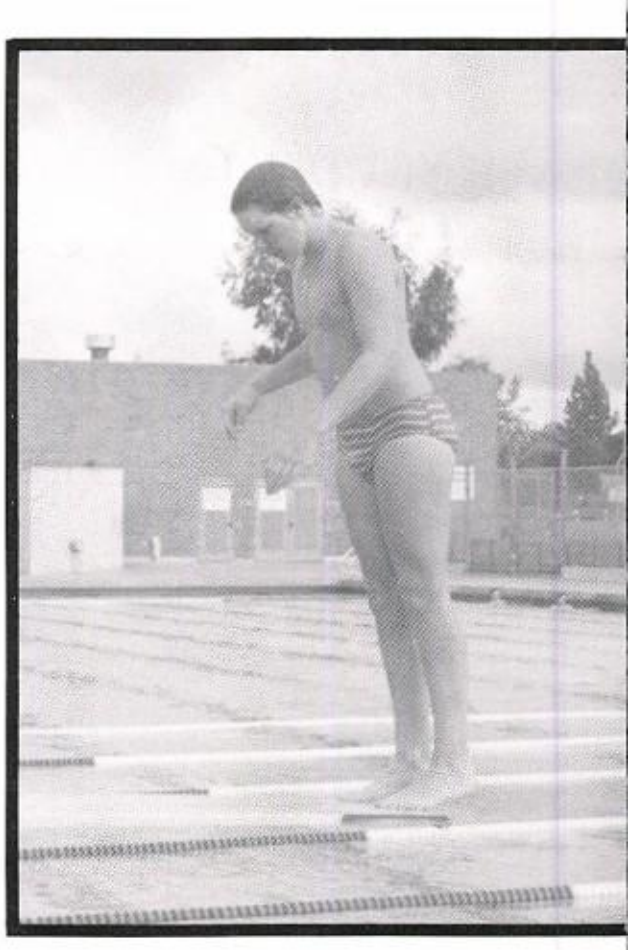
swimming

outlook:

Lynbrook will have no problem winning its 9th straight D.A.L. championship. This team could be the best team in the C.C.S. and is working hard to win its 3rd C.C.S. championship.

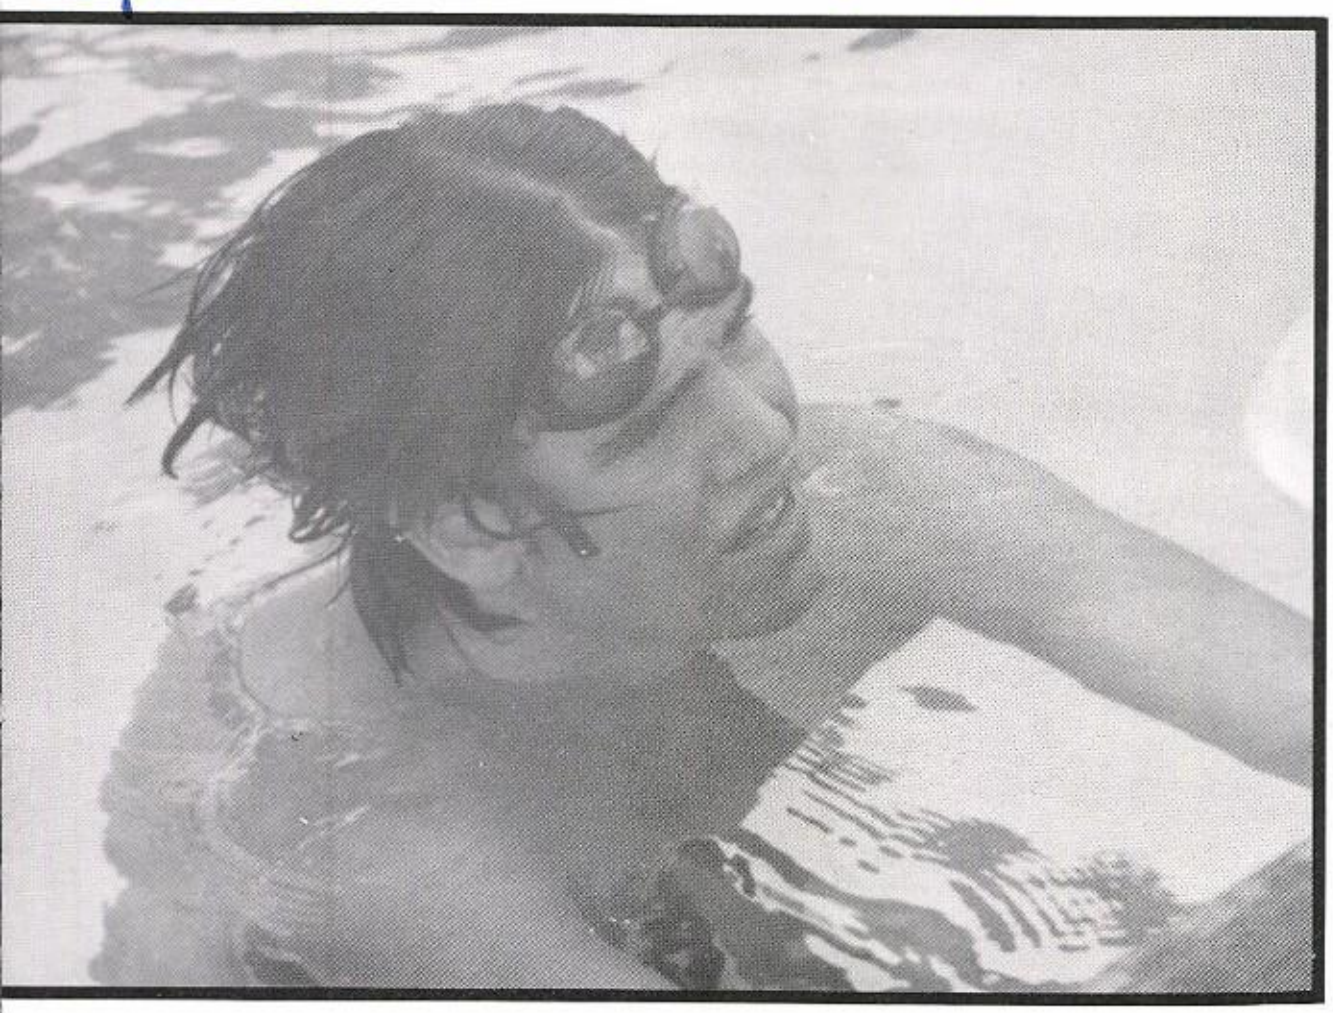
Steve Barnett

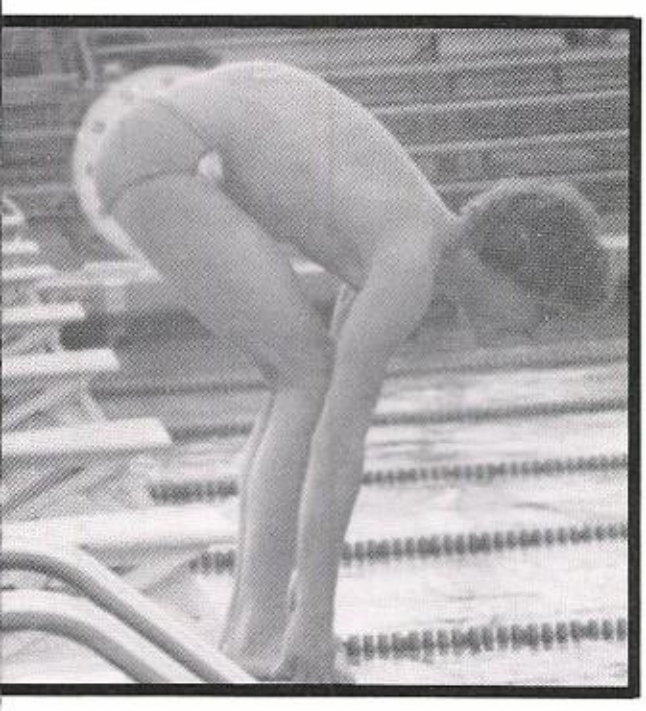


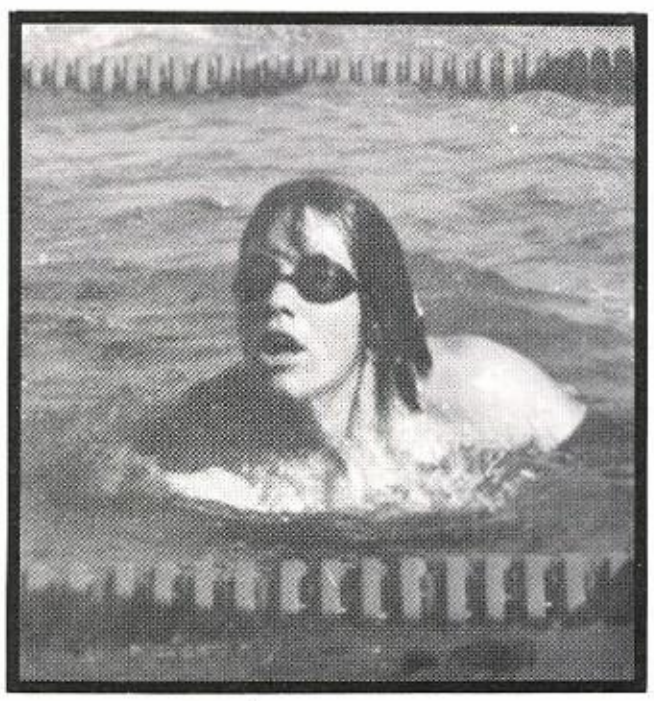


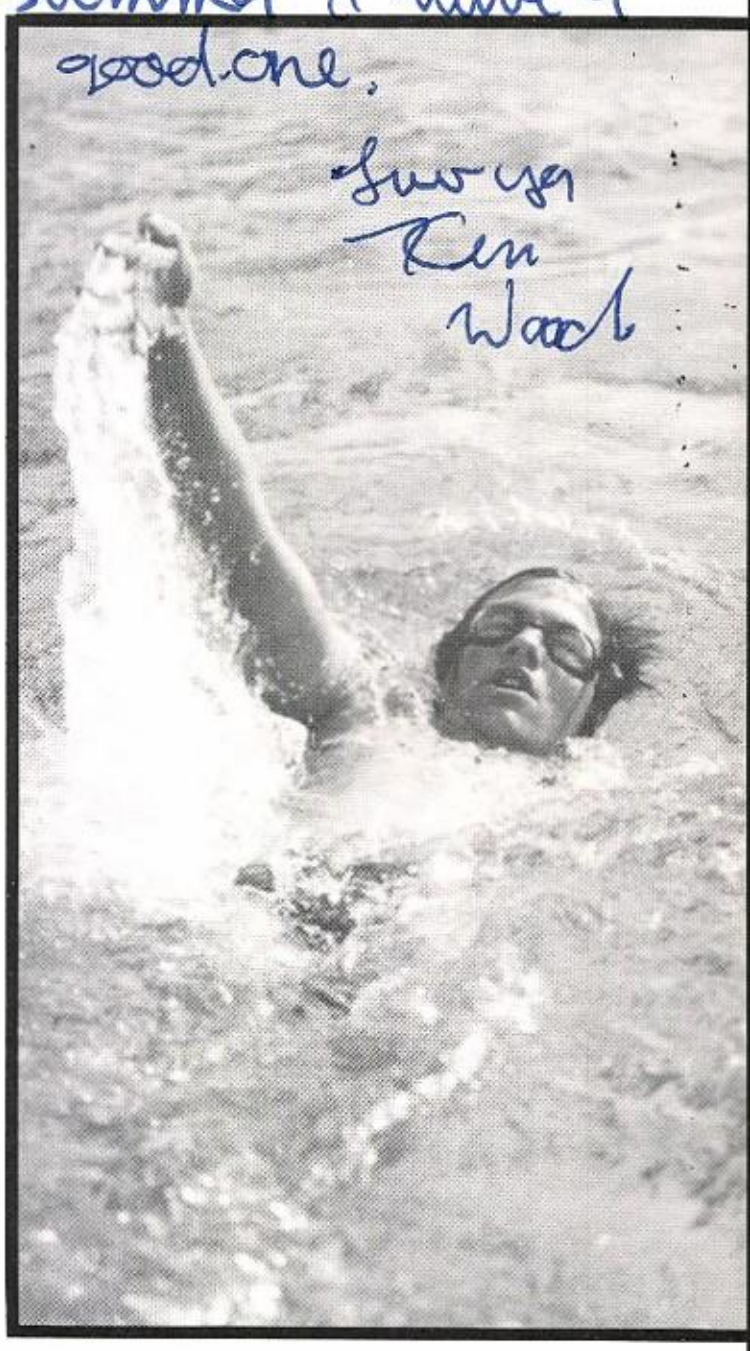
Lisa,
I'm so glad I got to meet you, cause you're super sweet & cute. I wish we could have had a class together this year but that's life. I hope we can keep in touch over the summer & have a good one.

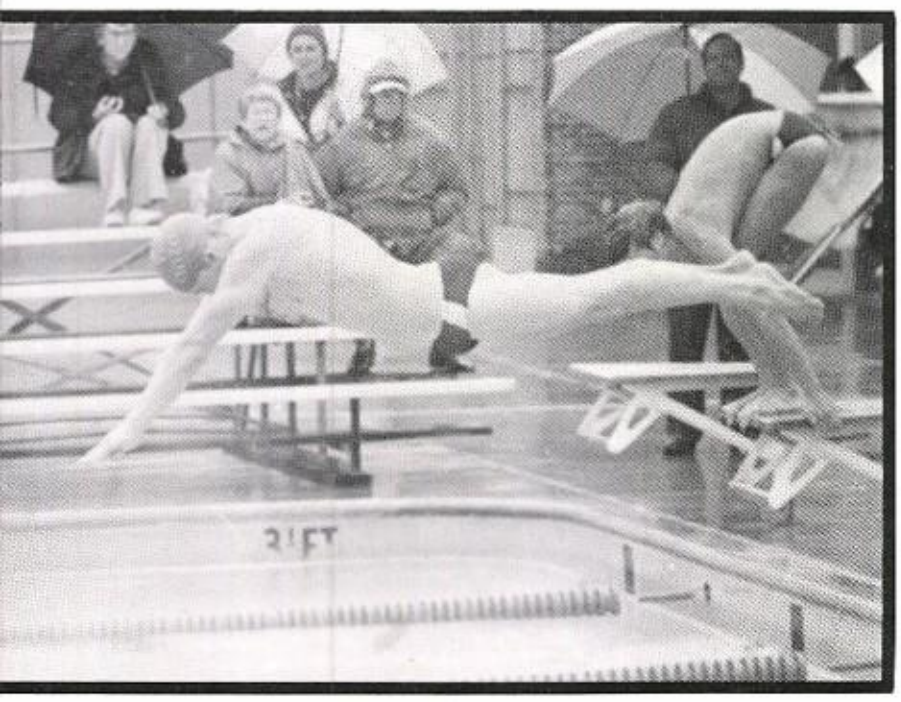
Love ya
Ken
Wack









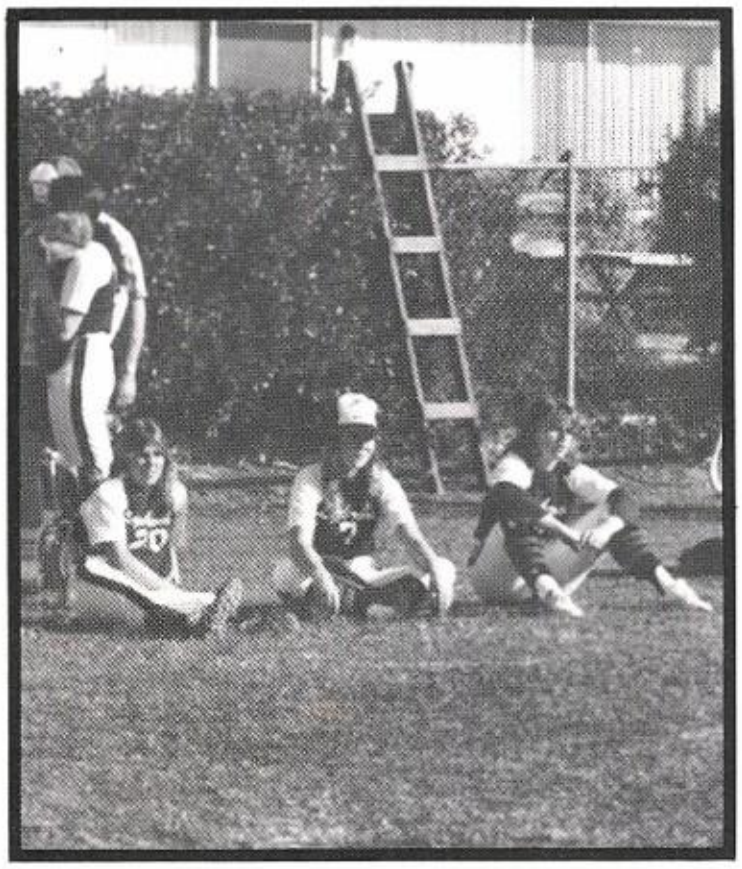


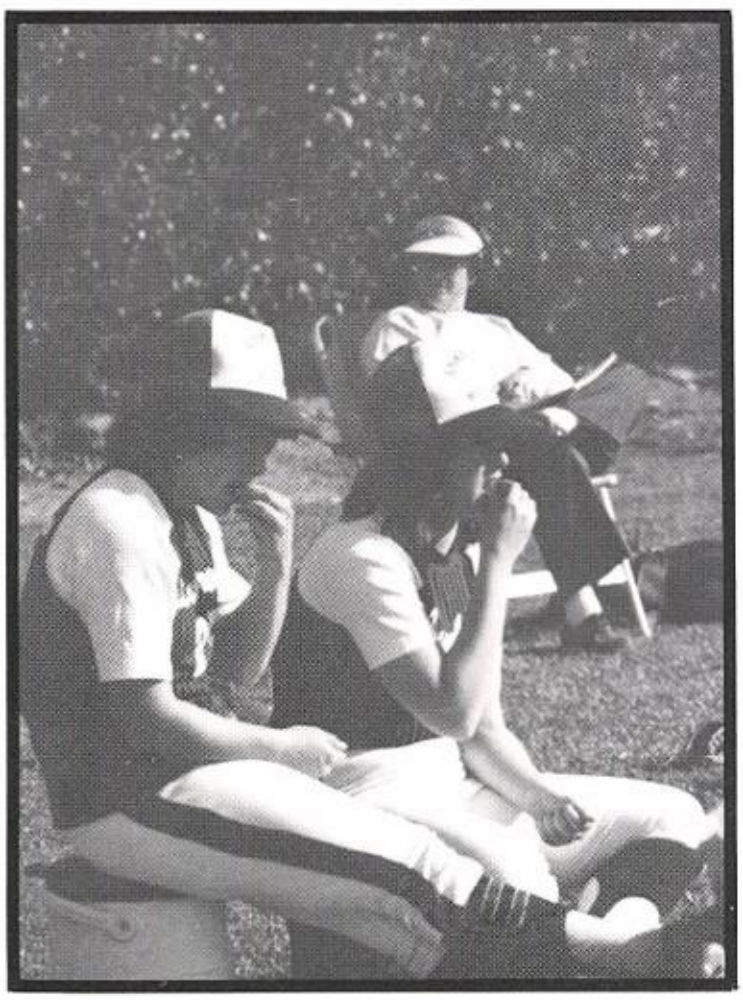
When the alarm clock goes off at 5:30, you know what it's for if you're on the swim team. It means lifting weights and swimming plenty of laps, but those workouts are well worth it when you're shooting for your third straight CCS title. Yes, John "Carrottop" James, Kent Mitchell, Kevin Cavanaugh, Chuck Eischen, and Bob Wu were among the many who swam hard. They listened to the "Reverend Barnett" provide services before each meet. It must have helped because the team did quite well after the "sermons." Getting up early wasn't such a bad price to pay for the glory of being on the L.H.S. swim team.

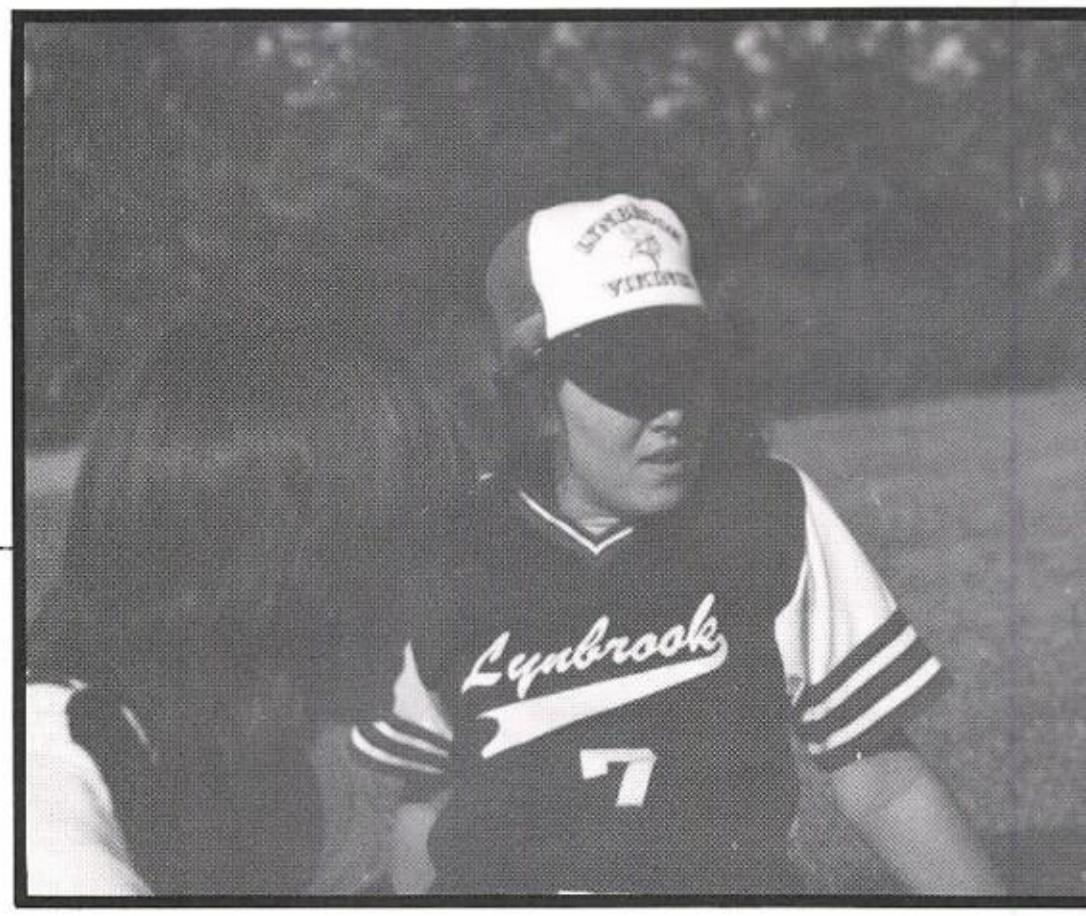
outlook:

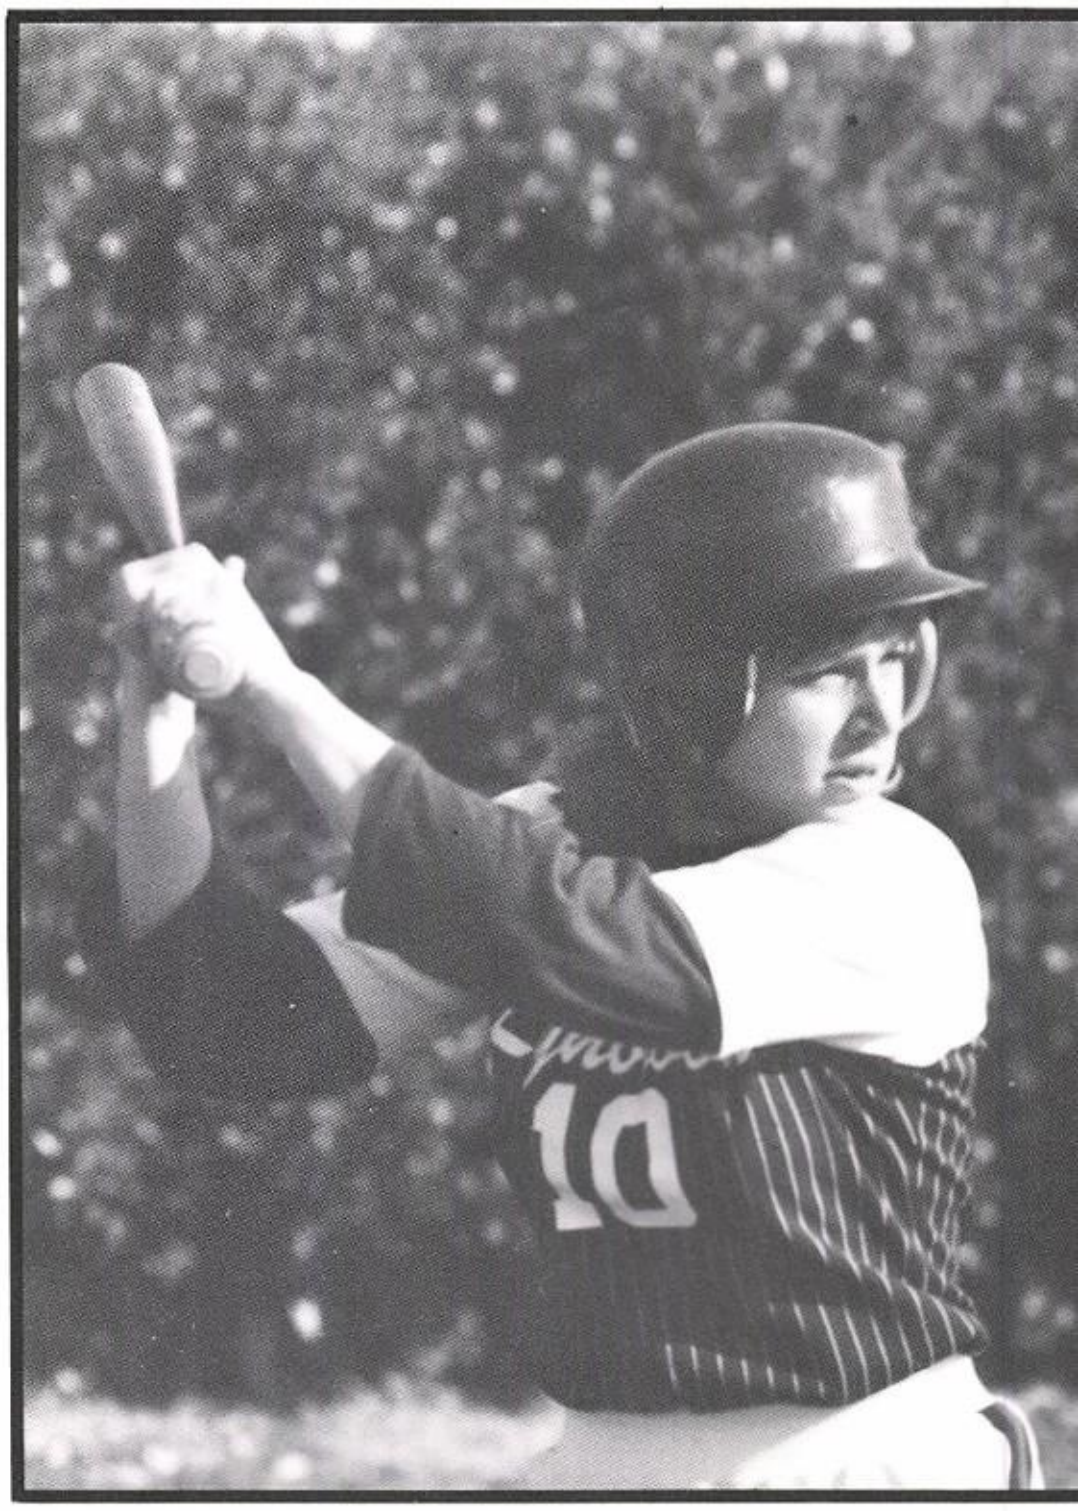
"Lynbrook varsity softball will field a strong defensive team this year and will be up there at the top of the D.A.L., pushing last year's favorite's, Monta Vista and Fremont."

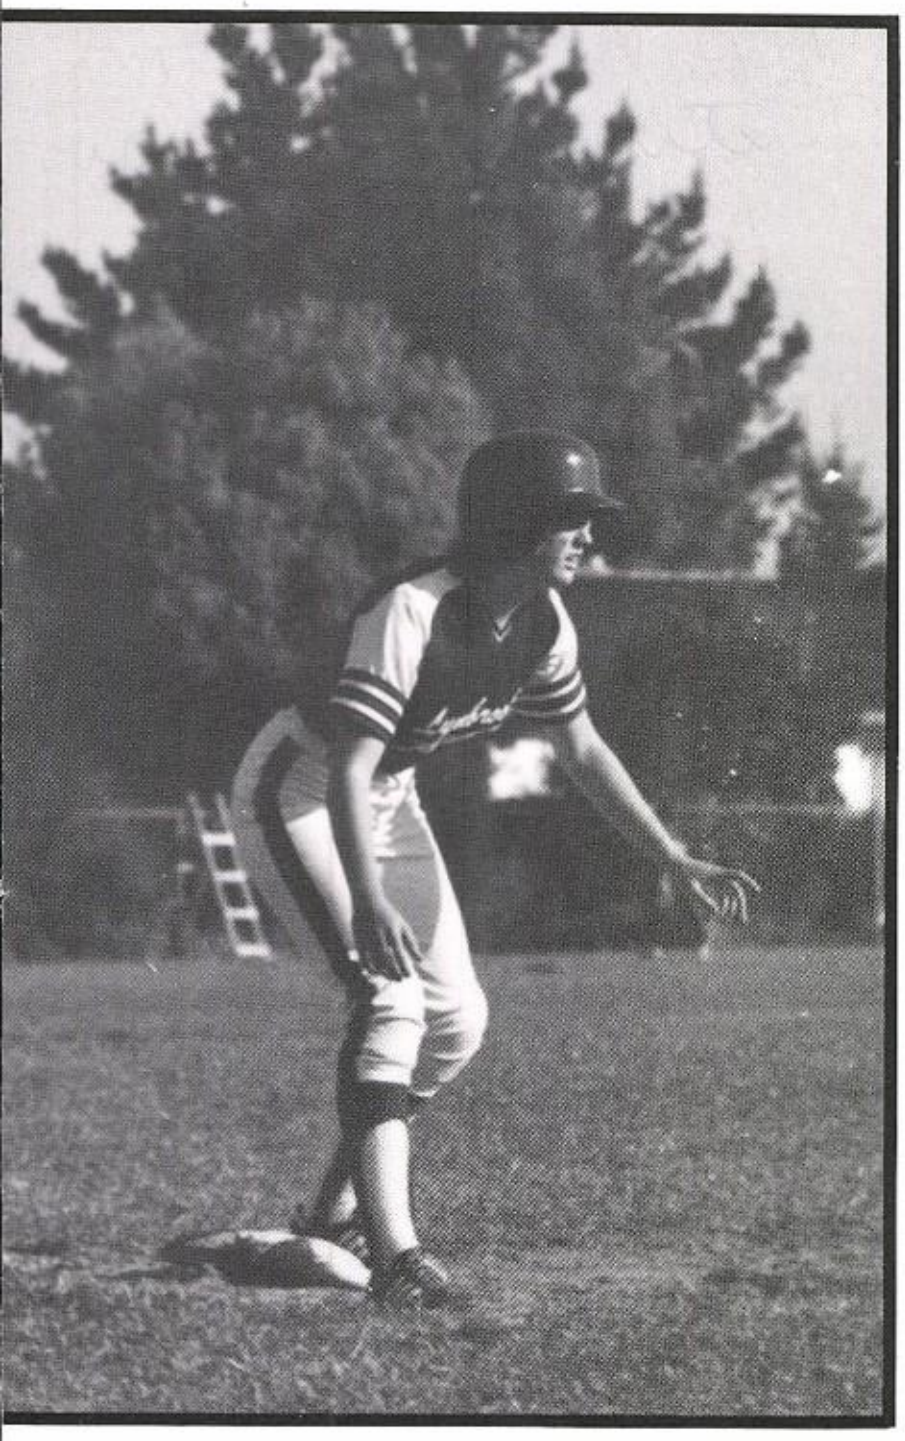
Jim Relph

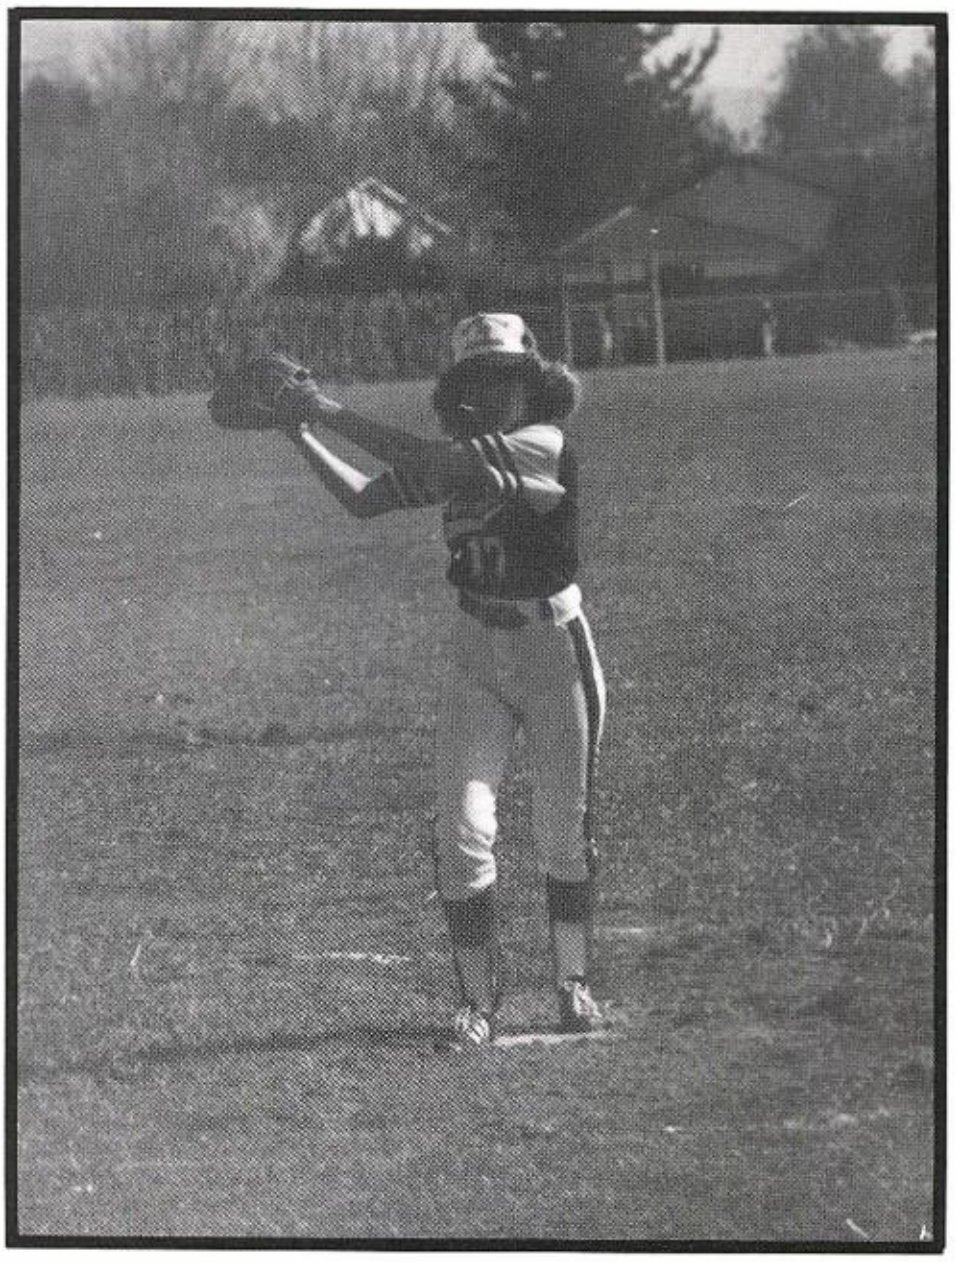


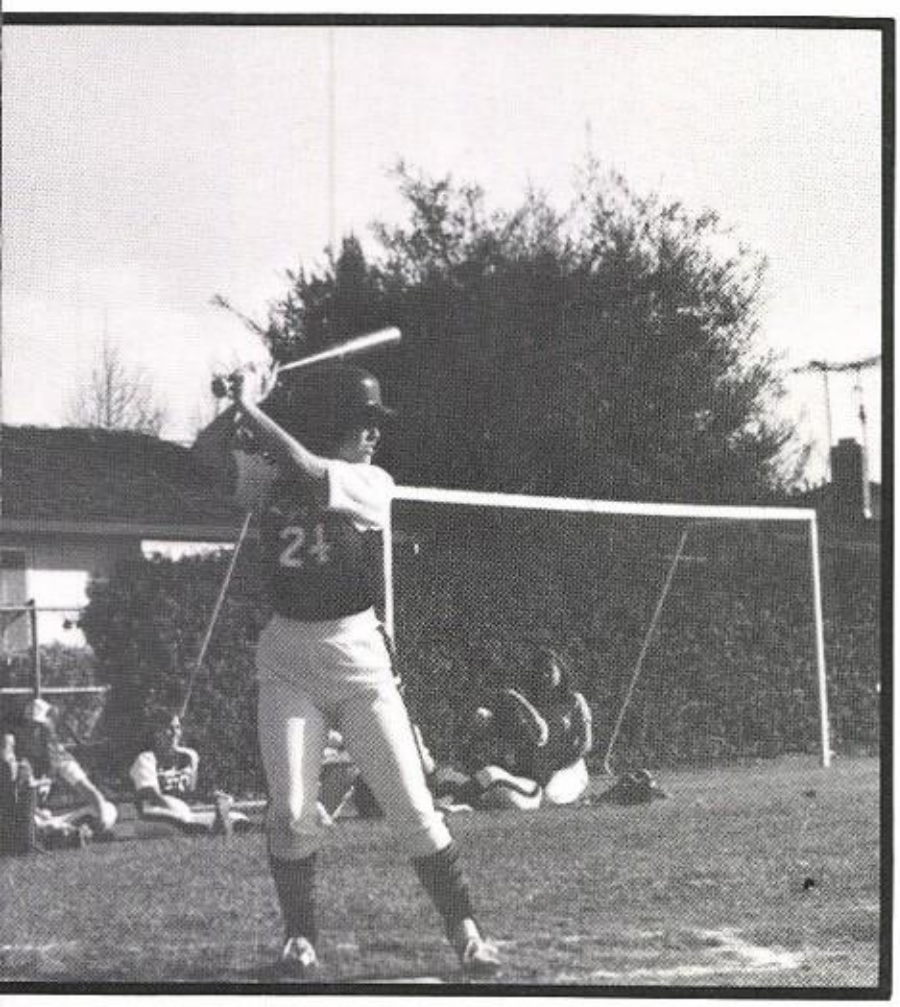












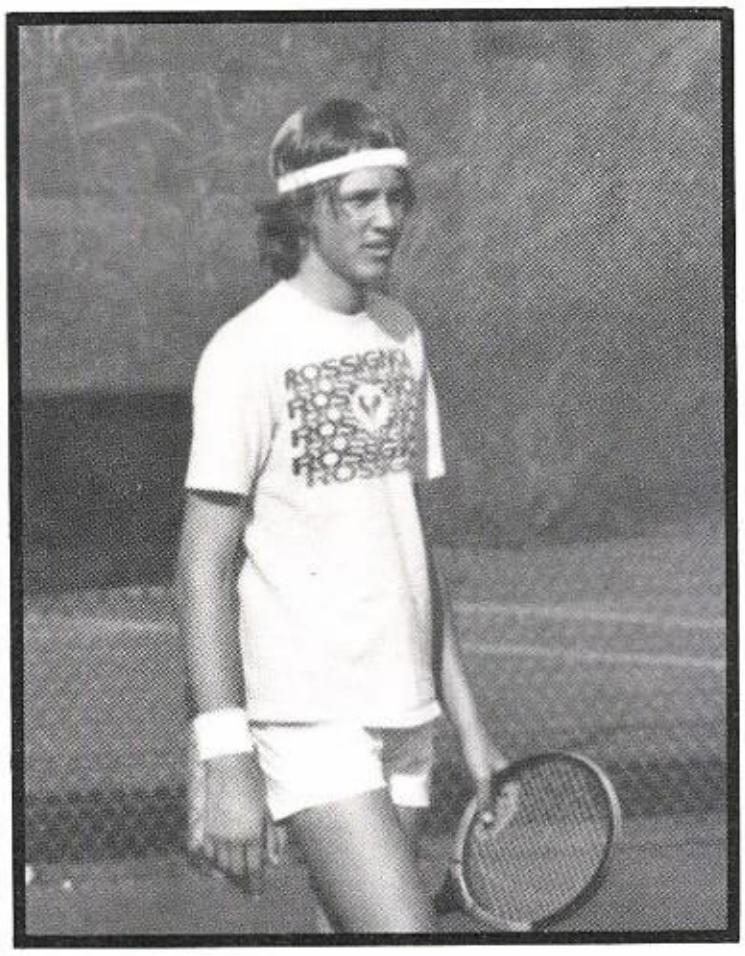
HHHHrumph to the Governor (cut out the sound effects K.P.). This year's girls' softball teams showed promise as a top competitor for both the DAL title and the wettest team in CCS (those eves are supposed to protect us from the rain!). The girls owe a lot to their coaches, especially Relph who never let them out of a practice, but it all payed off at the games. After a satisfying victory, Jackson would always add the finishing touch. All the girls made up unique teams, and their friendships added to a successful season.

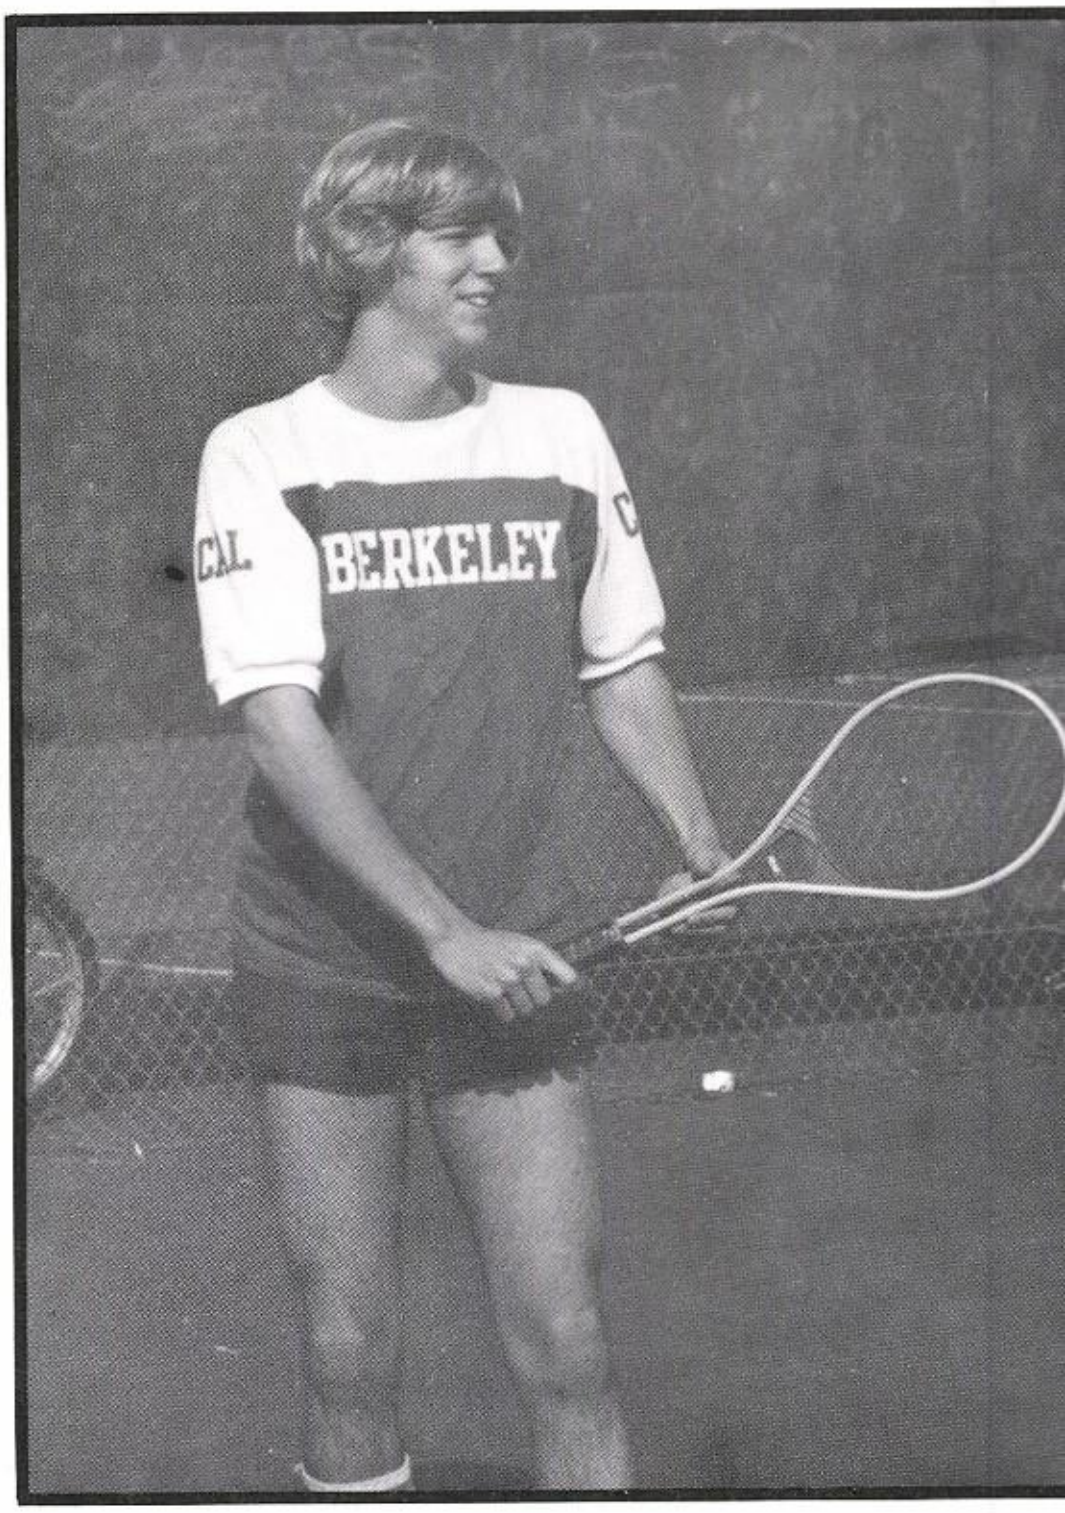
tennis

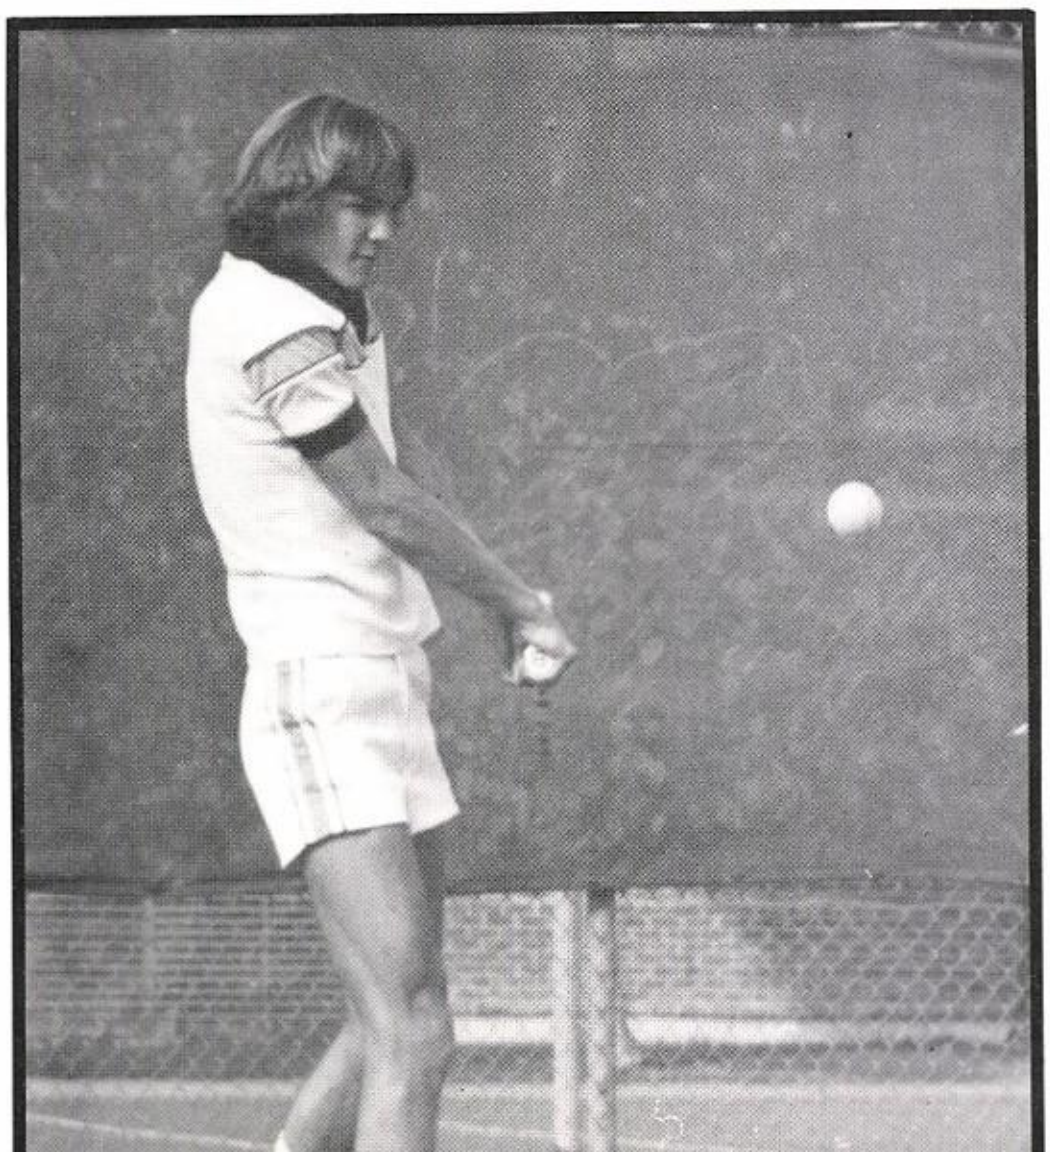
outlook:

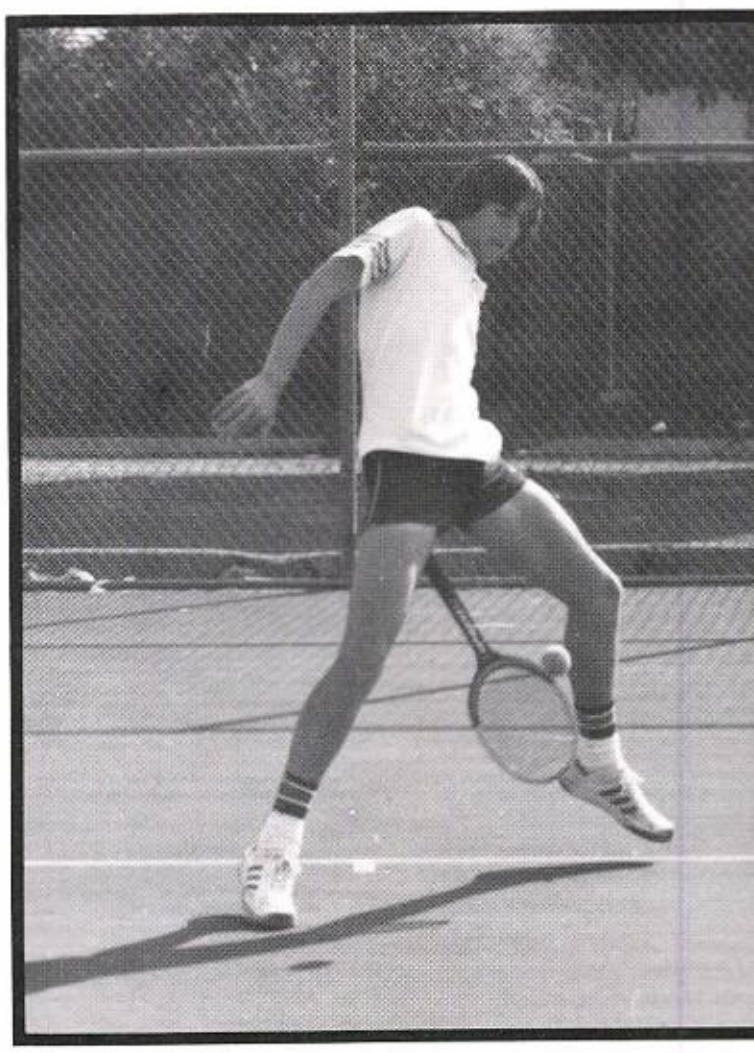
The 1981 tennis team has an international flavor. With the returning players and world wide talent, the team should finish among the top three in the league.

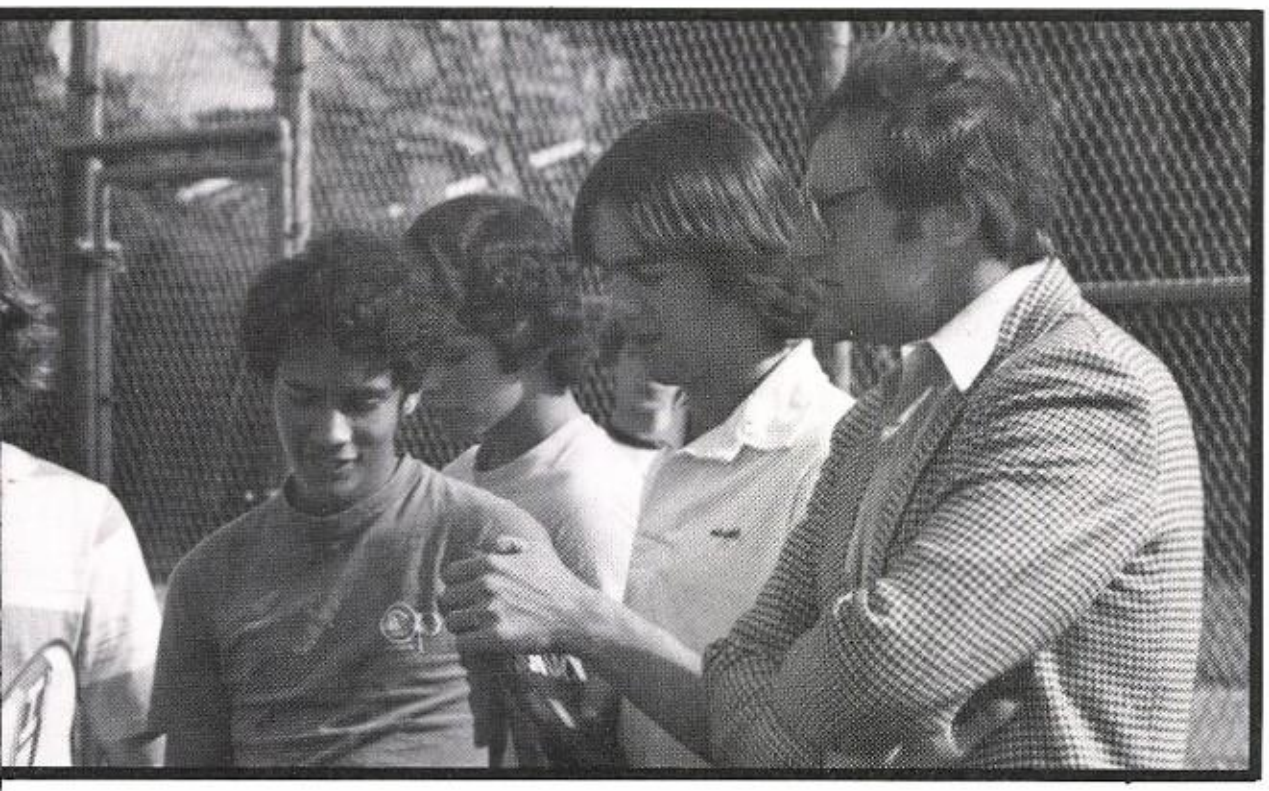
Howard Spring



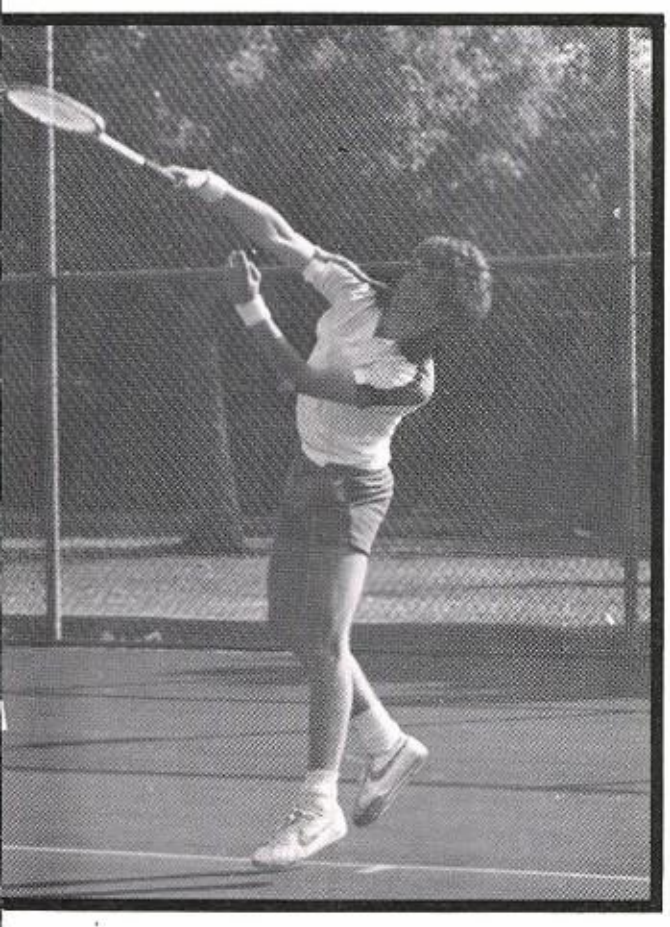


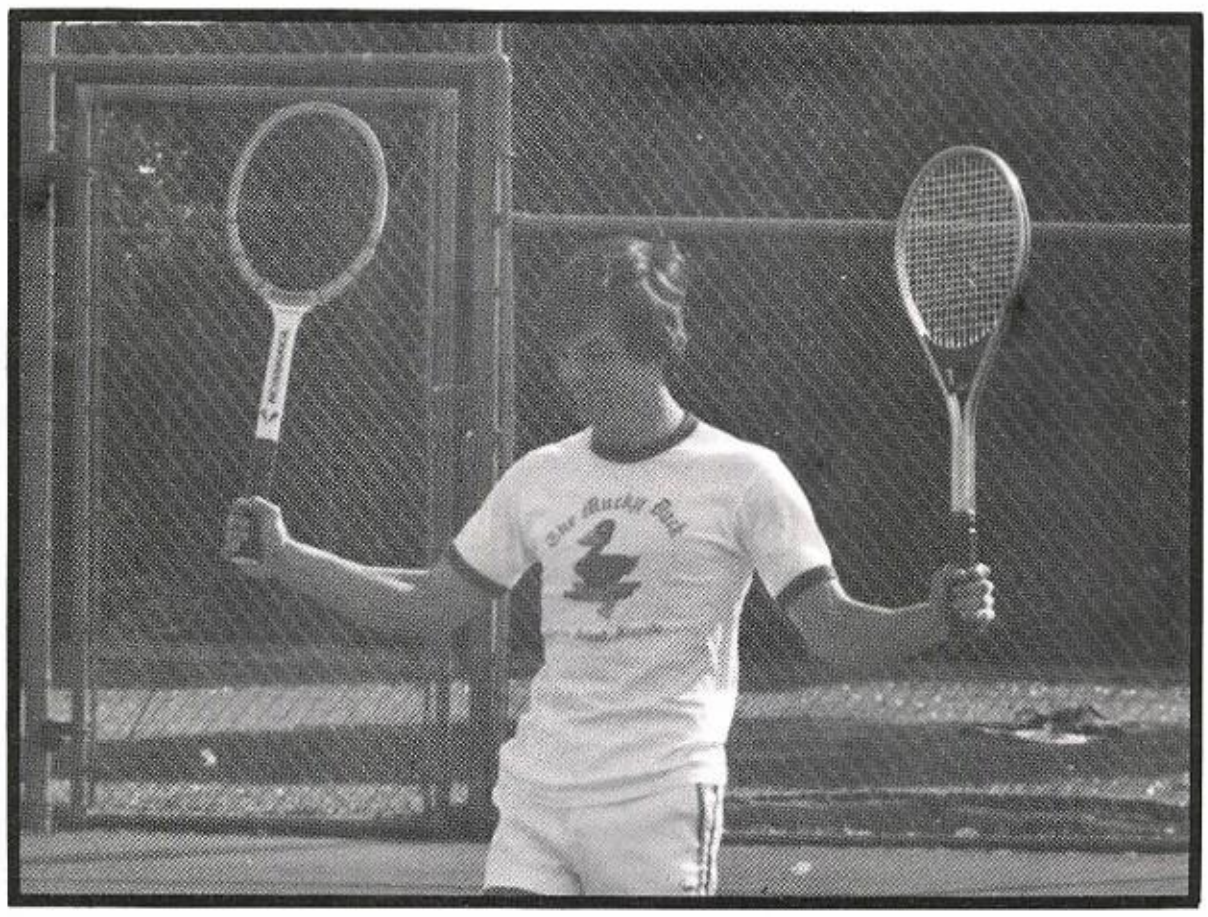


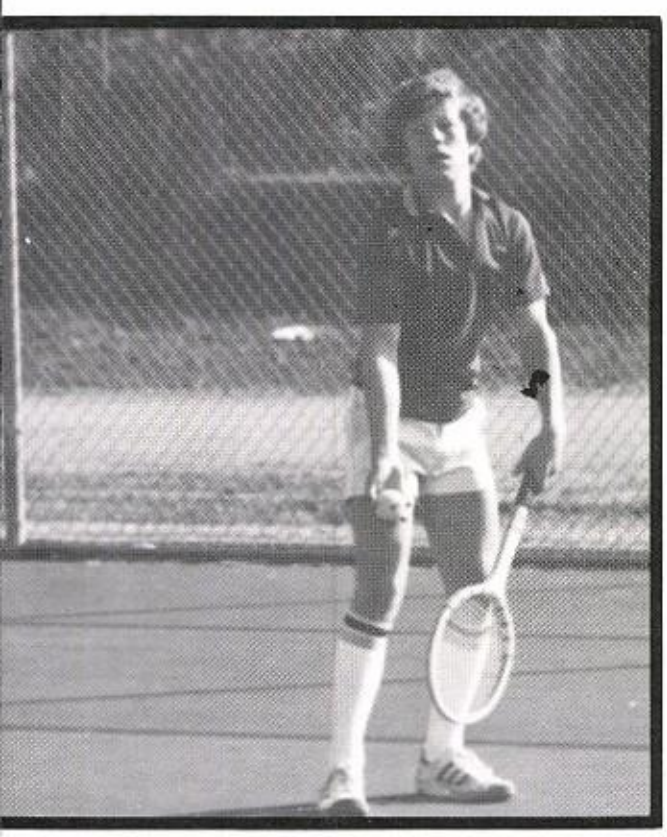


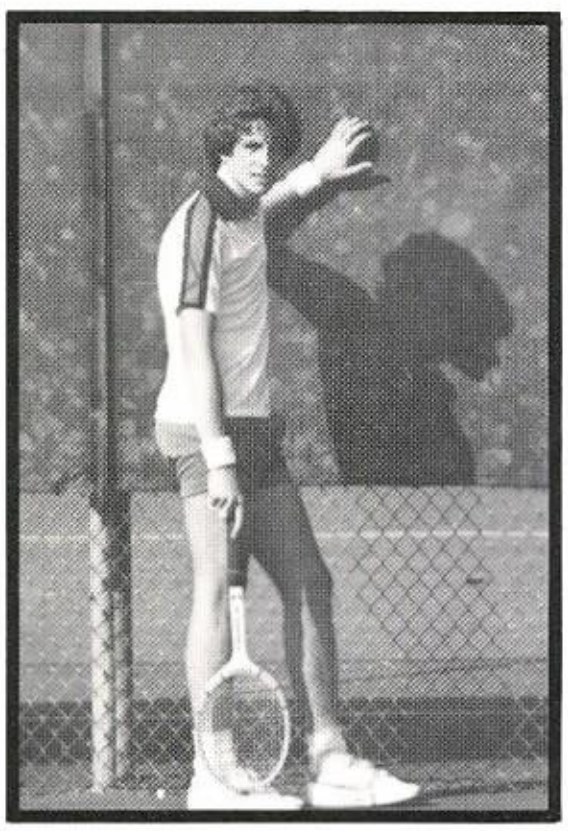


Every day they could be seen on the courts, for two hours daily, doing what they love — serving, smashing, lobbing, and volleying. Of course we are talking about the boys tennis team. The season started slow with many matches and practices falling prey to the weather. During the matches the team spirit of Lynbrook was obvious and each player put forth his best effort. Practices were fun and a good showing in the league proved what all knew was an enjoyable season of tennis. The team may move to number one next year with extra practice and determination.







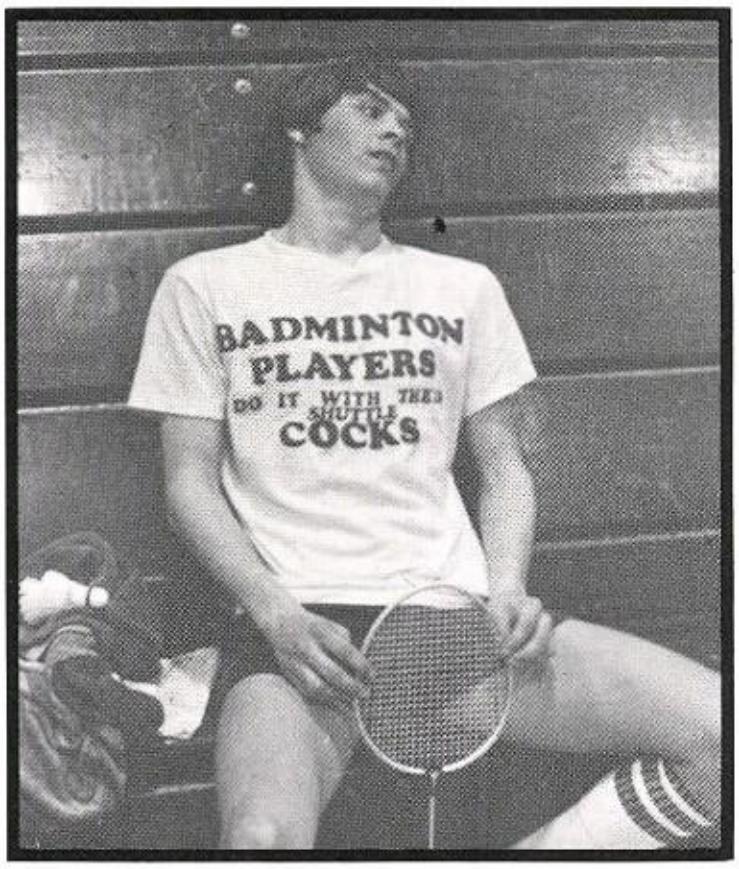


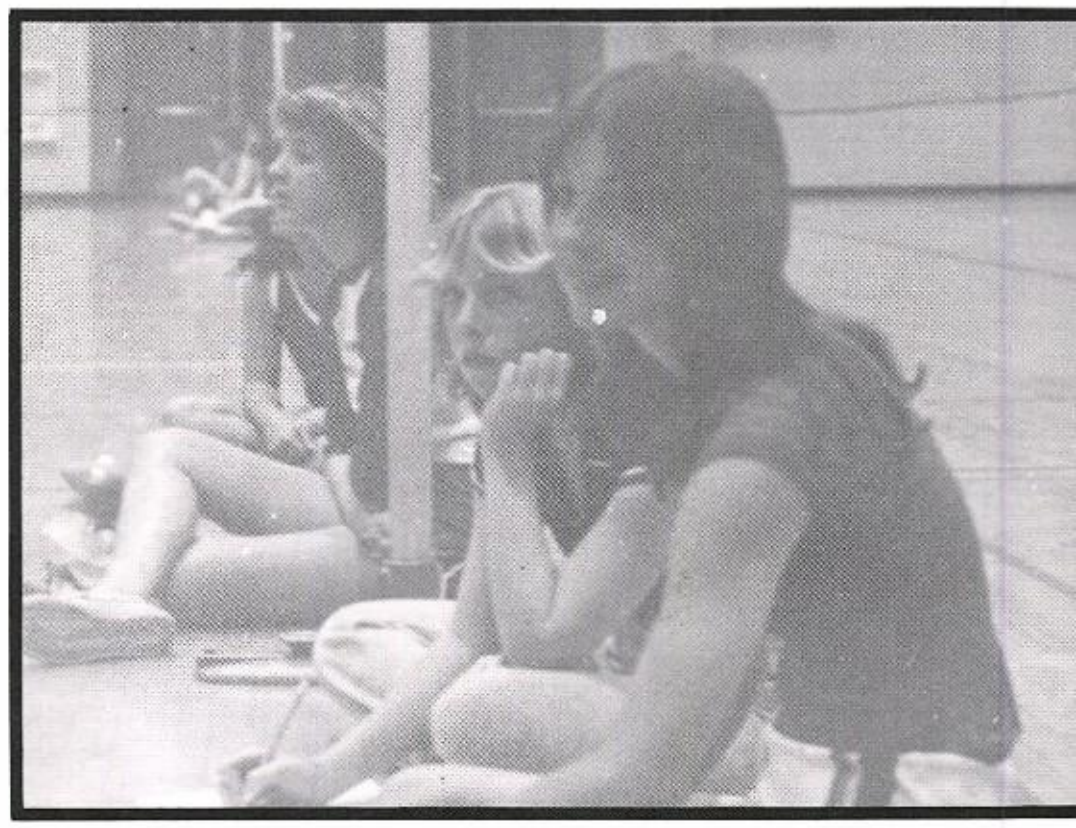
badminton

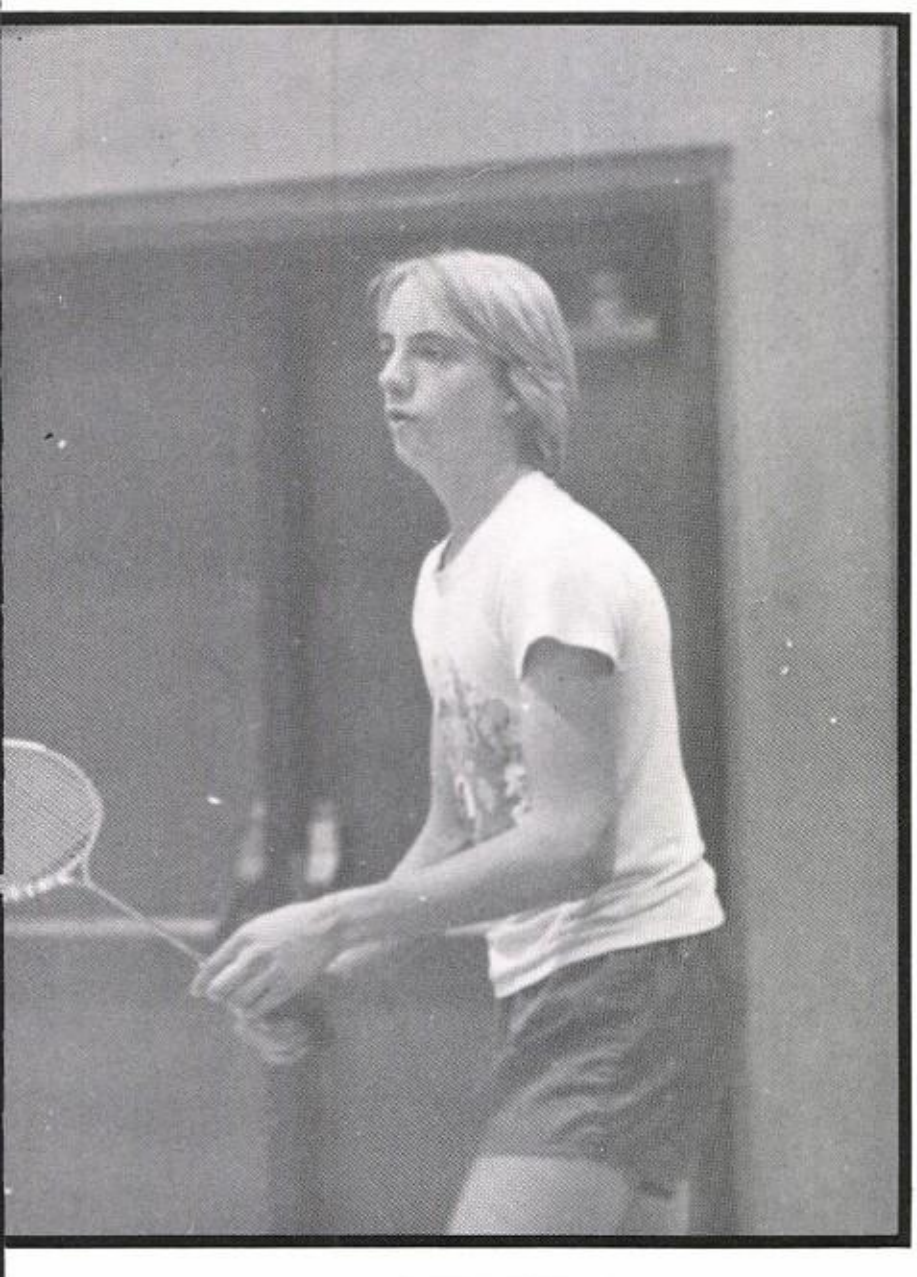
outlook:

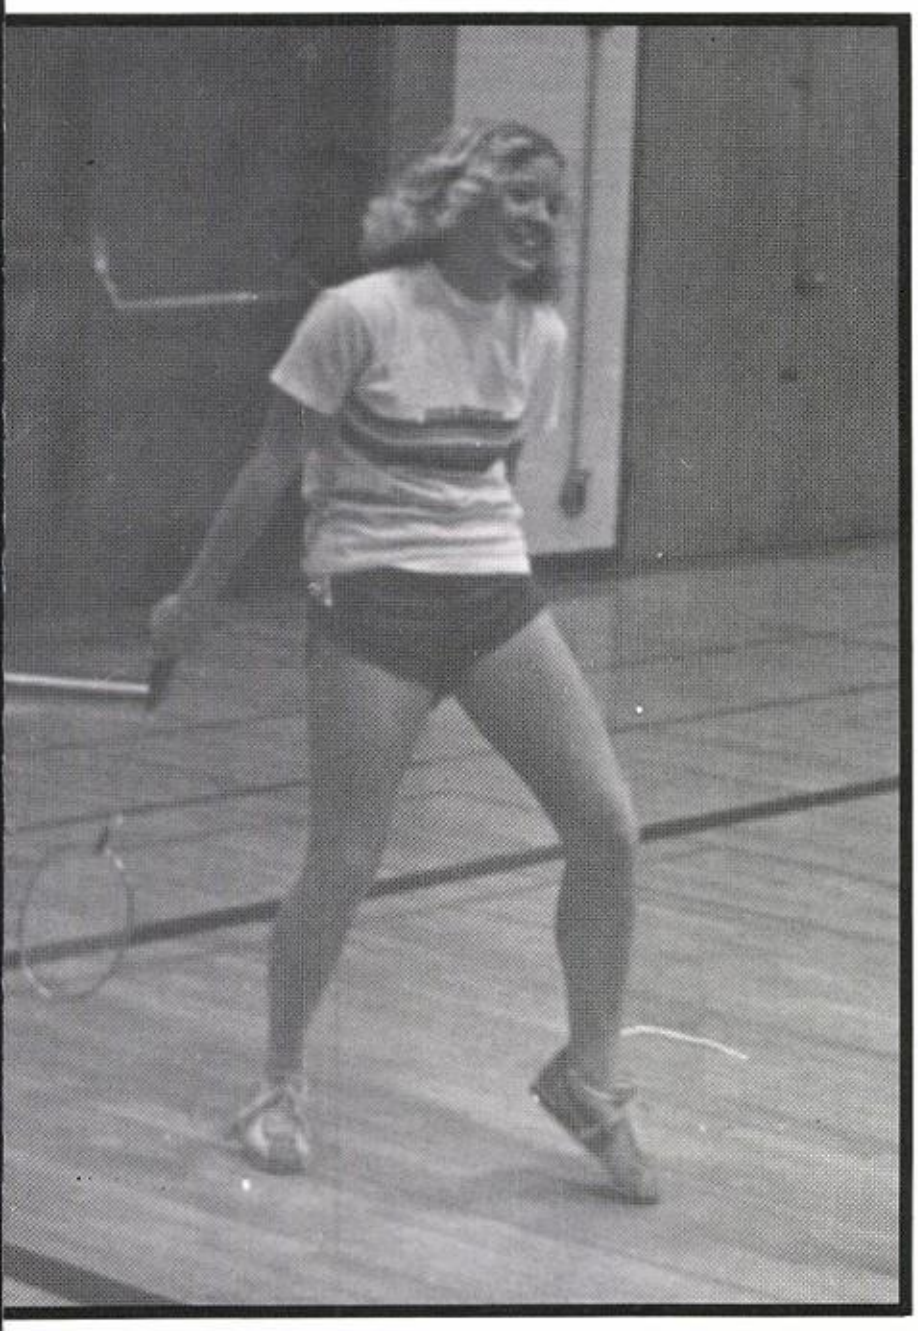
This year Lynbrook has an eager and rapidly developing team. A team to be reckoned with.

David Pugh









Co-ed badminton this year was a smash. Practice was held daily in the gym and cries of "watch the birdie" echoed through it. The guys really enjoyed bearing the birdie with the girls (especially Nerry and Knacky). Everyone started acting like Raul, throwing the racket and stomping their feet. The reams were headed by two great coaches, Pugh with that good English serve; and Rob (Don't forget: 15 will get you 20). The gymnastics team did their part in helping to make the practices fun. Twice a week all of the fun, and hard work, paid off when the team did what it does best: play badminton.

track and field

outlook:

We are looking forward to a fine season. With the enthusiasm being displayed, we will be in the running for the league championship.

Jeff Fishback

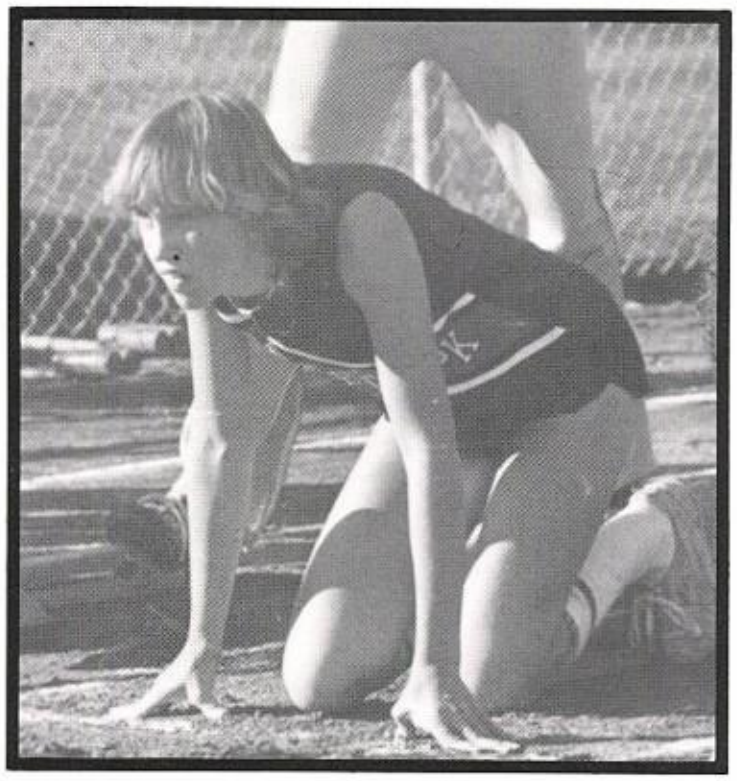
The Lynbrook Country Club, alias the track & field team, opened up this spring with it's annual membership drive. Heading the membership committee were girls coach Jerra Rowland and boys coach Jeff Fishback, with some help from resident pros Barry, Verne, Bergie, Champ Nichols and Coach Johnson from the college. But don't let the name fool you, the club wasn't all fun and games. This group did workout, doing such

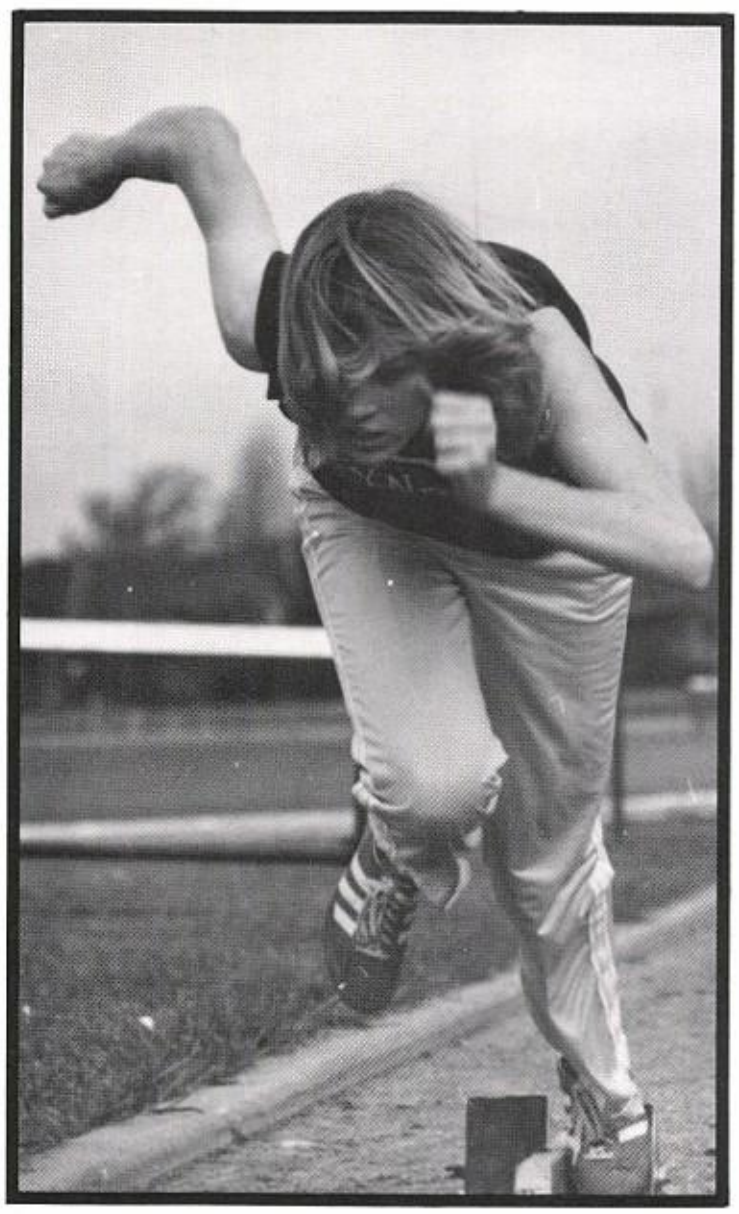
track and field

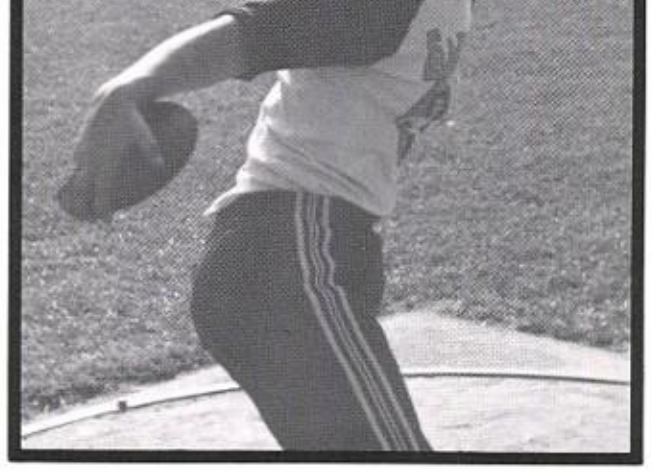
outlook:

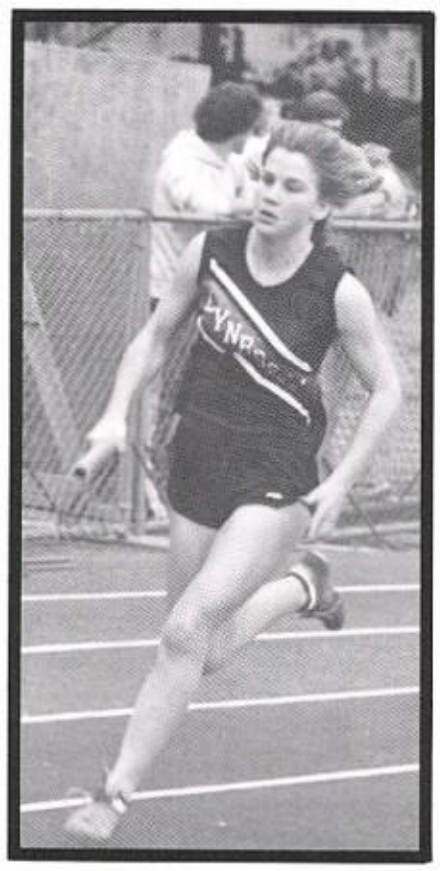
Girls track at Lynbrook has an unprecedented winning tradition in the D.A.L. We will strive to uphold that tradition this year.

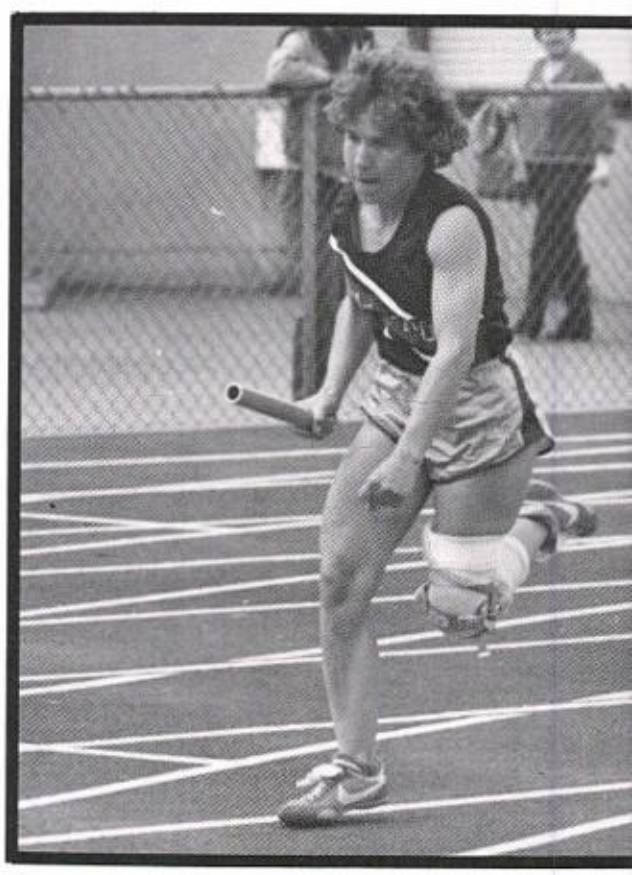
Jerra Rowland

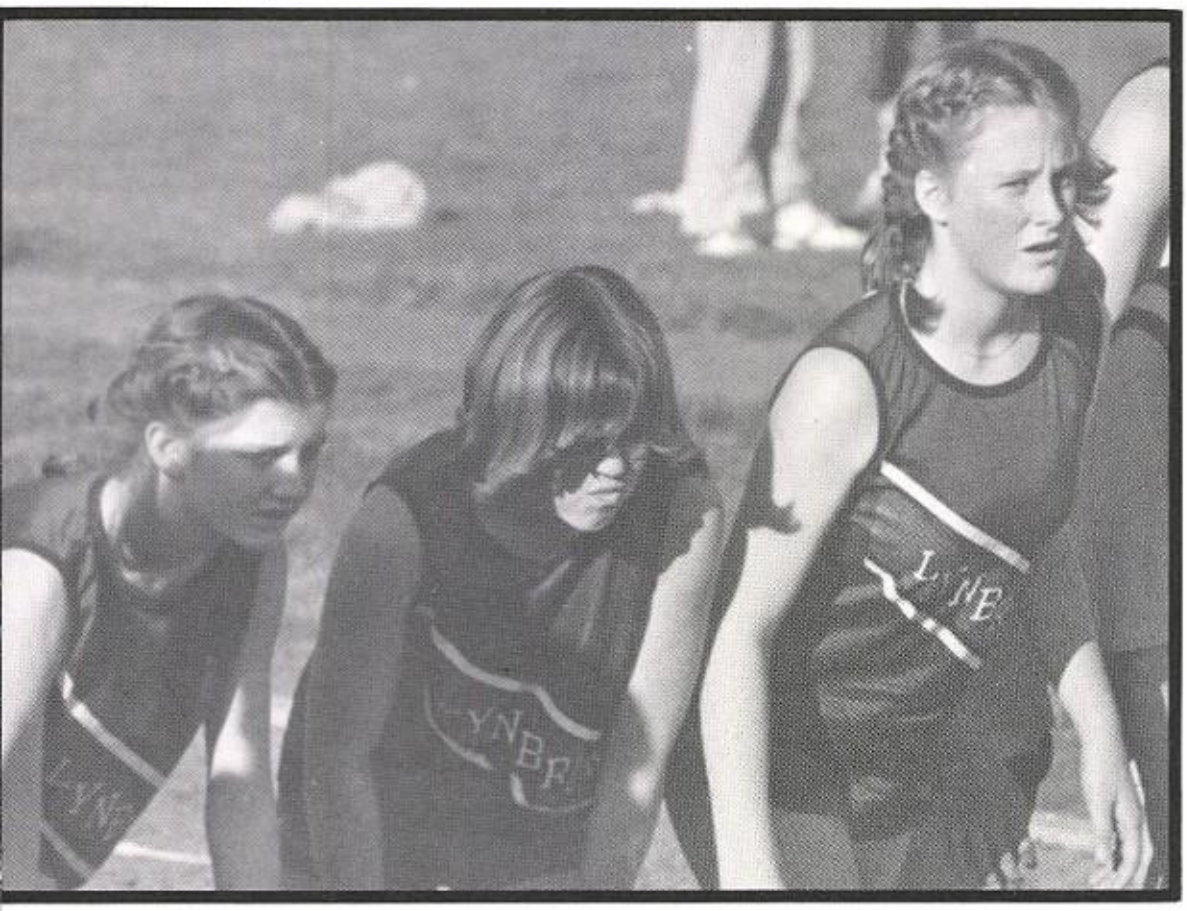


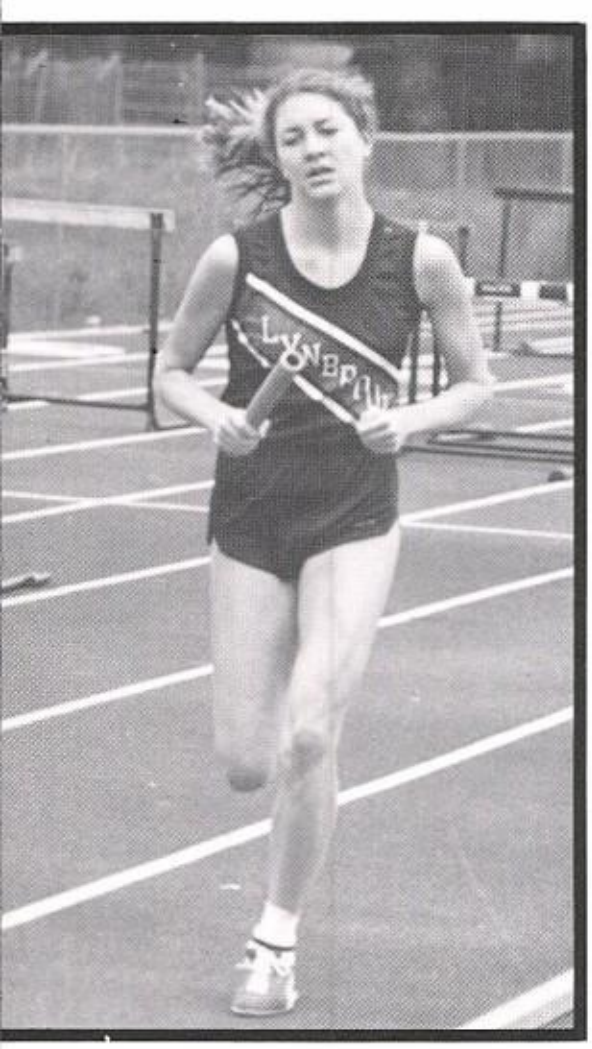


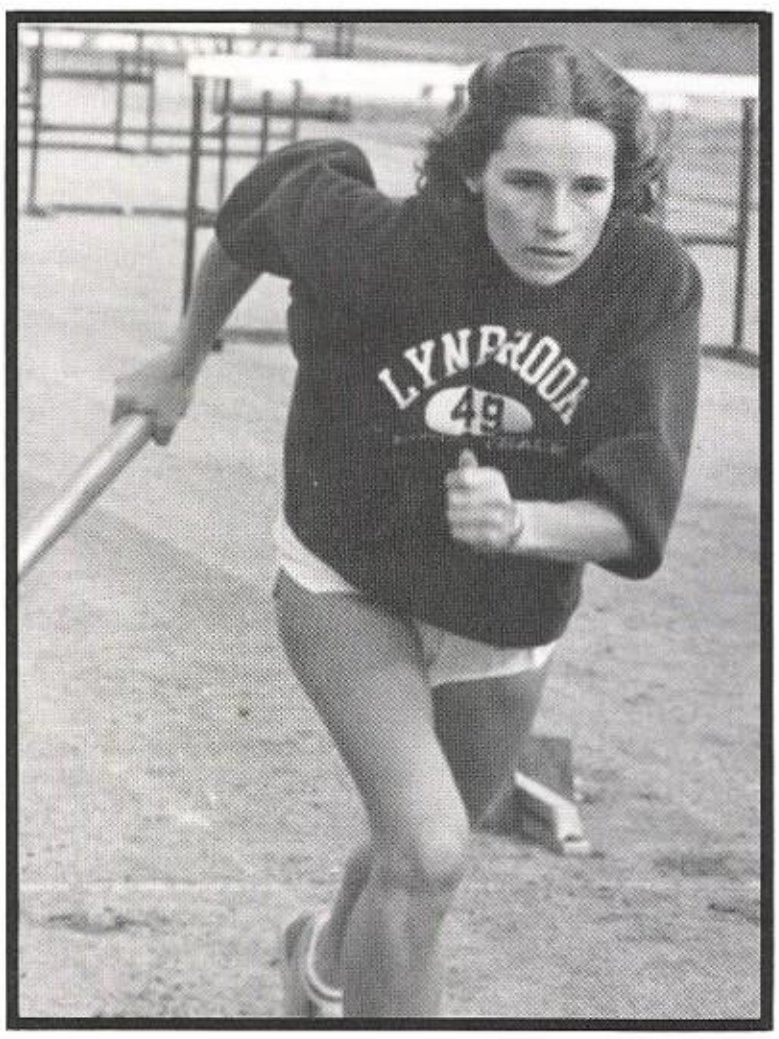






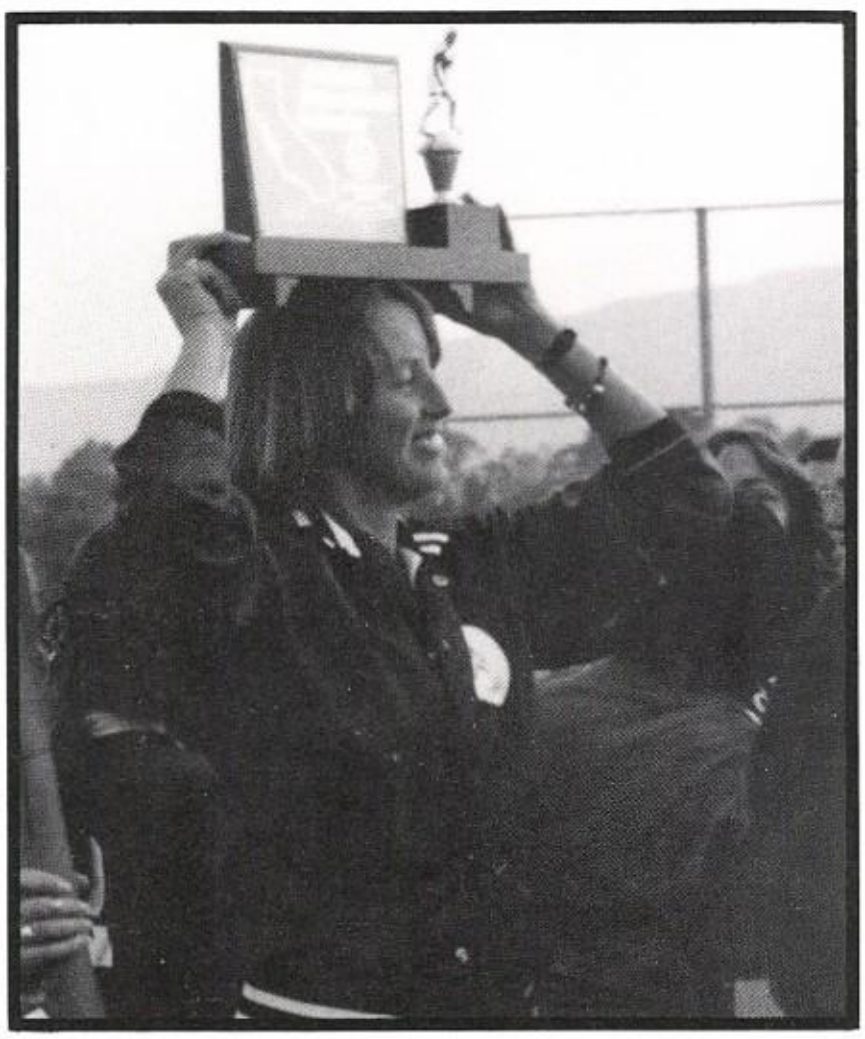






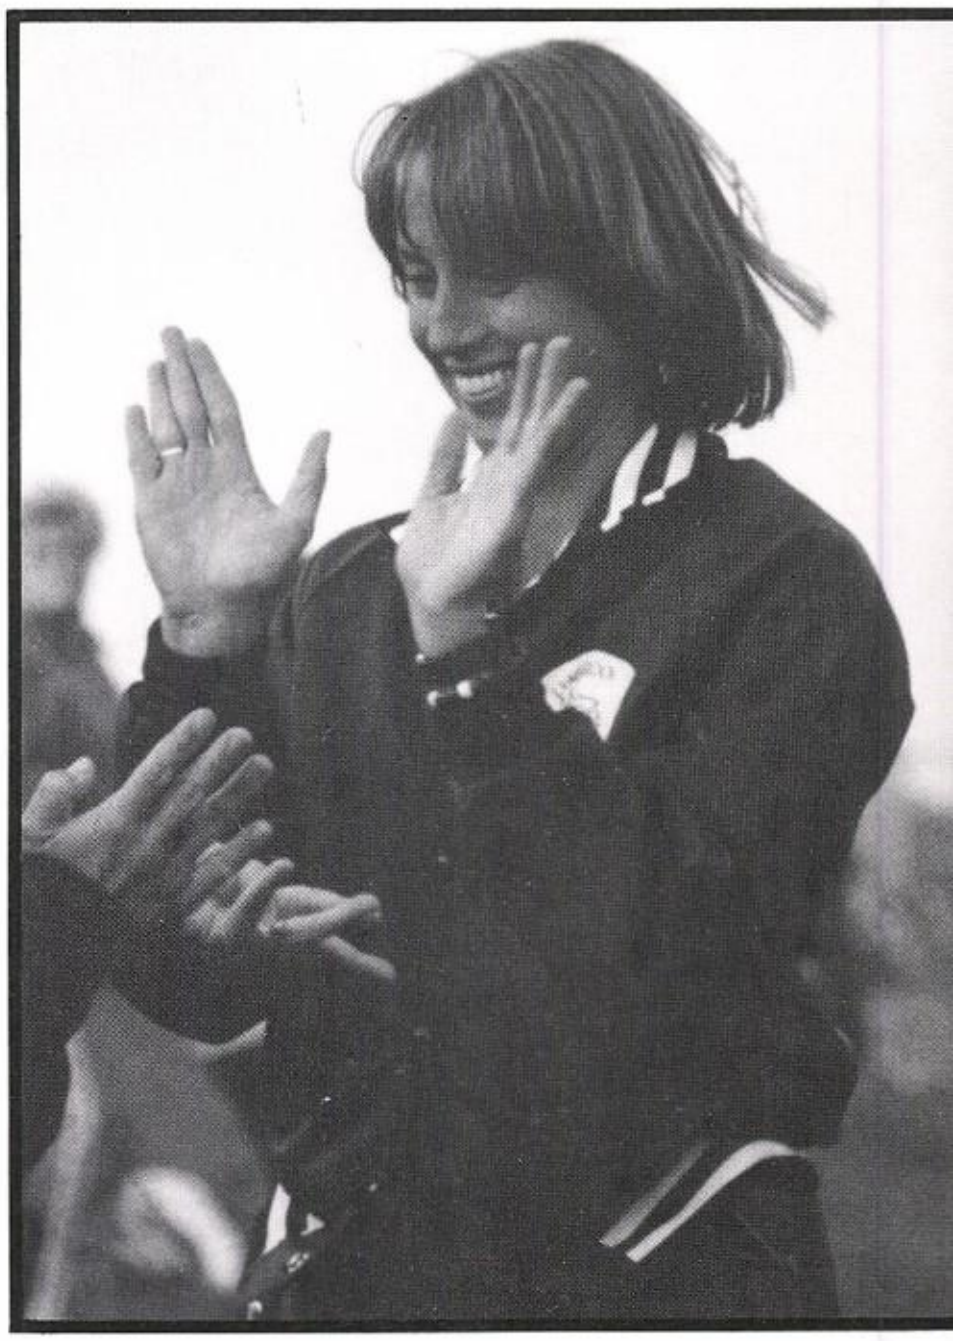
sophisticated drills as bounders, pop ups, high knees, build ups and Benny Browns. This exclusive (inclusive) club traveled to such places as Menlo Africa, Los Gatos for the Coed Relays, Watsonville for the Wildcat Relays, to SJCC to see Bruce Jenner (meet), to the pastures of Gilroy, where they walked (ran! jumped, threw!) away with a fair share of victories.

ccs champs



"I felt "complete fulfillment" after the game . . . It took a lot of years, but now that i've been involved in one, I want another!"

Sandi Strobe

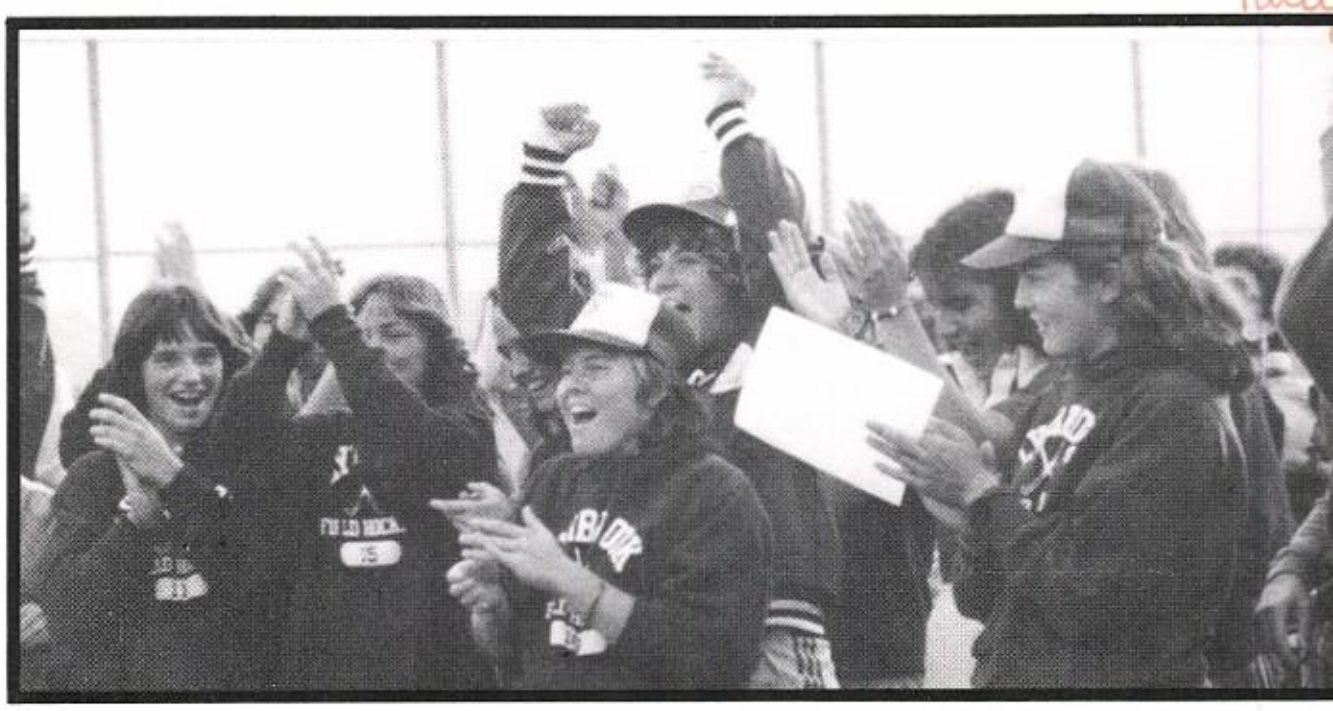


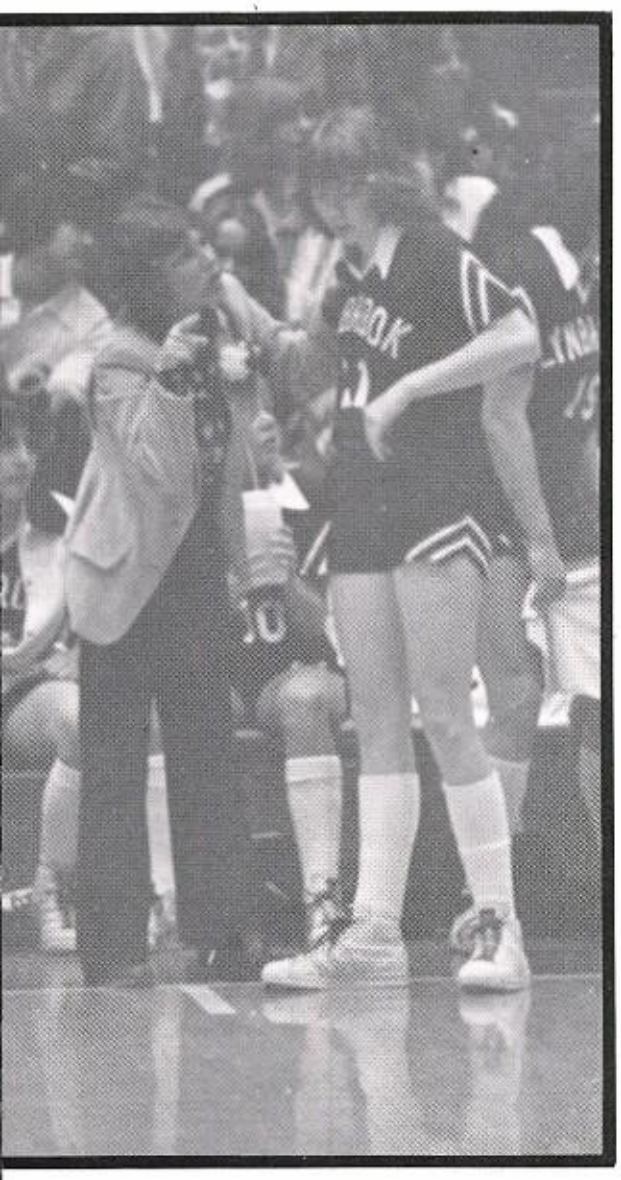
"One can not express the happiness and the sweat of this championship. Someone has to win to feel what I feel; to understand, because it's so awesome!"

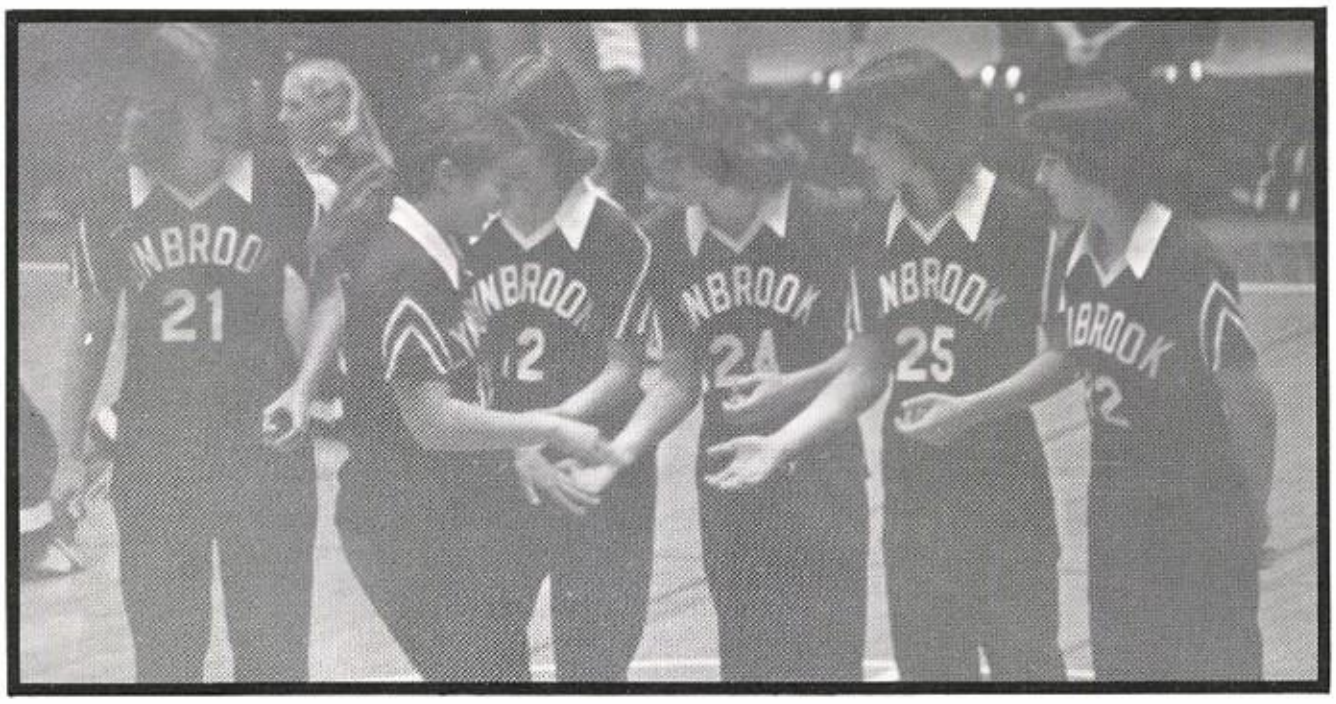
Kristy Pavlo

"We were in perfect mental and physical condition thanks to Strober, and I've never felt so in control of a game as I did in the final game as well as the two qualifying games. We overwhelmed them. This season was so special to me. Being a senior and winning CCS was the peak of my years of Lynbrook hockey."

Lisa Yoshida

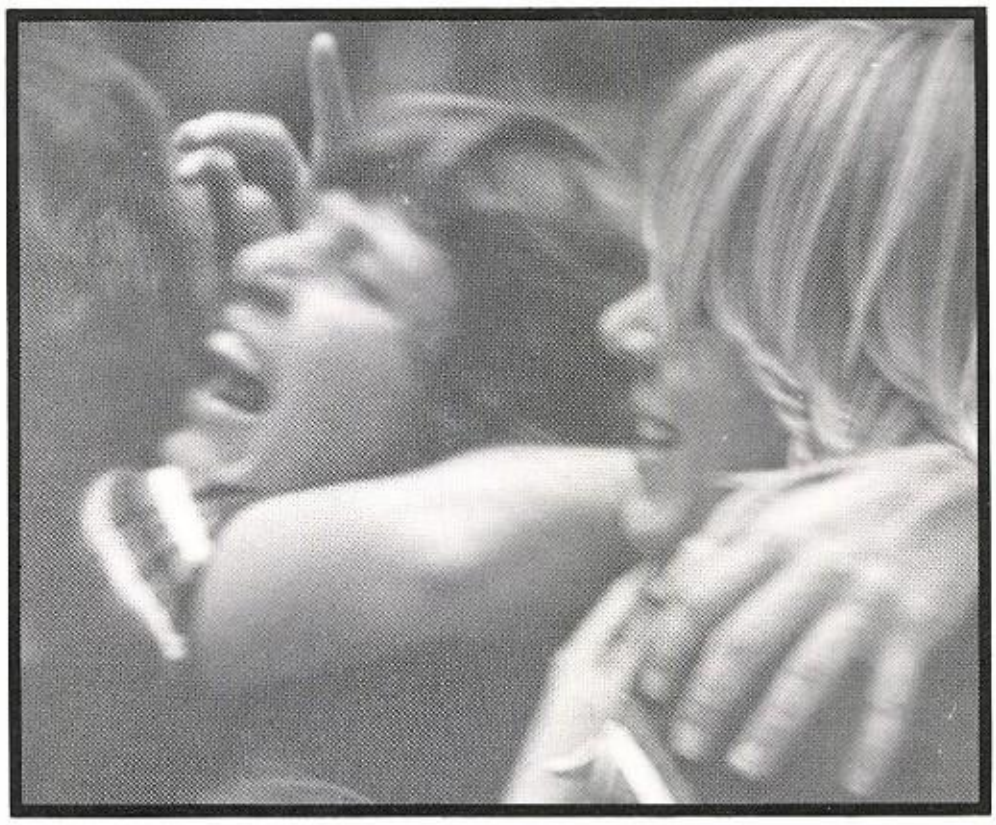






"I feel very privileged to be a part of this great team. I'll never forget this year, 1980-81, Year of the Vikings!"

Jeannie James



"We took each game one step at a time trying not to make mistakes. Then when the time ran out on the clock of the last game, there was a great load lifted off our shoulders and a high feeling of proudness that we all made it together whether we played or not."

Kari Rivera

Being the coach of the C.C.S. basketball champs was he ultimate experience of my life. It was a totally unreal eeling when the players lifted me in the air after our vin over Live Oak. I will always remember this basketball season and what a great thrill it was."

Lisa,

Thanks you so MUCH for leaving me a page to sign. Now I have to sign on a goddamn athletics page. But that's alright, since I'm such a great athelete anyway. But really Lisa, ya know, I had you in at least oh, maybe about zero classes or something. I know that because just about every single time I walked into one of my classes, you weren't there. Where were you? I'll tell you where you were. You were in some other class being molested by the people in it. Don't you know that no one can molest you better than I can. Hey, guess what I just realized, we didn't raise our locker. If someone else gets it next year, there certainly going to have a real treat. I don't know if you saw my last drawing, the "Bouncy Buttocks" one. But it was a real keen one. I've five (count) declared to feel up at least all four of these goddamn columns on these two pages, so keep on reading sweetie. Or should I just call you Eddie. Peepers.

First row: B. Beardslee, T. Firchen, P. Roberts, M. Connell, R. Pauley, D. Baker, J. Plaskett, J. Deagen. Second row: J. Murai, S. Peterson, S. Hopkins, P. Robinson, R. Harline, D. Martin, T. Furman, T. Wolby, J. Helton. Third row: D. Daugherty, W. Allen, L. Mar, M. Huber, W. Jenks, K. Strohlman, M. Baroni, B. Calder, D. Sexron, M. Monaco.

Love,

fill (subconscious, I'm sorry, or am I?)

with you being the editor, the paper's really going to go shitsville, huh. Oh, come on now (you don't have to if you don't want to though, cause, hey, I'm that kind of a neat guy). I'm just being sarcastic kidding you. I'm sure you'll make a great editor next year, the greatest ever, breaking new ground in the field (ground, field, I'm too much sometimes) of journalism. I'm in the bathroom now. I don't know if that's the most appropriate place to do this in, but my pen is leaking and I didn't know where else to go. I think it's come to the point where I tell you a story now, but it's a third column story; so I better feel up the rest of this one before I even dare start. Or else, the orange man with little green beaks will come and get me. (will the truth ever be known?)

nce upon a time, in the magical kingdom
f Frankville, there lived a young girl with the biggest vocabularies in the land
THE END
This is that special brand of literature known as the ghost story. Like it, don't you?
I know I do. But I'm getting off the track
f the school year, aren't I, but that's okay.
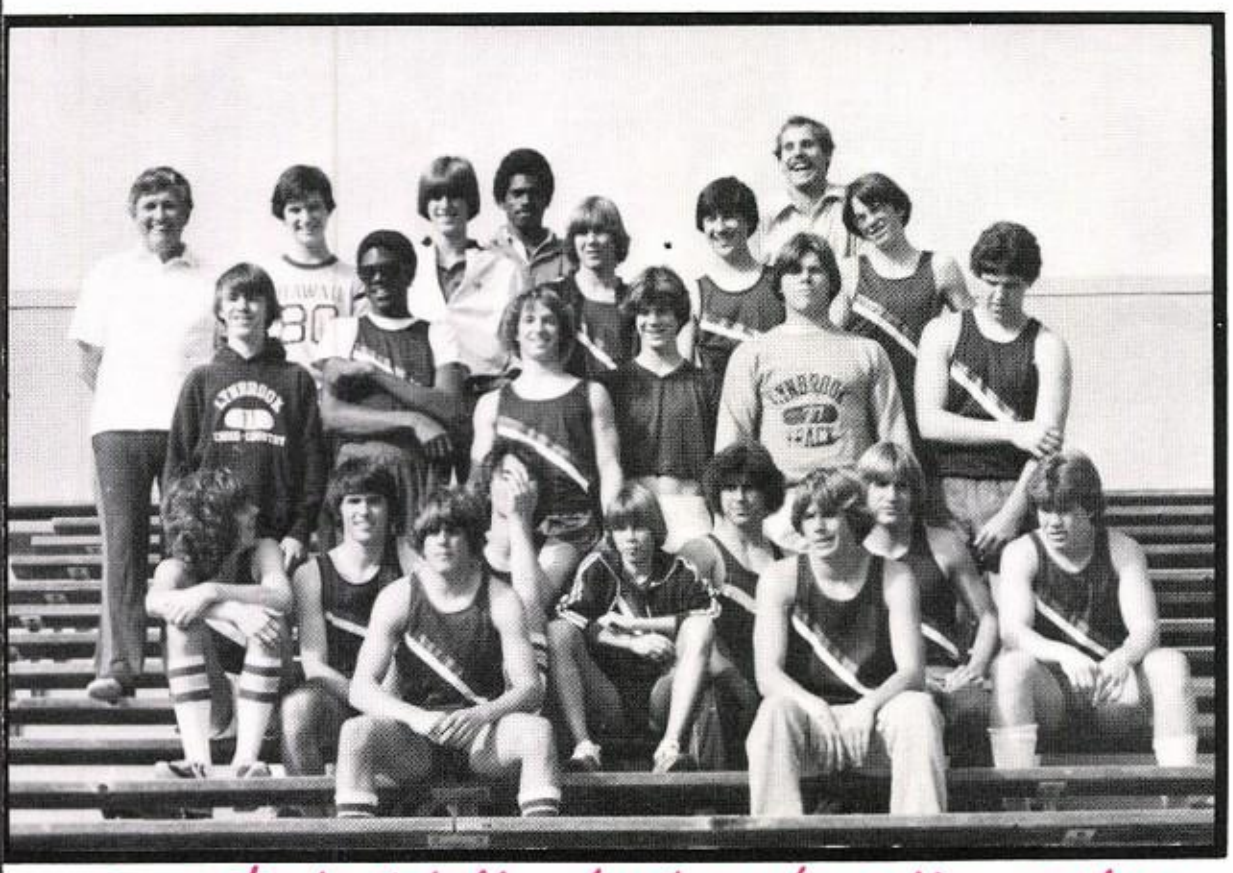
because I blow the smoke of a different choo-choo anyway. But like, super for sure,



j.v. and f/s track and field

maybe shone shown above those of the rest. Wow! Simply wow!
Its later now. I've just gotten out of the shower, which reminds me of this one oak tree. But hey, that's another time and another story. In case your wondering why I'm using these different color pens, it's because I'm trying to show you that I'm not prejudiced against blue, black, or red people.
But really, miss, I just really have to be sure ou have to be totally positive to call me this ummer. Oh, you can call me Jeff, or Pep, or even ft of the tree with a lollipop stick. Or even call me on the phone. Hey, I'm flexible. (But you can call me Jeff!) Wow I'm approaching the fourth column. Didn't think I could do it, did you.

I'm really so proud of you for making editor,
cause like, you had to beat out about two billion
other people to get that job, and your talents

Lisa,

Well, I didn't see you that much this year, because you were mostly with Rich. (woo woo!) If they have aquacade next year, I'm going to do it and you are too right?? I know one thing for sure, I'm not going to miss "Wayne" this summer, and I think I will commit suicide if I get him again next year. Please give me a call this summer, and maybe Jamie, you, and I can get together (257-1719)

This is my favorite page, of course it's everyone else's too. What babes. That's a good picture of you and Rich, I know you've probably heard it a million times. Boy have we had some silly times. Smoking second period to Windells I'm glad I transferred that one time for the sabina Thanks for the sabina Next year is gonna be great but we're gonna have to do more stuff this year I went too last and I'm sure I'll like you next year!! We have to make it a point to go out and have dinner like at Don Quixotes! That was before. Yah Bay happy B-day to Rich for me - and take care of yourself I'm sure I'll see you this summer even if it's soon. (can't wait leaving for graduation - Those boat graduates are going to watch out for rattlesnakes!!

Boy - I'm relieved - I finally found a spot in your book to sign!! Congrats on being EDITOR. That is so great! I'm glad to see that it is a girl again!! (YA-YA!) Oh well - we kind of drifted apart during this year but I still consider you a terrific friend! You are super sweet and very considerate I'm glad to see that you and Rich are still together. You ~~two~~ two are so cute together!

Good luck next year as editor. I'll help you whenever you need it. Can you believe that we are finally seniors. I am sooo happy. We've got to make it

Lisa,
It was fun getting to know you this year in JI and especial. I hope to see you next year. Have a total blast as editor. I know you'll do a terrific job 'cos you did a great job this year.
Have a really good summer and good luck next year. I'll come + visit the "J" room to see how you're doing. What a bummer that I couldn't take JII + be news editor! Oh, well!
I'll see you next year, Lisa.

Hey Lisa!
What an exhausting year it's been! But us JI kids pulled it off! You're gonna have your hard-working JI work cut out for you next year being ed.tor! I think you're a masochist! I also think you're very nice! It's been great getting to know you this year and I'm sure you even better next year on staff! I'm looking forward to it! Congratulations! The best to you and Rich! You make such a cute couple! Have an awesome summer! See ya next year!

Sorry it wasn't real. More champagne boys?

Lisa, to a way back friend who I really care about. I'm so glad you were in history with me because it really full we've grown close. I know times have been a little hard for you with your love and relationship with Rach, but you should know that you've always got me around when you need someone. We still have to introduce Romeo to Ace - this summer we'll spend a lot of time at the beach and I know Catalina is going to be fantastic! Thanks for always encouraging me when I needed it you're great Lis, and you're real special to me!

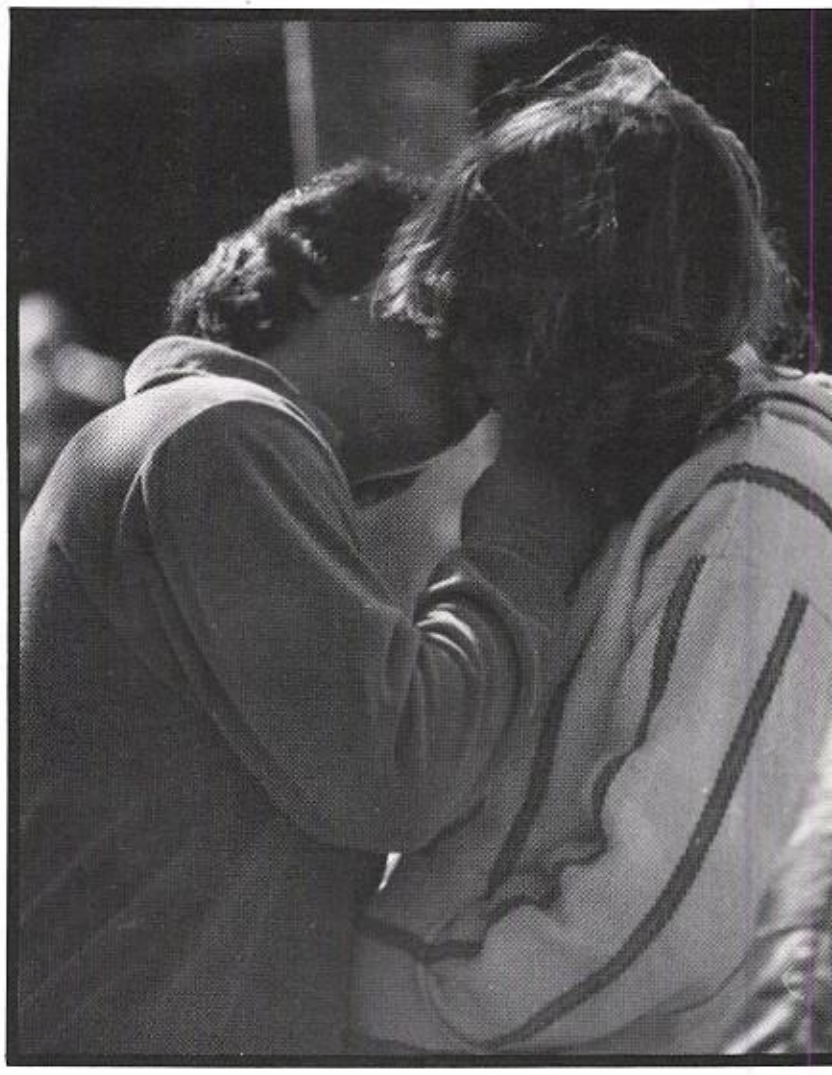
"I know that being a freshman isn't all that great, but if you look at it like I do, it's better than being at Miller."

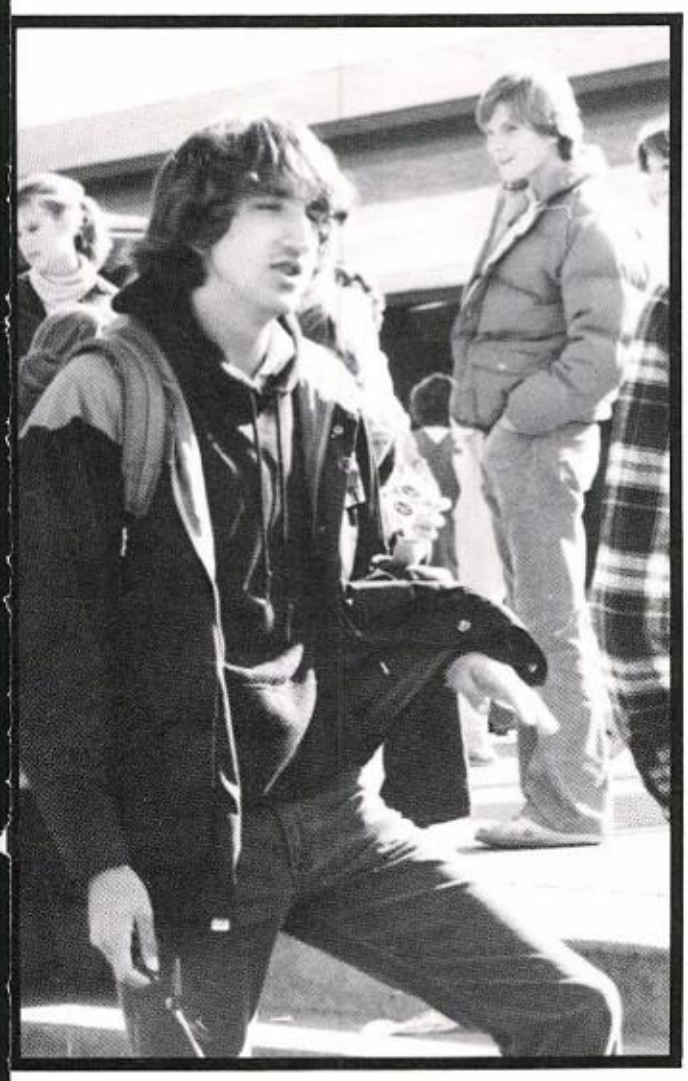
-Lori McGee '83



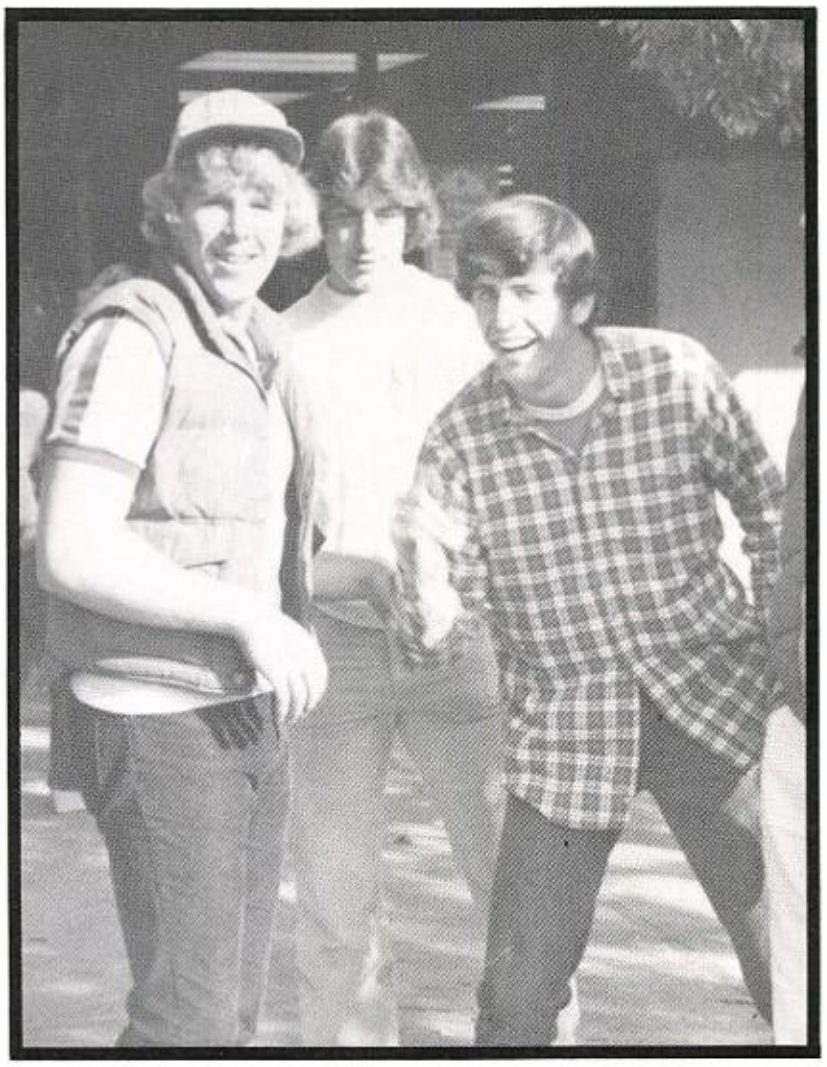
"My four years at Lynbrook have gone by so fast that it hardly seems real. Of course there were the boring times, but for the most part it was fun! Even the classes were fun, thanks to the teachers who were more than just instructors, but friends too (Verne-Are You A Nerd-Thornberg, Mr. "J.B." Bahnsen, Row, Herr Stride, Subliminal Mr. Pugh and tons of others) and all of my fellow classmates who never failed to keep people laughing. People are what made these four years, and Lynbrook has the best!"

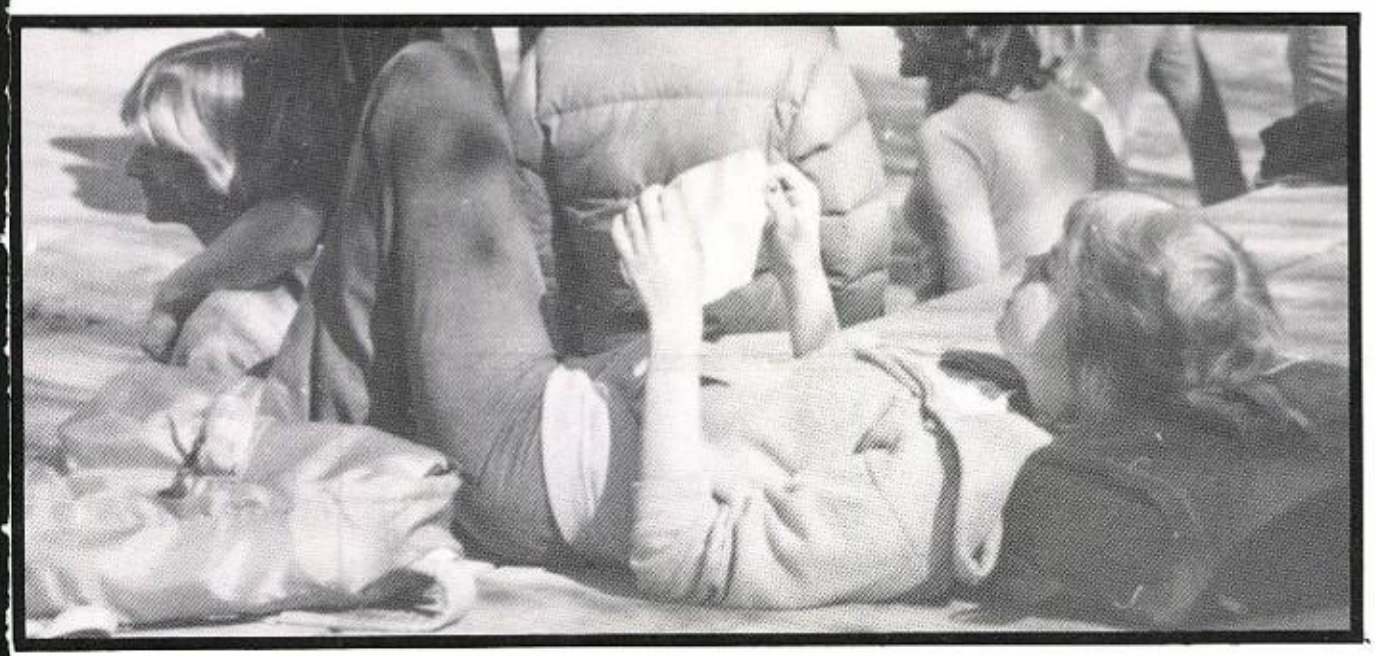
-Cindy Strelling '81

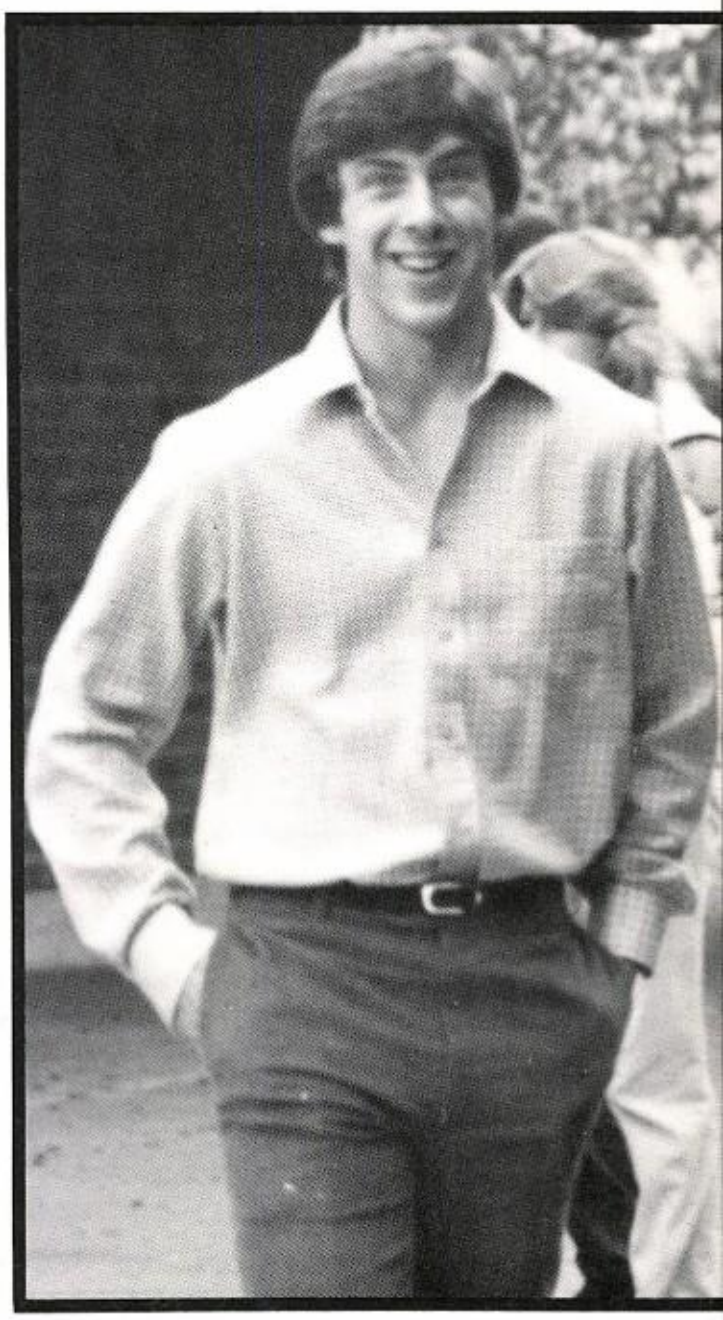
looking back

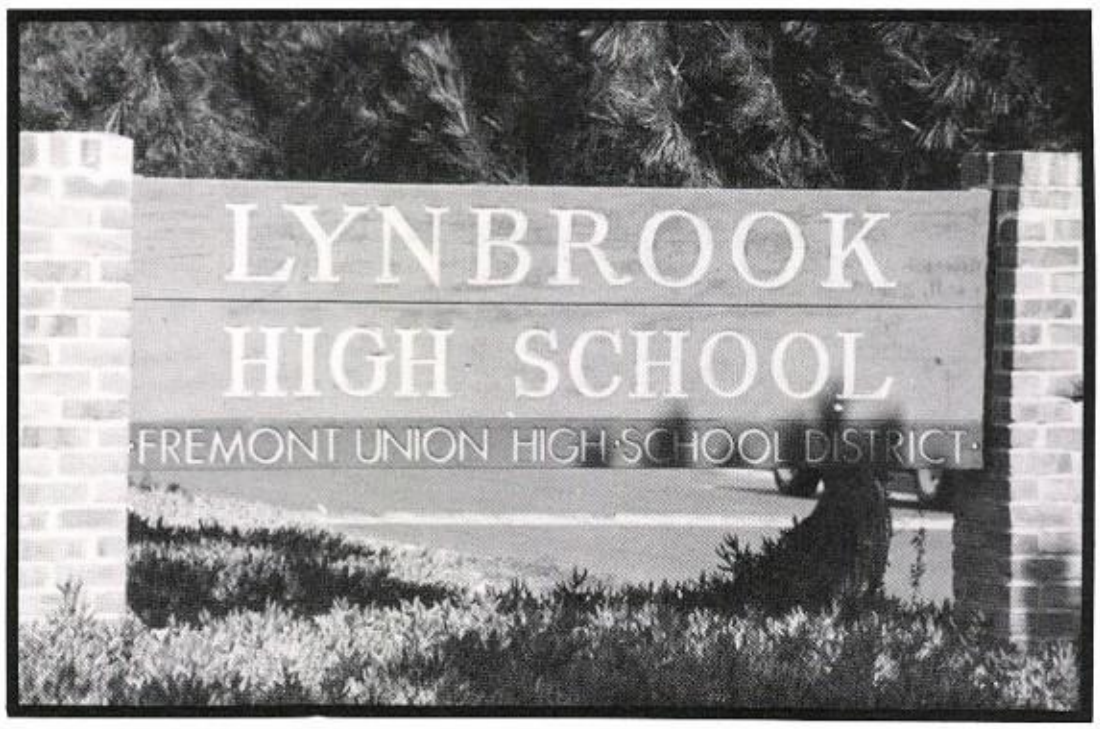


"This year I've grown mentally from lessons both in and out of classes. I've learned a lot from friends, especially the older ones in my sports, hockey and soccer."
-Brenda Kessel '84



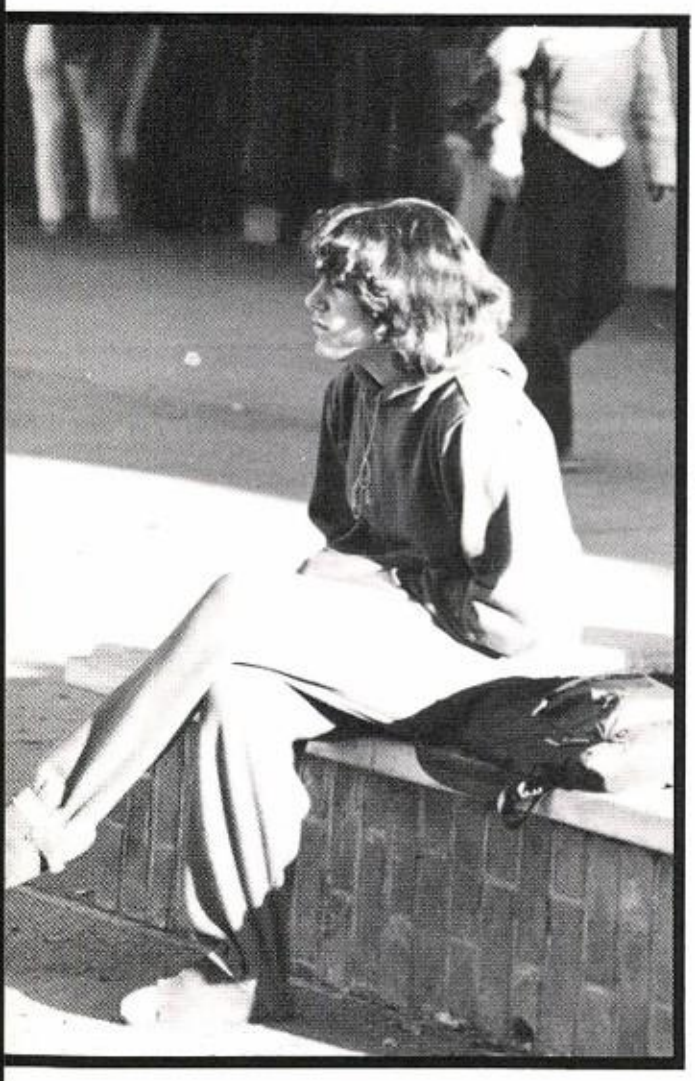


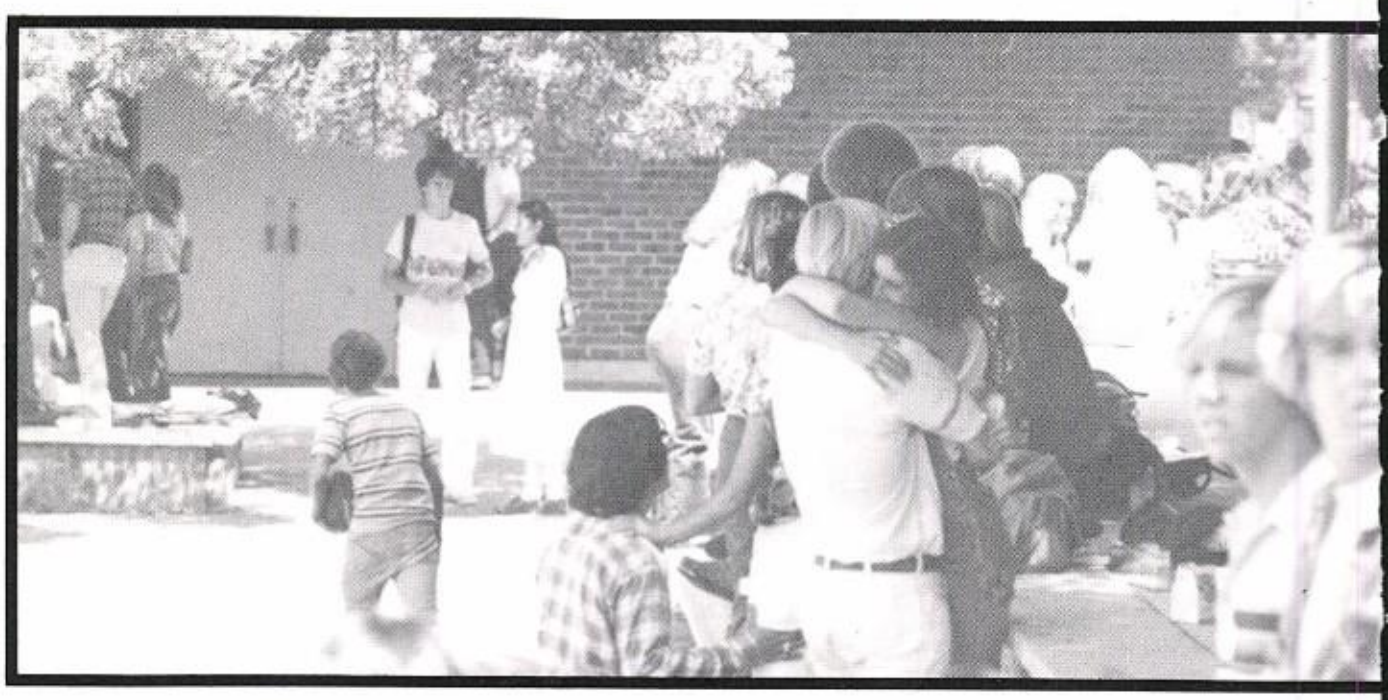


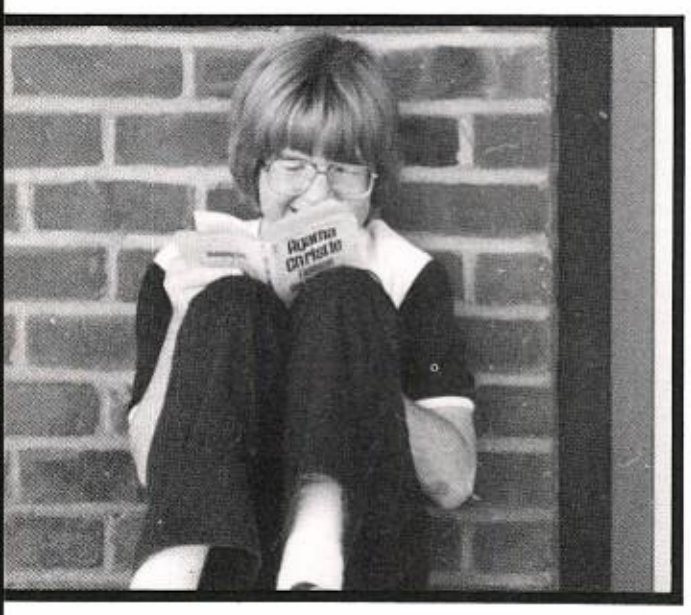


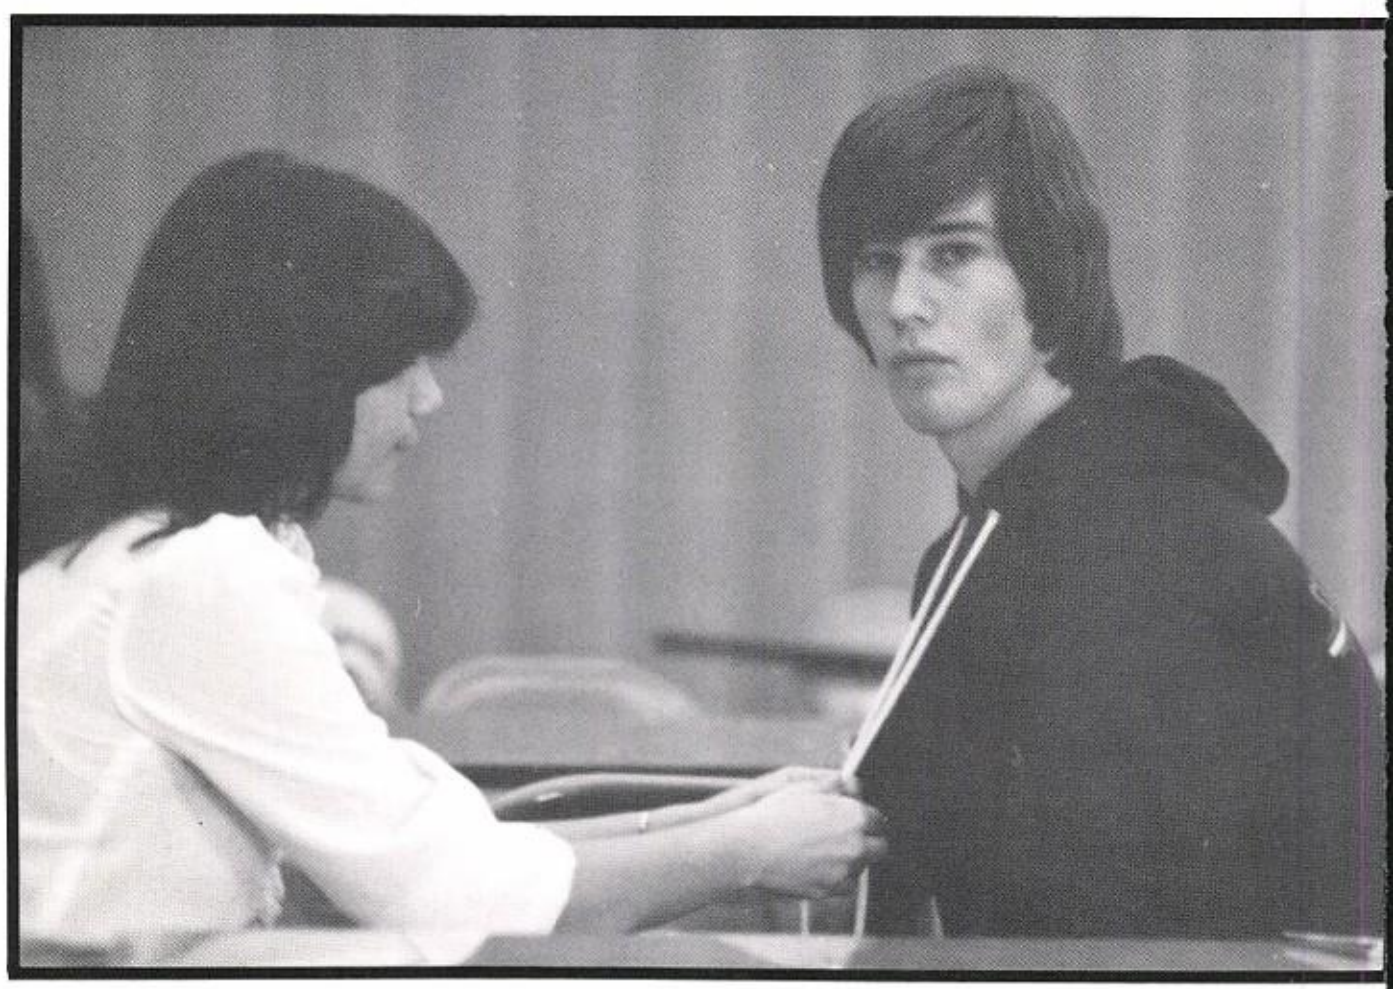
"This past year has been a year of change for me. I went from a shy, conformist sophomore to uninhibited, New Wave junior. I realized that the high school years are a time to have fun and made every effort to make them that way (who got caught streaking?). I made some important, new friendships while reinforcing some old ones. All in all, my junior year at Lynbrook is one that will live in my memories forever."

-Marty Connell '82

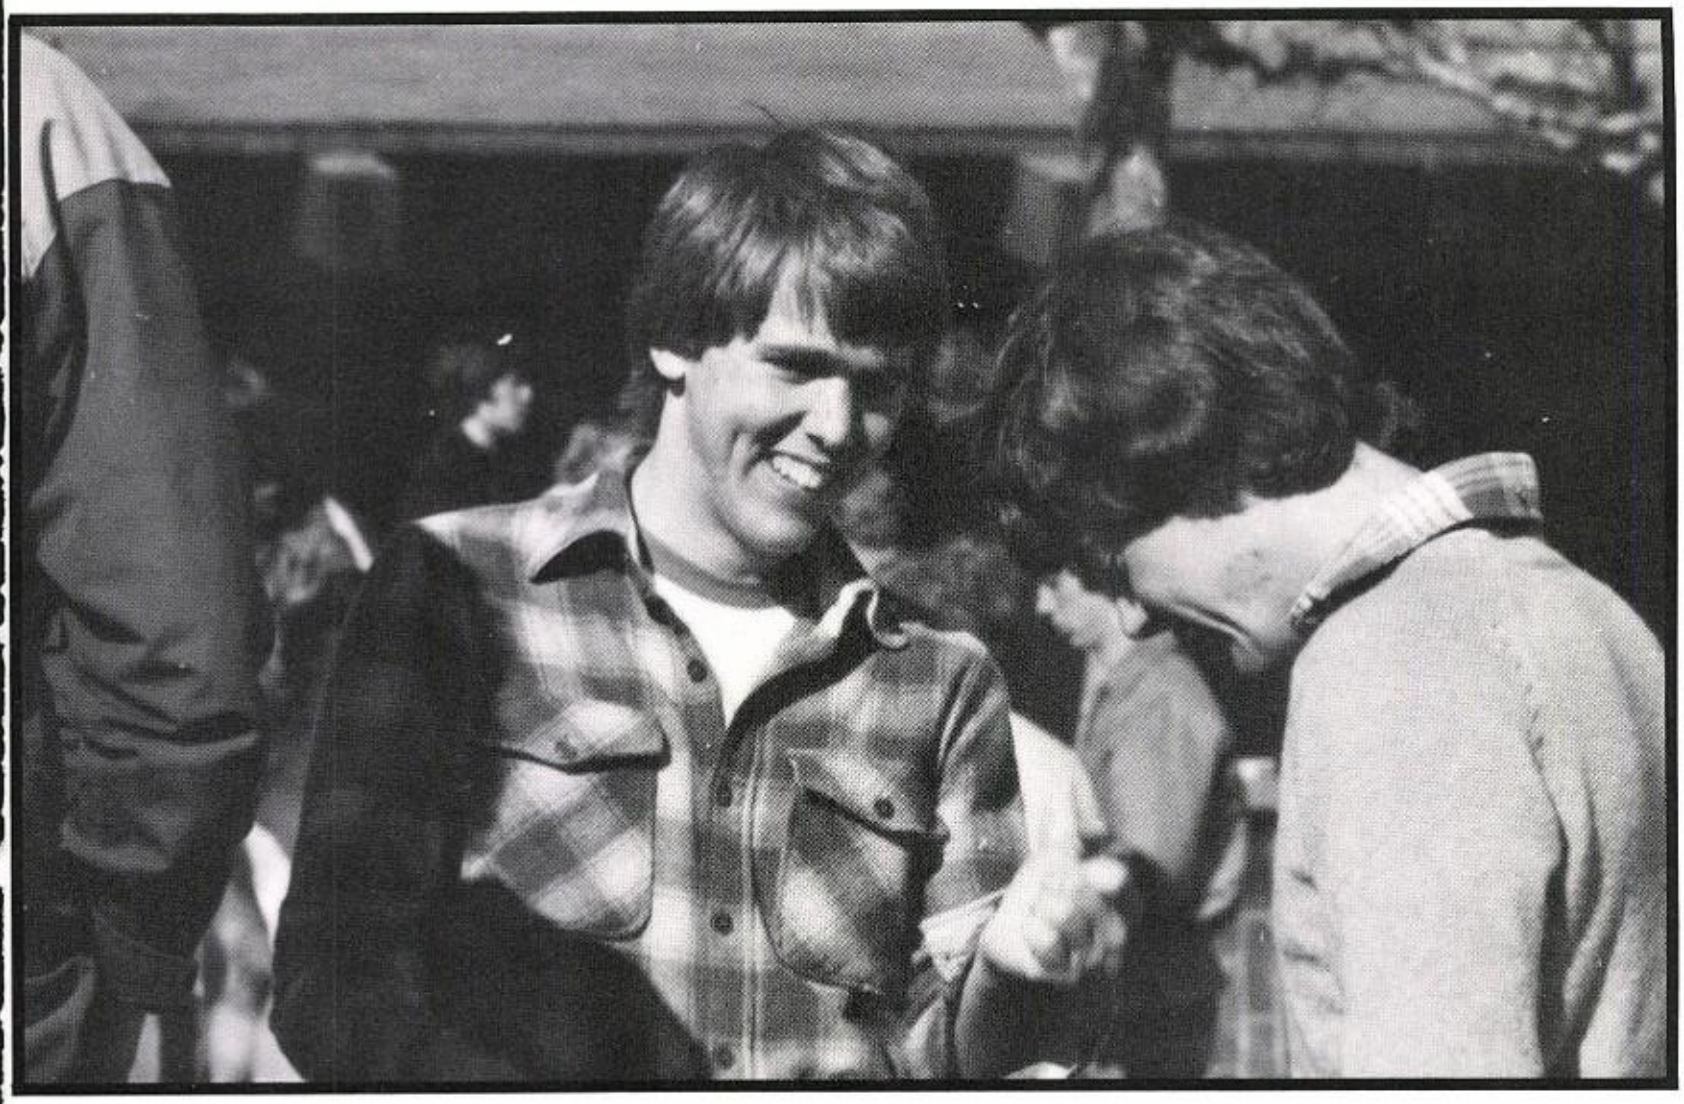






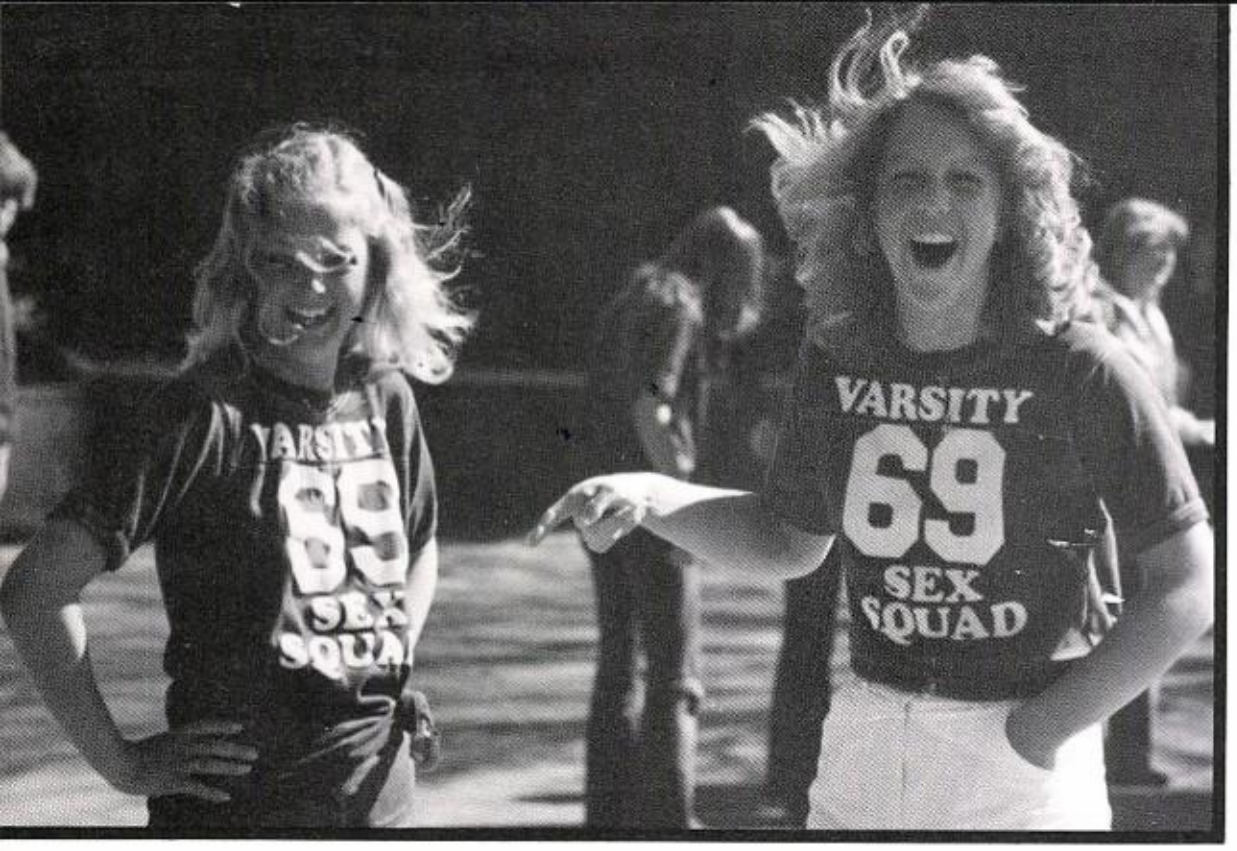


looking back



"Looking back, even farther than life at Lynbrook, we can be thankful for the return of the 52 American hostages."
-Anonymous

"It's (this year) meant a lot of new friends, new experiences, and new memories that will not easily be forgotten."

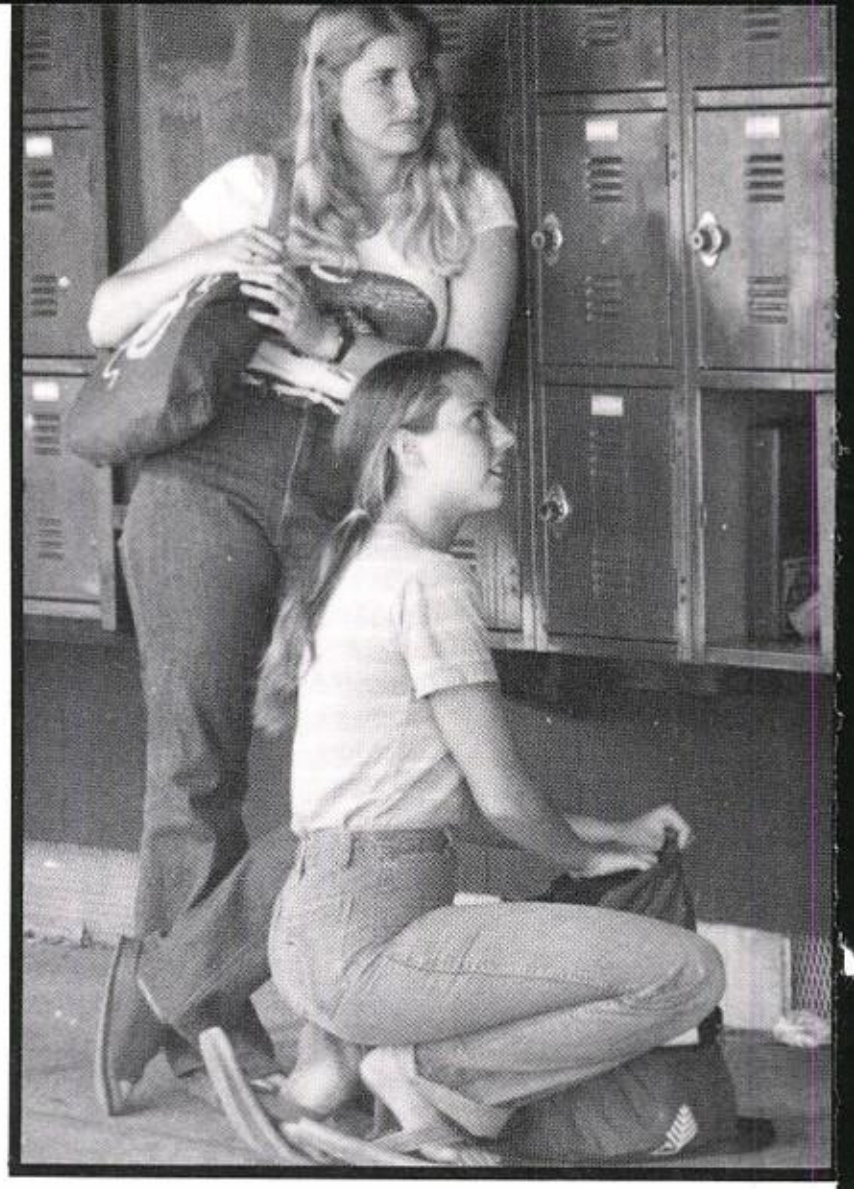


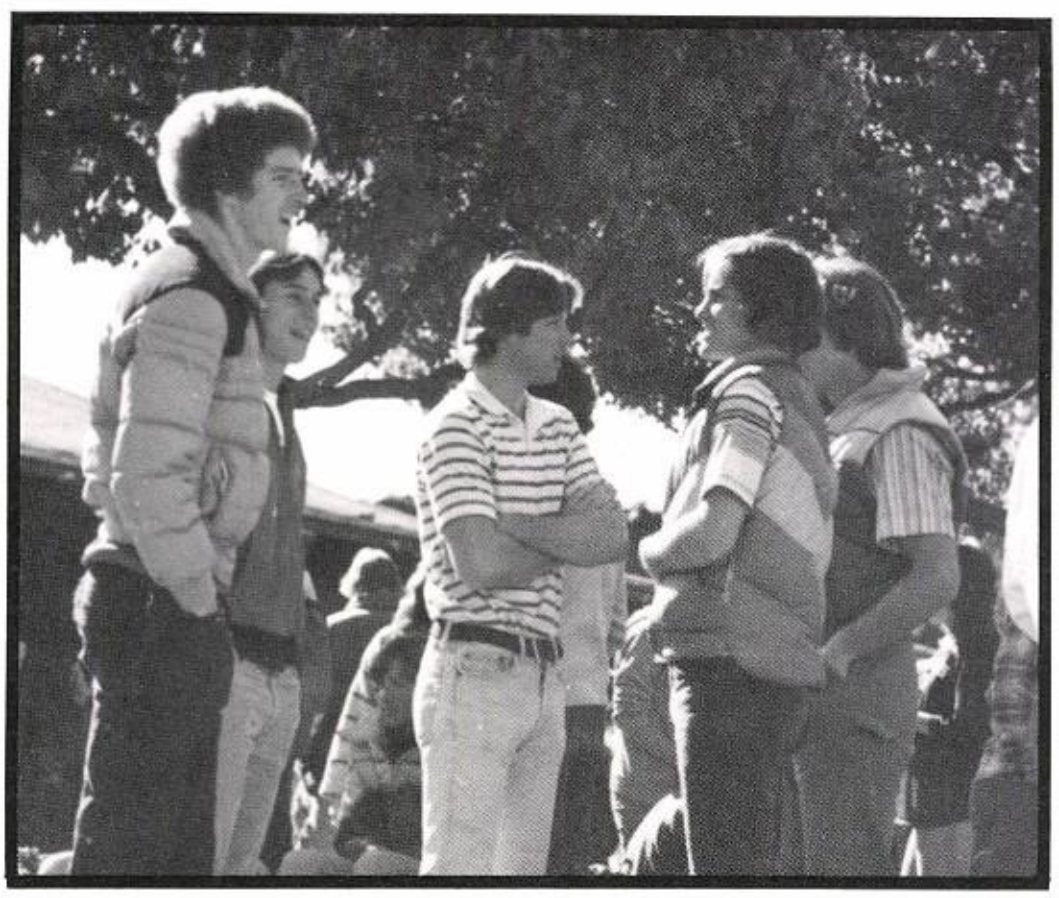
I'm interested in the future because there's where I plan to spend the rest of my life.

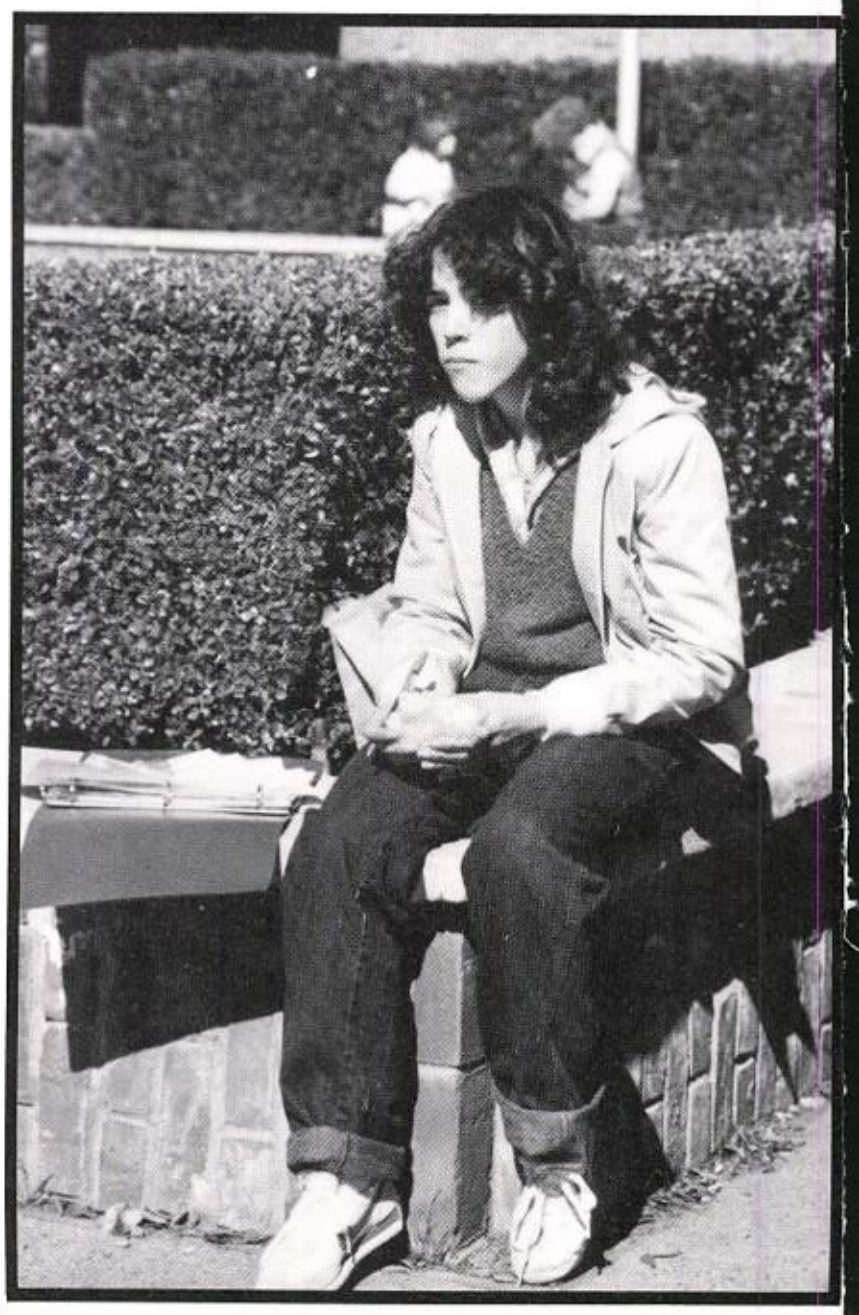
-Judy Van Soldt '81

I am looking forward to all the new challenges as a senior at Lynbrook and holding onto the good memories of the previous years.

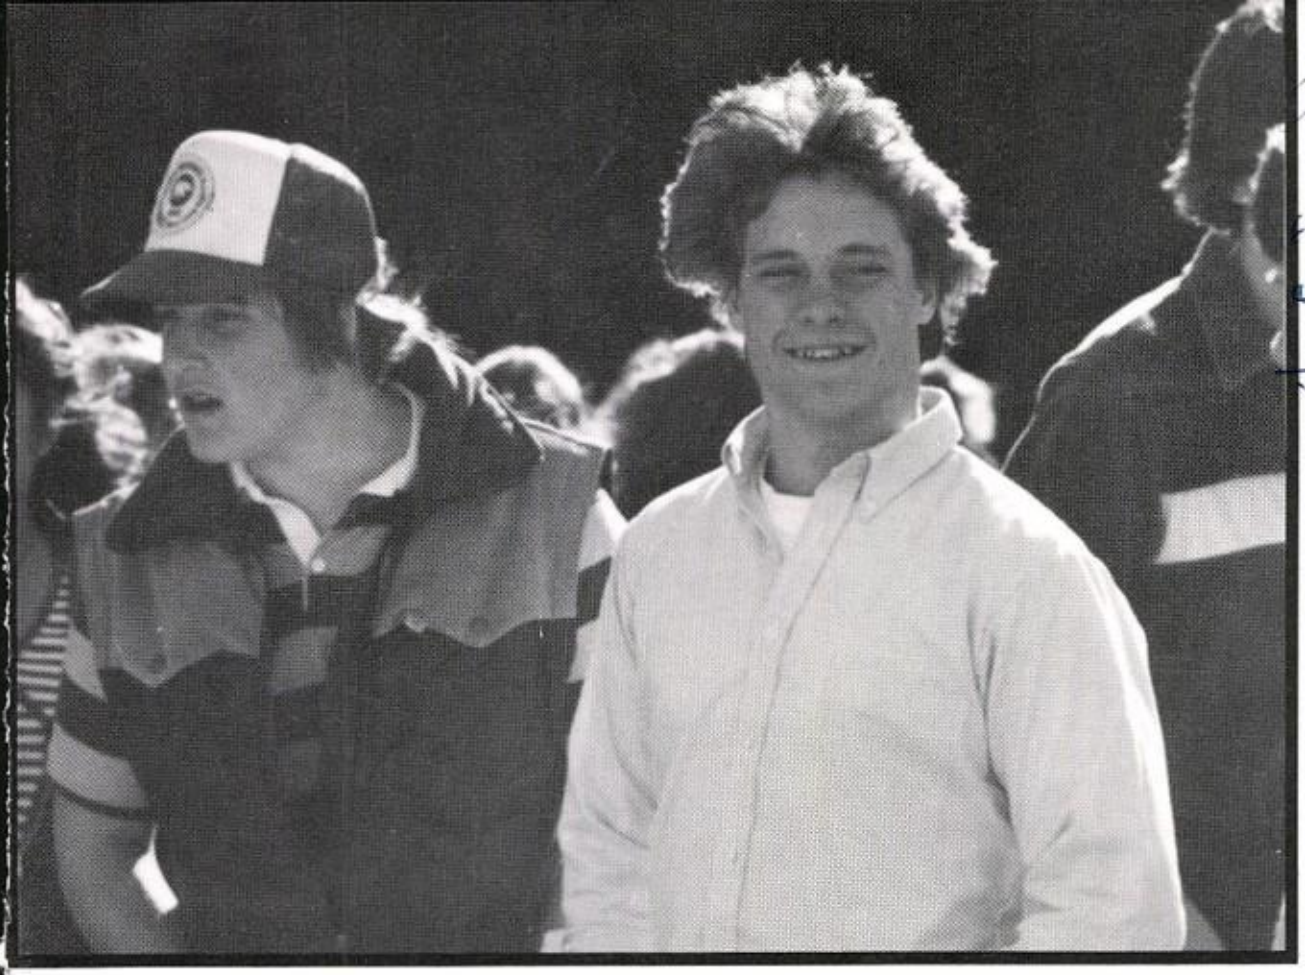
Pascale Mardirossian '82







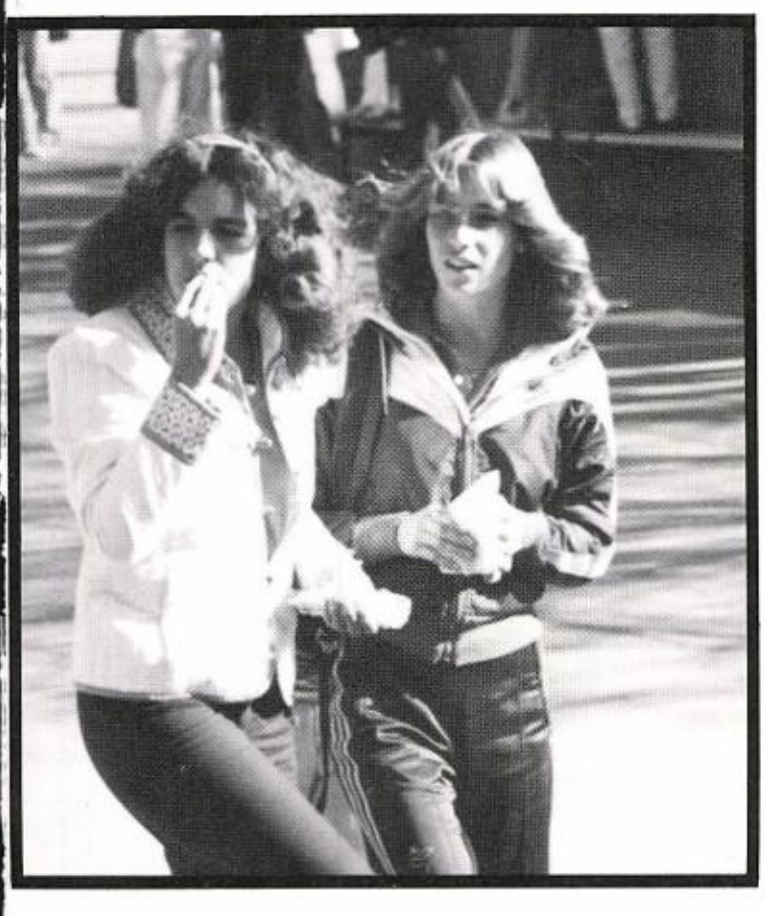
looking beyond

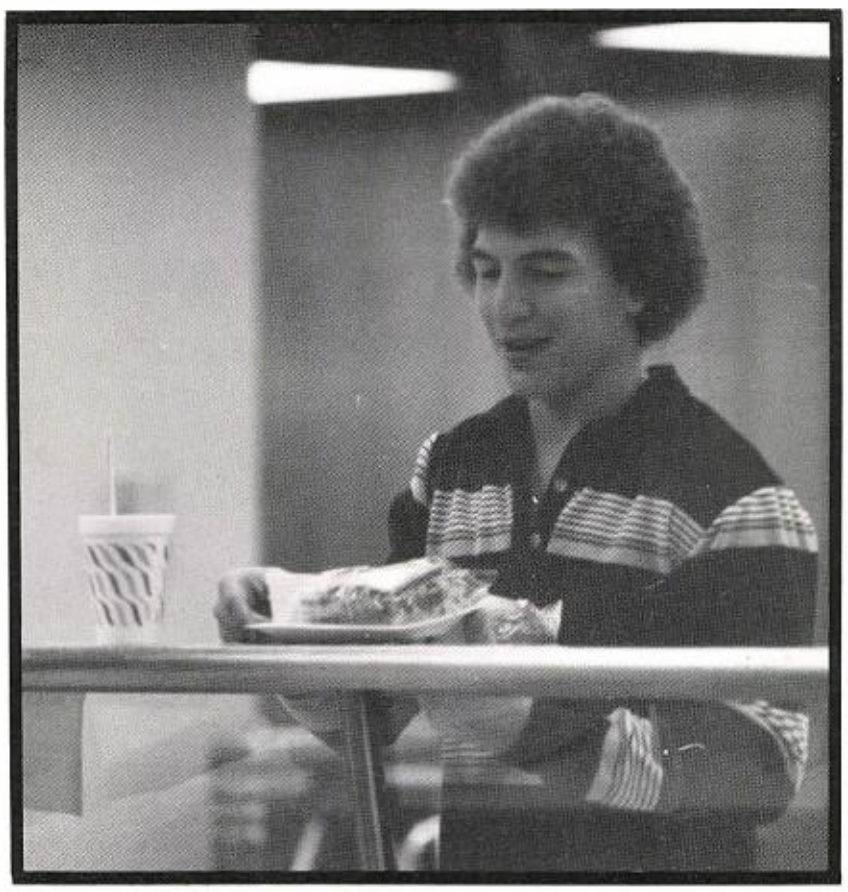


Lisa,
Well were finally "SENIORS" its going to be great.

Next year's gonna be real fun! I know it will! Me and all my friends will have our licenses and will go to the beach all summer and all over the place.
Bridget McKenna '83

I'm looking beyond finals and summer vacation to my senior year. Now I get to be a BWOC!
Cheri Dickard '82





Tessa
While you're at your can I think I'll sign your yearbook. I had a great year and I know you did too.
(of kick). I could write a whole page but I would get writers cramp. Anyways we'll be seniors next YEAH!!! So have a great summer & Please

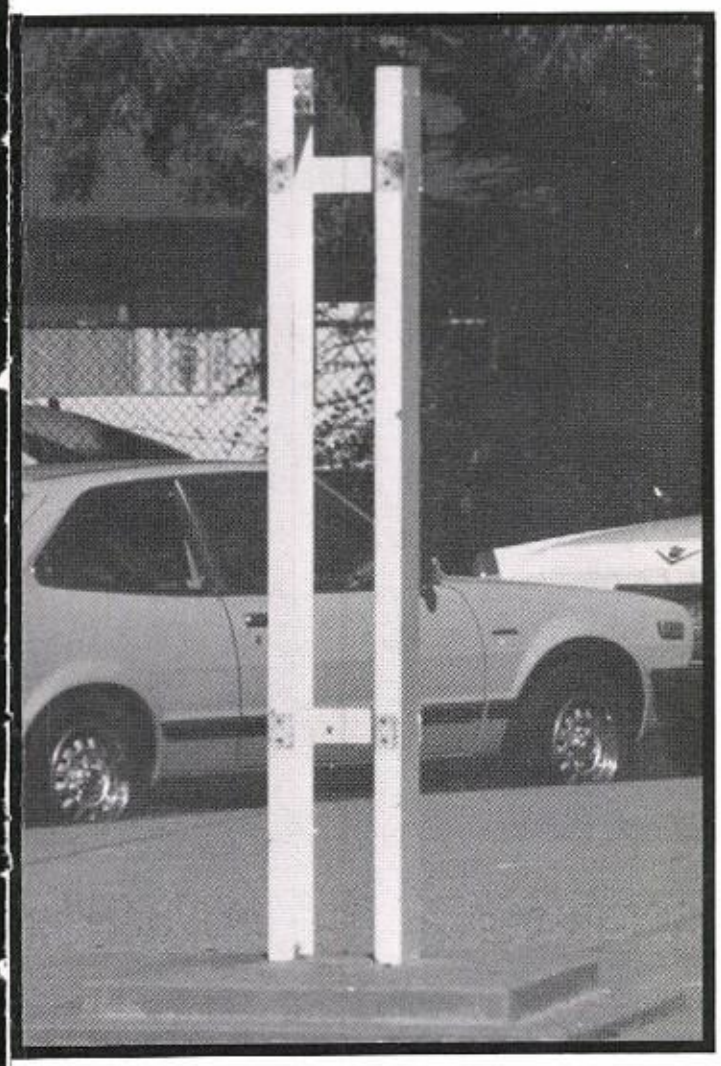
"The world will take in each one of us in a different way and together we will emerge as the leaders of tomorrow."

-Rachel Falsetti '81

looking beyond

"...I can't wait 'till I'm a senior. They just kick back, have the easy life, and do almost anything they want."

-Tony Tsobanarsis '83



"Look beyond to where,
We'll take a chance or dare.
A job, a slob, a degree,
We'll find a place, and be.
Perhaps a doctor, a lawyer, or an engineer,
Or a day of soap operas and a can of beer.
Some may find the family a possibility,
Although that takes time and ability.
But in the future, we will all go far,
As for me, I want to be a ROCK AND ROLL STAR!!"

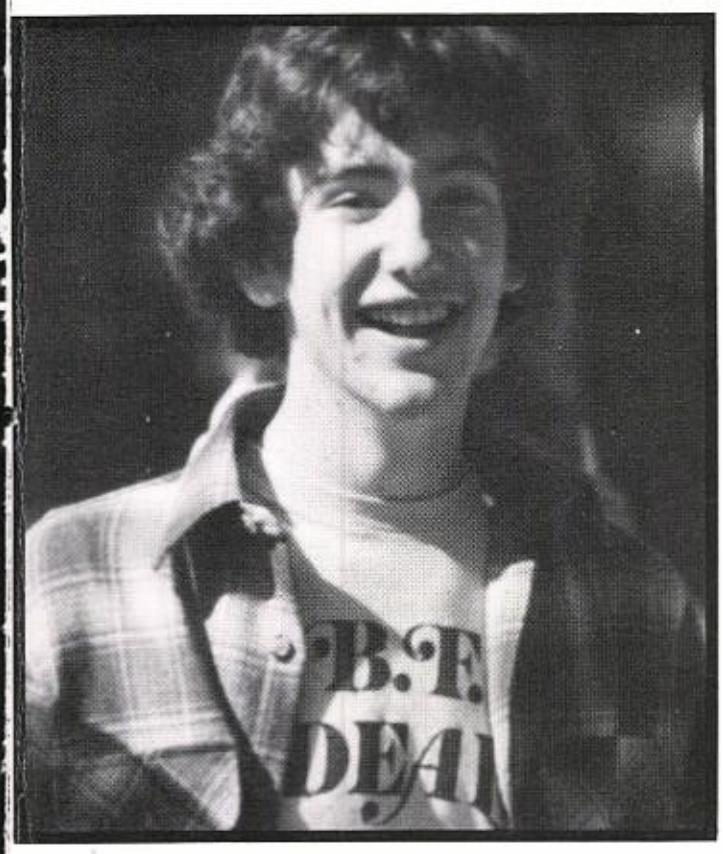
-Tracy Weber '81



Lisa, This year has gone by so fast that we haven't had a chance to talk. My boss! a fine example of leadership! Shut up! Heehee! I'm really looking forward to working with you next year and getting that credit for a degree! Love ya, Tom

LISA:

Where should I start? So much has happened to me, and probably you to this year. Its really been great. Ive gotten to know so many neat people, and have had so many neat experiences with them, be it awake or in my dreams! Youre probably wondering what it was about, it would probably bug me too! I hope I didnt keep you wondering. Its kind of hard to describe what happened, it was really kind of unique! Do you know how it is when you really want to know someone really well, but you never have the chance to do something with them? or less, Well, anyway, that doesn't have anything to do with my dream! only kidding. I hope you don't get a wrong impression, or anything, me, in the morning! Oh my god! So here we are, at this party, and you were really teasing me all the time, so somehow I end up in the bathroom, and you follow me in. Youre still teasing me, and now could I resist? Still respect me? Here's where it gets good. I hope you don't let any- one else read this, or no one will want to even speak to me. So you push me into the bathtub, I can't go on, it gets to good. You don't want to hear this! Im ~~sure~~ sure you can imagine what happens after you get me pinned! Dont think anything seriously of it, I was really shocked! But it was fun. Don't worry, its only a dream, but if you want to really know the graphic parts, you going to have to get me pretty drunk. But more dream, actually its less, and now that you know, what do you think? I thought it was kind of funny, actually. I always manage to some- how find away to have fun when Im with you. Youre special to me, and Im so glad we are friends. I know you have so many other friends that are going to write a lot, so I better start to wrap it up. Youre really a nice person, and youve really influenced my life, in many ways. Sorry to have taken up so much space, but hey, how many times do I get to write in your yearbook? This year was great, but I bet next year will be alot better! We oughta do something over the summer, so give me a call sometime. I think you have it. Thanks for being a friend,

love

LISA,

What a class, wd. I never would of had such a terrific experience, unless I took Journalism. Its was such a strange experience. I always had such a great time in there, but it was a bummer when it came to school work. But enough of this, you are a real unique and humorous person, who never ceases to amaze me. Being in Journalism with such a great group of people who were always jokin's was great. Well Ms. Ed E. Tor see ya at a party.

Lisa -
So, how'd it goin' "Brat." (just kidding (kind of)) Well it look like the end of another school year but I can't really say I'm glad it's over either, can you? It seemed to go by so fast! Especially on kick back Sp. class. I'm glad we're still good friends it's been a whole five years now since 7th grade, which was pretty fun too. But it's kind of hard to imagine that we'll be seniors next year at this time we'll be our last year here at Lynbrook ent it?

Lisa,

Next year should be very interesting to say the least, as if this year wasn't. I don't know if I could handle another year of "Hiawatha" with Mr. Mayfield so I'm glad I'm moving on. Journalism holds a lot of potential. If we can get more organized than last year's staff, and I'm sure we can, the paper may turn out to be a prize winner. Actually, I don't think it could help but be great with the Editors it's going to have. Well, keep yourself out of trouble, which is a stupid thing to say. Well anyway, say Hi to Mr. Hyperbola for me, would ya? Best wishes during your senior year.

Lisa,

You're probably even more excited about the end of this school year than I am - I wish I were going to be a senior! It was fun harrassing Mayfield - it added a little excitement to the morning. Have a good summer and I'll see you next year.

Love,
Kristin

LISA,

How are you doing? Wayne was soooo cool. Too bad we had only 1 class together maybe next year we will be lucky + get more. Did you have fun this year? Next year we will be seniors! (Yeah!) (original). Guess what I got a big 50% on that last test, zippler. OH well, you be sure to take care of yourself over the summer + if you have nothing to do why not call me (996-3226) + I'll take you out to lunch or something

TAKE CARE,

Love,
Jim Cooke

Lisa, God, what can I say. We had some great times together, too Bad, we didn't get to any classes together this year, but I guess that you too were busy. Bar me, well that's life. But now that were Seniors Maybe we will be well. I hope so. All of the Seniors should get together and get crazy this Summer or next year. have a great Summer and keep in touch and let me know of all of parties
